1	A. No.
2	Q. I want to take you next to the second
3	paragraph and I will read the first sentence to you
4	while you read along quietly. "During the meeting, you
5	admitted you posted graphic videos of aborted fetuses
6	on Facebook and sent the same videos in a private
7	Facebook message to another Southwest flight
8	attendant."
9	Did I read that correctly?
10	A. Yes, you did.
11	Q. Is it true that you admitted during the
12	fact-finding meeting that you posted graphic videos of
13	aborted fetuses on Facebook?
14	A. Yes.
15	Q. Is it true that you admitted that you sent
16	the same videos in a private message to another
17	Southwest flight attendant?
18	A. I sent them to Audrey Stone who was my
19	president of the union, yes.
20	Q. And Ms. Stone was also employed as a flight
21	attendant by Southwest Airlines at that time, correct?
22	A. She was employed, yes.
23 24	Q. Well, I mean, my question is specific so I want to make sure the record is clear. She was
24 25	employed by Southwest Airlines as a flight attendant,
د ی	emproyed by southwest Arrithes as a fright attendant,

Now, do you acknowledge that all of these 4 Q. 5 are messages that you sent to Ms. Stone? Yes, as for being my president of the 6 7 union, it was. 8 And prior to sending the messages, 0. 9 beginning on the first page and continuing on to the second page, did Ms. Stone report you to Southwest 10 11 Airlines? 12 As a matter of fact, we never even had Α. No. 13 any communications. Did Ms. Stone ever respond to you with 14 Q. respect to any of these messages? 15 No, she did not. She was very hard to --16 Α. 17 to speak with. 18 What efforts did you make to contact Q. Ms. Stone aside from sending these messages, if any? 19 Through emails. 20 Α. 21 Q. And --22 Α. And going to a, you know, a union meeting before I became an objector. 23 24 Q. To the best of your recollection, what 25 emails did you send to Ms. Stone? Page 32

1	A. The last time that I spoke with her was in
2	2013, at a union meeting.
3	Q. Can you tell me about that conversation?
4	A. Well, I mean, it was a union meeting. It
5	was put forth you know, I mean, there was a lot of
6	topics that were there. One of them being that she was
7	not the duly elected president. They had taken out
8	our our other team of elected officials.
9	Q. So was this a one-on-one conversation, or
L 0	was this just a general meeting environment?
11	A. Well, everybody has a moment to speak at a
12	union meeting.
13	Q. So were you standing up in the meeting and
14	speaking in front of the meeting to Ms. Stone, or were
15	you privately speaking to her on the side?
16	A. No, it was in the meeting.
L 7	Q. What did you say to Ms. Stone in that
L 8	meeting?
L 9	A. I don't recall everything that I said that
20	day.
21	Q. Do you recall anything that you said that
22	day?
23	A. I read out loud the bylaws that we want to
24	change, I do remember that, and that I read out the
25	basically the coup that had been talked about with all

1 of them now that were representing us to take out the 2 last group, and that would have been Stacy Martin, 3 Chris Click, Jerry Lindermann, Dawn Wann, and Jana 4 Deloache. 5 0. Did Ms. Stone respond to you? 6 Α. She did not respond. It was basically a 7 document that I was able to read, several documents 8 that I was able to read, regarding some of the things 9 that were said by the people that actually now were 10 representing us. 11 0. But she -- but she never had a direct 12 response to you. 13 Α. No. As a matter of fact, she's never really had a direct response with a whole lot of 1415 people. She's very hard -- she was very hard to get 16 ahold of. 17 Was this the first time you ever engaged 0. directly with Ms. Stone? 18 19 Yes, it was. Α. Would it be fair to characterize that 20 0. 21 meeting as confrontational? 22 It wasn't confrontational. It was just Α. 23 basically stating some facts that were -- that we all knew about. 24 25 Were you upset? 0. Page 35

                  Okay. I have it. I've got it.
           Α.
 5
                  And I will represent to you that this is an
           Q. excerpt of volume 2 of the deposition -- of the arbitration transcript -- 7
                  Okay.
8
           Α.
                  -- taken on December 8th, 2017. It has been excerpted to include only your testimony but all of your testimony. I would like to direct you specifically to page 359 using the page numbers in the 12 upper right-hand corner.
10
13
14
           Α.
                  Okay. Okay.
                  And if we look beginning at line 8 through 15
           Q. line 24, can you read that quietly to yourself and 16
      please tell me when you have finished.
17
           Α.
                  Okay.
                  So in this testimony when your counsel was 19
           Q. questioning you, you were asked if you would send the 20 same messages again in the future and you say you would 21
      not, correct?
23
                  I would not use the Facebook Messenger.
           Α.
24
                  So your sworn testimony today is when you 25

1 say, "I realize this is a mistake. I realize that I need to do it in a different manner, and I'm sorry for 2 3 the manner that I did send it through and I take full responsibility for it," you meant you would walk 4 5 pictures of abortions in to Ms. Stone? I would have gone into her office instead 6 7 and had a meeting with her at that point, because this would have never happened as in getting me fired, they 8 9 used the social media policy in this to get me fired. If this would have been at a union meeting, which they 10 get heated and things are said and things are produced 11 12 in union meetings, I would have never been fired. 13 So when you testified before the arbitrator 0. under oath, "I'm sorry for the manner that I did send 14 it through, " what did you mean? 15 I'm sorry for the manner that it was sent 16 17 through a Facebook Messenger. So you were not apologizing for the tenor 18 Q. 19 of the messages? 20 When she was at the march, she saw these 21 exact same type of pictures through the march because 22 they were on big screens, and there is no way, unless 23 she shielded her face through the entire march, would 24 she have not seen some of these exact, if not more in 25 detail.

      fact-finding meeting when I said I don't -- I -- I don't believe in abortion and I don't believe that
 3
      our -- my union president should have taken our dues and spent it on a march. This -- this had everything to do with just that march.
                  Ms. Carter, what I'm asking you is what is it you're saying Southwest Airlines should have done to accommodate your religious beliefs as soon as you raised them?
10
                  MR. GILLIAM: Objection to the extent it 11 calls for a legal conclusion. You can answer.
12
      BY MR. CORRELL:
13
                   Are you testifying that they should have 0.
      just said never mind to this -- 14
                  They should not have fired me over my 15

      Christian beliefs.
16
17
           Q.
                  Okay.
                  After I expressed them in the union meeting 18 and we could have sat down and at least had a 19 conversation regarding that.
20
21
                  So is there any limit to what you would be 22 allowed to say to express your Christian beliefs to 23 other employees of Southwest Airlines in your personal 24 view?
                  MR. GILLIAM: Objection.

1 hypothetical. They should have accommodated this. 2 Α. 3 BY MR. CORRELL: My question to you, Ms. Carter, is not 4 Q. 5 whether they should have accommodated this -- have accommodated this. I'm trying to find the parameters 6 7 of the accommodation you claim you were denied. You understand you are claiming in your lawsuit you were 8 9 denied an accommodation? Yes, I was denied an accommodation. 10 Do you understand that an accommodation is 11 Q. 12 an exception from a policy to allow for religious 13 beliefs? 14 MR. GILLIAM: Objection. Asks for a legal 15 conclusion. 16 I'm just gonna tell you right now I believe Α. 17 that I should have had an accommodation on this specific one, yes. 18 BY MR. CORRELL: 19 And what would that have looked like? 20 Ο. 21 I don't know how they write up the Α. 22 accommodations. I don't know. I -- I never even knew you had to have an accommodation. I believe my 23 24 accommodation falls under Title VII of the civil rights 25 that I have as a Christian or a believer, that due --Page 80 to go to a march that supported abortion. If you're going to go to a march regarding this type of behavior, this reflected that behavior and I should have had my accommodations met once I said I was a Christian, but honestly, this should have also been through the union representatives, they knew where I stood on this.

Morally bankrupt people are great at deception. They put others in situations so that they can take the fall for their poor judgments, lies, greed, and betrayals. They are not above providing false information to cover their tracks and they are skilled at placing blame other than where it belongs.

Jealousy and Arrogance Jealousy is a driving force of morally bankrupt people. They see that you have something that they want, and they are going to get it from you at all costs. Their jealousy drives them to the point where nothing matters but "winning." Jealousy is such a beast and so powerful that it tests even the strongest moral character.

Saul Alinsky's 12 Rules for Radicals

Here is the complete list from Alinsky.

* RULE 1: "Power is not only what you have, but what the enemy thinks you have." Power is derived from 2 main sources - money and people. "Have-Nots" must build power from flesh and blood. (These are two things of which there is a plentiful supply. Government and corporations always have a difficult time appealing to people, and usually do so almost exclusively with economic arguments.)

* RULE 2: "Never go outside the expertise of your people." It results in confusion, fear and retreat.

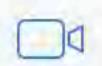

Messenger

* RULE 3: "Whenever possible, go outside the expertise of the enemy." Look for ways to increase insecurity, anxiety and uncertainty. (This happens all the time. Watch how many organizations under attack are blind-sided by seemingly irrelevant arguments that they are then forced to address.)

* RULE 4: "Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules." If the rule is that every letter gets a reply, send 30,000 letters. You can kill them with this because no one can possibly obey all of their own rules. (This is a serious rule. The besieged entity's very credibility and reputation is at stake, because if activists catch it lying or not living up to its commitments, they can continue to chip away at the damage.)

* RULE 5: "Ridicule is man's most potent weapon." There is no defense. It's irrational. It's infuriating. It also works as a key pressure point to force the enemy into concessions. (Pretty crude, rude and mean, huh? They want to create anger and fear.)

* RULE 6: "A good tactic is one your

* RULE 6: "A good tactic is one your people enjoy." They'll keep doing it without urging and come back to do more. They're doing their thing, and will even suggest better ones. (Radical activists, in this sense, are no different that any other human being. We all avoid "un-fun" activities, and but we revel at and enjoy the ones that work and bring results.)

- * RULE 7: "A tactic that drags on too long becomes a drag." Don't become old news. (Even radical activists get bored. So to keep them excited and involved, organizers are constantly coming up with new tactics.)
- * RULE 8: "Keep the pressure on. Never let up." Keep trying new things to keep the opposition off balance. As the opposition masters one approach, hit them from the flank with something new. (Attack, attack, attack from all sides, never giving the reeling organization a chance to rest, regroup, recover and restrategize.)
- * RULE 9: "The threat is usually more terrifying than the thing itself."

* RULE 9: "The threat is usually more terrifying than the thing itself." Imagination and ego can dream up many more consequences than any activist. (Perception is reality. Large organizations always prepare a worst-case scenario, something that may be furthest from the activists' minds. The upshot is that the organization will expend enormous time and energy, creating in its own collective mind the direct of conclusions. The possibilities can easily poison the mind and result in demoralization.)

* RULE 10: "If you push a negative hard enough, it will push through and become a positive." Violence from the other side can win the public to your side because the public sympathizes with the underdog. (Unions used this tactic. Peaceful [albeit loud] demonstrations during the heyday of unions in the early to mid-20th Century incurred management's wrath, often in the form of violence that eventually brought public sympathy to their side.)

ATTEMPTING TO DECERTIFY TWU.
This letter below from Local 577
Contract negotiators, Debra Peterson-Barber and Katie Fowle.
THEY QUIT!!

Subject: NT resignation
Dear Local 577 members,
For two years our group has been in mediation, with little or no movement. There have been frustrations on the line that the TWU is not living up to the promises they made.

Over the past several months, your NT has worked hard to come up with a plan that would close our contract and give the flight attendants of Allegiant the protection they deserve. With the very real potential of a pilot strike, it was imperative that we act swiftly. Unfortunately, that we act swiftly. Unfortunately, the TWU did not approve the plan we developed because it did not fit their political interests.

Type a massaga..

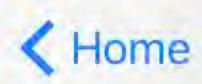

Messenger

Because we could no longer support the TWU in the direction they are taking this campaign, we officially resigned our positions as Negotiating Team members yesterday morning.

We believe this work group needs protection. We believe we deserve fair working conditions and a legally binding contract; but we couldn't stand idly by and lead this work group along a path that we feel does not have the best interests of the flight attendants in mind.

By now you've no doubt heard from the Twu about their new restructure of the NT and their new strategic plan moving forward. We are very sorry that it had to happen like this and we did not take the decision lightly, but the political position of the TWU should not be what is guiding our direction. If our leaving inspires the TWU to do what is necessary to secure our contract,

That to me was a threat, even my attorney believes so, but the Company has set a Persistence on what they will allow and now they have set themselves up for big trouble along with our Union if they Fire Others for anything LESS and because you all have fast tracks his reinstatement before others shows your discrimination towards the others that have had to wait to get representation... There you have just a few of so many who are talking about this....hope we as Opt Out People get MORE to join in...I know there is a magic number when it will really hurt TWU in the BANK ACCOUNT and maybe with all the you are doing to show that you could careless for the ones who voted then just maybe we will reach that critical number....slow and methodical is what our GROUP is and getting the info out to each and every FLIGHT Attendant is the GOAL....especially when you all pull this again!! Shows who you Support and it isn't the FAs!

it's criminal. Audrey has taken it upon herself to cast out Dallas votes completely. How would everyone feel if someone you elected was told they couldn't do it after the fact? No trial. No charges just locked him out. God damn it I'm tired of everyone just sitting around and pretending everything is okay. This is our lives our futures everyone. Wake the frick up

If flight attendants vote down the tentative contract, negotiations will start from scretch again; even after it look two years to get the tentative contract else up for approval. Rank and file FiAs also may push for the Local 555 securive board to be recalled and a new board put in place before contract regoliations start once more.

Southwest's more than 13,500 highs attendants, including more than 1,500 domiciled in Chicago, are the largest single group of unionized workers employed at the heavilyunionized carrier.

If the tight attendants yote down the tentative new contract, that means Southmest CEO Kelly still will have to deal with four of his largest and most important worker groups who have been trying to get new contracts for years — fight attendants, mechanics, ramp agents and pilots. Even as Southwest Airlines (NYSE: LUV) flight attendants union president Audrey Stone presses on to get a new labor contract for the group, a band of upset flight attendants said late last week that they also are pressing on with efforts to recall Stone and 12 members of the the union's executive board. Southwest has its largest hub at Chicago's Midway Airport. A source close to the so-called "Recall556Now" movement said the group was "so close" to getting the required number of signatures on a petition that would set the recall in motion. More more than 4,000 signatures are believed to be affixed to the petition at this juncture.

CC: Subject:

Complaint - contains graphic images

Dear Suzanne,

Below you will see Facebook messages that were sent to me last week by Southwest Airlines Flight Attendant Charlene Carter. It is in regards to a TWU Local 556 Women's Committee meeting that I participated in last month, and a march that I voluntarily participated in a few days later. Up until December I chaired our TWU Committee, which works with TWU International to collectively help build future women leaders and address women's issues.

The messages contain two graphic videos of an alleged aborted fetus and make references to murder as well as political and religious comments. The first two are the actual messages she sent me, and the bottom two are the links that they came from.

I found the messages to be incredibly disturbing and believe it to be a violation of the social media policy. I find it obscene and violent, as well as threatening in nature. I also believe it is a violation of the Workplace Bullying and Hazing policy, under cyber bullying. Further, I believe the references to religion are a violation of the Harassment Policy. Charlene doesn't know me, or my religious views. I also believe it violates our work and conduct rules under Class II.3. as well as Class IV.6&7.

While I hold a current position within my Union, I am a Southwest Airlines Employee first and foremost. I have made clear that I will not be seeking re-election, and am now fearful to return to my job as a line-flying Flight Attendant due to repeated personal attacks and threats made both via social media as well as altercations that have occurred face to face while I've been on a Southwest Airlines plane. I can't and won't continue to be disrespected as an Employee of Southwest Airlines, or as a human being.

Should you need further information, please let me know. I did not know how to attach the videos themselves from Facebook to an email which is why they are only screenshots. The photos don't do justice to the awfulness of the videos. I also blocked her until I realized that I could no longer access the videos, and until this complaint is investigated, I wanted to be able to have them as evidence. She has continued to send me messages since these but I haven't opened them.

I can't "unsee" these images, and I was waiting to board a flight on us when I logged in and saw them. I sat in the gate area alone and cried, and had to contact a close friend to even pull myself together enough to board the flight.

I am personally pro-choice, and to be sent messages that reference me as a "murderer" couldn't be further from the truth. However, I believe in equality and individual rights, and will continue to support causes and events that promote the fundamental rights I believe every human being should have.

Thank you for addressing this very upsetting matter. I've had the above drafted and it had taken me days to be able to hit "send." It's taken me a week wrestling with the decision. I've spent my career protecting and defending our Flight Attendants, but I realize I must also protect myself and the job I have at Southwest.

CERTIFIED MAIL: 7015 3010 0000 2338 3356

Charlene Carter 6582 S. Queensburg Ct. Aurora, CO 80016

Dear Charlene,

On March 7, 2017, a fact-finding meeting was held with you to discuss certain messages and videos you posted on your Facebook page and sent to another Southwest Employee through Facebook Messenger. Present at this meeting were you, TWU Representative Chris Sullivan, Senior Employee Relations Investigator Denise Gutierrez, Inflight Senior Human Resources Business Partner Edie Barnett, Inflight Assistant Base Manager Meggan Jones, and me.

During the meeting, you admitted you posted graphic videos of aborted fetuses on Facebook and sent those same videos in a private Facebook message to another Southwest Flight Attendant. You also admitted to sending the Flight Attendant a private message containing a picture of individuals wearing costumes depicting the female genitalia. You agreed that the pictures and videos were graphic.

Charlene, when you posted the graphic videos and pictures on Facebook, you were identifiable as a Southwest Airlines Employee and represented our Company in a manner that is disparaging to Southwest Flight Attendants as well as to all Southwest Employees. These Facebook posts were highly offensive in nature, and the private messages you sent to the above-mentioned Employee were harassing and inappropriate. Although your posts and messages may have been made and/or sent outside of work, Southwest is obligated to address such conduct given its impact on the workplace. After considering all information gathered in my investigation, as well as the information presented in your fact-finding meeting, I have determined that your conduct is in direct violation of the Southwest Airlines Mission statement and the following Company Policies/Rules including but not limited to:

- Workplace Bullying and Hazing Policy
- Social Media Policy

Your conduct could also be a violation of Southwest's Policy Concerning Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation. Accordingly, your employment is terminated effective March 16, 2017. Please return your Badge, Flight Attendant Manual, eFam, charger, and OHB key to the DEN office immediately at the address above. You will receive your final paycheck via direct deposit.

Respectfully,

Ed Schneider

21
        A. No.
            If you believed that her termination was 22
23
    just, why did you offer her a last-chance 24 agreement?
        A. I offered her a last-chance agreement for 25
```

Page 187
    practical reasons. This dispute had gone on and it was going to continue to get uglier, and at a great 3 cost to everyone. So I decided that I had the authority to offer a last-chance agreement to 5 reinstate her employment, as she told me she wanted 6 to come back as a flight attendant.
2
7
        Q. You did not have to get permission from 8
    anyone to offer her a last-chance agreement?
9
        A. No.
10
            And did you say that you felt that this -- 11 that the dispute could get uglier?
12
           Yes. I just thought, at that point, I could put this all to rest. Because, ultimately, 13
        Α.
    she indicated to me she just wanted her job back.
15
        Q. And what -- what do you mean by the dispute could get uglier?
16
        A. Well, there were disputes, and this is all 17 encompassing the times at that point. And so I -- 18
19
    I -- I sensed that Ms. Carter was in conflict with 20
    TWU 556 and she was conflict with Audrey Stone.
21
        Q. And when you say -- I -- I'm probably not

PRIVILEGED & CONFIDENTIAL REINSTATEMENT SETTLEMENT AND LAST CHANCE AGREEMENT

Re: Grievance #24-714 (Co. # 6906) #38690 Charlene Carter

This Confidential Last Chance Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Ms. Charlene Carter, the Transport Workers Union Local 556 ("TWU" or the "Union"), and Southwest Airlines Co. ("Southwest" or the "Company") (collectively, the "Parties").

You were terminated effective March 16, 2017, and a related grievance is currently in the grievance process. The Company is willing to reinstate your employment as a Southwest Flight Attendant based upon your compliance with the provisions of this Privileged and Confidential Reinstatement Settlement and Last Chance Agreement ("Agreement"). Failure to meet any of these provisions will be considered a breach of this Agreement and may result in termination of your employment.

- The Company will reinstate you, the Grievant, Charlene Carter, as a Denver-based Flight Attendant with no loss of seniority.
- You will receive no back pay.
- Your termination will be reduced to a 30-day Suspension beginning March 16, 2017 through and including April 14, 2017.
- Upon your termination, you were paid 131.25 TFP of accrued 2017 vacation and 33.75 TFP of accrued 2018 vacation. If you would like the vacation days returned to your account, you must submit a Cashier's Check for 105 TFP.
- Any record improvement will be delayed a period of time equal to the time from termination until execution of this Agreement or the end of 30-day Suspension, whichever is greater.
- In exchange for the consideration described above, you will sign the settlement agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, which has the primary purpose of releasing legal and contractual claims against Southwest and related parties.
- In addition, you are required to comply with all Company policies and procedures. Any future violation of the Southwest Airlines Workplace Bullying and Hazing Policy, Social Media Policy, or Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation Policy will result in termination
- Prior to reinstatement, you will be required to meet with Inflight Operations Director Mike Sims or his designee at Southwest HDQ, or a location of Mr. Sims' choosing. This meeting will be uncompensated.
- This Agreement will remain in your file for 24 months from the date of the execution of the Agreement.
- As a condition of reinstatement, you may be required to complete and pass a criminal history records check as deemed necessary by Southwest Airlines.
- Upon completion of the reinstatement process and receipt of SWA Crew ID, you must contact Crew Planning within 48 hours to have a line built.
- The grievance regarding your termination will be withdrawn/dismissed.
- In consideration of the Company's agreement to these terms, Grievant agrees to release, dismiss, and forever discharge Southwest from all existing claims, liabilities, demands, and causes of action for which she may have a claim against Southwest arising out of the discipline issued including, but not limited to, claims arising under federal, state, or local laws prohibiting sex, race, age, national origin, disability, or any other form of discrimination or retaliation, claims under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and claims alleging any legal or equitable restrictions on Southwest's right to issue discipline in this matter.

This agreement is made to compromise, terminate, and constitute an accord and satisfaction of all the claims released by this Agreement. It is agreed that neither Southwest nor the Grievant admits any liability, fault, or wrongdoing alleged or which could be alleged by Grievant or the Union regarding discipline.

The terms of your reinstatement are made on a non-precedent and non-referral basis and are to be kept confidential. Neither you, the Union, nor designated representatives may reference or use your reinstatement or any part of this Agreement as evidence in a future proceeding.

Charlene, our goal is to assist you in succeeding at being a productive Employee with Southwest Airlines. As always, if you have any questions regarding the application of any Southwest policies or rules, please contact a Southwest Leader as soon as possible for guidance/clarification.

Respectfully,
Melissa Burdine	Surdine

BY SIGNING BELOW, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT AND FULLY UNDERSTAND ITS TERMS, AND THAT YOU ENTER INTO AND SIGN THIS AGREEMENT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY, WITHOUT DURESS OR COERCION OF ANY KIND, AND WITH THE INTENT OF BEING LEGALLY BOUND BY THE AGREEMENT.

EXHIBIT A CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE OF CLAIMS

This Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Charlene Carter ("Claimant") and SOUTHWEST AIRLINES CO. (the "Company").

Claimant has asserted claims against the Company alleging wrongful termination.

Claimant and the Company have agreed to compromise and settle all claims asserted by Claimant against the Company arising out of or related to Claimant's employment with the Company and/or separation from employment with the Company.

In order to settle and finally resolve all disputes and claims, known and unknown, that have been asserted by Claimant or that could have been asserted by Claimant against the Company, Claimant and the Company agree as follows:

- In consideration of Claimant's execution of this Agreement and agreement to be legally bound by its terms, the Company will reinstate Claimant's employment as a Denverbased Flight Attendant with no loss of seniority ten (10) days after Claimant's execution and non-revocation of this Agreement.
- In exchange for the reinstatement provided by the Company to Claimant through this 2. Agreement, Claimant individually and on behalf of Claimant's spouse, heirs, successors, and assigns hereby agrees not to sue and unconditionally RELEASES, DISMISSES, AND FOREVER DISCHARGES Southwest Airlines Co., AirTran Airways, Inc. This waiver and release includes, but is not limited to, all claims and causes of action arising under federal, state, or local laws prohibiting age, sex, race, religious, national origin, disability, or any other form of discrimination, retaliation, or harassment (including claims under the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act and/or Older Workers Benefit Protection Act), whistleblower claims (including claims under the Wendell H. Ford Aviation Investment and Reform Act for the 21st Century "AIR21"), claims under federal, state, or local leave laws (including the Family Medical Leave Act "FMLA"), wrongful discharge claims, breach of contract claims, tort claims, and all claims alleging any legal or equitable restrictions on the Company's right to separate Claimant from employment with the Company.

Claimant represents that Claimant is the owner of the claims being released, dismissed, and discharged pursuant to this Agreement and that Claimant has not previously assigned or transferred all or any part of such claims to another entity or person.

- 3. Claimant agrees to take all action required to dismiss or withdraw with prejudice any outstanding claims of any kind whatsoever that Claimant has brought against the Company or any of the Released Parties, including but not limited to all Charges and Complaints filed with any federal or state Agency, all grievances filed, and all legal claims asserted with any Court. Claimant further agrees not to assert any new claims of any kind against the Company or any of the Released Parties covered by the agreed upon release of claims in Paragraph 2 of this Agreement.
- 4. This Agreement precludes Claimant from recovering any relief as a result of any lawsuit, grievance, or claim brought by Claimant or on Claimant's behalf against the Company or any of the Released Parties concerning or arising out of events occurring at any time up to the date of execution of this Agreement. However, nothing in this Agreement affects Claimant's ability to apply for unemployment compensation, or entitlement, if any, to workers' compensation, health insurance benefits under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), or vested benefits under a retirement plan governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"). In addition, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Claimant from communicating with, filing a charge with, or cooperating in the investigations of any governmental agency on matters within their jurisdiction. The Agreement does prohibit Claimant from recovering any relief. including monetary relief, as a result of such activities. By signing this Agreement, Claimant represents that Claimant has already filed workers' compensation claims for any job-related illnesses or injuries that Claimant believes Claimant may have suffered while working for the Company.
- 5. Claimant agrees not to make, repeat, or publish any false, disparaging, or derogatory remarks or comments about the Company or any of the Released Parties. This Paragraph does not prohibit Claimant from making truthful statements while cooperating with a governmental investigation or testifying under oath.
- 6. Claimant has been given twenty-one (21) days after receipt of this Agreement to review and consider it before signing it. In order to accept the terms of this Agreement, Claimant must sign the Agreement and return it to the Company within twenty-one (21) days of receipt. Claimant has seven (7) days after signing the Agreement within which Claimant may revoke the Agreement by serving written notice of revocation upon the Company ("Revocation Period"). For such revocation to be effective, written notice must be actually received by the Company no later than the close of business on the seventh day after Claimant signs the Agreement. If timely revocation is not made, the Agreement shall be effective and enforceable. Claimant's acceptance of the Agreement and revocation, should Claimant decide to revoke the Agreement within the Revocation Period, should be delivered or mailed to the following address:

Melissa Burdine 2702 Love Field Dr. Dallas, TX 75235 HDQ-4LR

- 7. Claimant agrees to keep the terms and existence of this Agreement confidential. This paragraph does not preclude Claimant from discussing the consideration being provided to Claimant with Claimant's tax advisor, attorney, or spouse, upon their agreement to keep the Agreement and terms confidential; or to taxing authorities, governmental agencies, or in response to a valid court order or subpoena.
- 8. Claimant agrees to pay any taxes not deducted or withheld by the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement without any further liability on the part of the Company or any of the Released Parties. Claimant further agrees to indemnify the Company and the Released Parties from any such taxes, penalty, or interest which may be imposed for any alleged failure to withhold taxes from the payment to Claimant.
- 9. This Agreement is made to compromise, terminate and constitute an accord and satisfaction of all of the claims released by this Agreement, and neither the Company nor any of the Released Parties admit any liability, fault, or wrongdoing of any kind whatsoever and expressly deny and disclaim any liability, fault, or wrongdoing that Claimant alleged or could have alleged. Claimant acknowledges that no promise, inducement or agreement not expressed within this Agreement has been made to Claimant and this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties regarding the subject matter contained herein. No term, provision or condition of this Agreement may be modified in any respect except by a writing signed by each of the Parties.
- 10. The failure of any Party to enforce or require timely compliance with any term or provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of rights or obligations arising hereunder, nor shall this failure preclude the enforcement of any term or provision or avoid the liability for any breach of this Agreement.
- In the event of a breach by Claimant or the Company of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to recover all expenses as a result of such breach, including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
- 12. The Parties agree that this Agreement will be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing this Agreement to be drafted. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated.
- Each Party shall bear its own costs and attorneys' fees, if any, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.
- 14. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas without regard to conflict of law principles, and is performable, in whole or in part, in Dallas County, Texas, where venue shall be proper and required for the determination of any dispute regarding this Agreement.

Case 3:17-cv-02278-X Document 183-1 Filed 09/09/21 Page 147 of 676 PageID 5258

15. Claimant is advised by the Company to consult with legal counsel prior to executing this Agreement, and has had an opportunity to consult with and to be advised by legal counsel of Claimant's choice, fully understands the terms of this Agreement, and enters into this Agreement freely, voluntarily, and intending to be legally bound. Because Claimant has had the opportunity to consult with competent legal counsel of Claimant's own choosing, has carefully read the Agreement, which was mutually negotiated, and has been fully and fairly advised as to its terms, any rule of law or decision that would require interpretation of any claimed ambiguities in this Agreement against the Party that drafted it has no application and is expressly waived.

CLAIMANT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT CLAIMANT HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS ITS TERMS, AND THAT CLAIMANT ENTERS INTO AND SIGNS THIS AGREEMENT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY, WITHOUT DURESS OR COERCION OF ANY KIND, AND WITH THE INTENT OF BEING LEGALLY BOUND BY THE AGREEMENT.

Chappell, and with me is cocounsel Jeff Jennings and the grievant, Charlene Carter.
 2
               THE ARBITRATOR:
                                Thank you. And I
 4 understand we have a legal counsel for TWU 556.
 5
               MR. RICHARD: Yes, Local Union TWU 556 who 6 is appearing under Article 20, Section 18, Mark 7
     Richard, counsel for the Union.
 8
               THE ARBITRATOR: Thank you, sir.
 9
               MR. RICHARD:
                             Thank vou.
10
               THE ARBITRATOR: All right. So we've 11 talked about timing. We've talked about some other 12 administrative matters. I understand the parties 13 are working together on some joint exhibits, and I 14 appreciate that.
15
               So yesterday as I was walking out, I 16 received a motion to quash which alerted me for the 17 first time that there may be some other things going 18 on. Airline arbitrations are kind of like Easter 19 egg hunts. Until I get to the hearing, I don't know 2.0
     what's going on, I don't know what the issues are.
2.1
     And so to the extent it's relevant to what I'm 2.2
     doing, we need to address those things.
2.3
               Under the collective bargaining agreement,
```

as a general rule, I'm tasked with determining whether or not the Company had just cause to make a

1 decision. And that's what I do. So if we have 2 preliminary matters that you would like to address, 3 you may do so. 4 MS. GEHRKE: Okay. Thank you. As you 5 mentioned, we will have some joint exhibits. We're 6 just sorting out a couple. But is your preference 7 to move those into evidence at the end or as we go? 8 THE ARBITRATOR: Generally they're 9 presumed to be in evidence and I will make them so 10 unless there's an objection. 11 MS. GEHRKE: Okav. 12 THE ARBITRATOR: So, as we go. And then 13 she will make sure everything's in. Okay? 14 MS. GEHRKE: Great. So we have agreed 15 upon a statement of the issue --16 THE ARBITRATOR: All right. 17 MS. GEHRKE: -- for the arbitrator. 18 if I'm paraphrasing it correctly, it's whether or 19 not Southwest Airlines had just cause to terminate 2.0 the grievant, Charlene Carter, and if not, what 2.1 shall be the remedy. 2.2 THE ARBITRATOR: All right. Thank you. 2.3 Is that acceptable? 2.4 MR. CHAPPELL: That is acceptable. And my understanding is that it's not just just cause but

1
     it's just cause to terminate, leaving open that 2
     maybe there was a violation but that the termination 3 was not the proper remedy for you to consider. Tell me if T'm --
 5
               THE ARBITRATOR: Books have been written 6 about that.
 7
               MS. GEHRKE: Yeah, semantics.
 8
                                I get it.
               THE ARBITRATOR:
 9
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. As long as you get 10 it and we'll do whatever and you can do obviously 11 whatever.
12
               THE ARBITRATOR: We can put that in our 14

               MR. CHAPPELL: But I don't understand that

     I can't at least make those arguments to you by

               THE ARBITRATOR: No, I understand. That's

               MR. CHAPPELL: Yeah. We may be closer

               THE ARBITRATOR: Or another way to put it, it's not a good idea to stiff the guy who's about to

               THE ARBITRATOR: I appreciate your working

18
               MR. CHAPPELL: I would like to go back and

     the table.
 5
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. The Union in its 6 motion asked specifically that three subpoenas duces
 7
     tecums be quashed.
 8
               THE ARBITRATOR: Yes.
 9
               MR. CHAPPELL: And you included in your 10 order a -- 11
               THE ARBITRATOR: Mr. Sullivan's?
12
               MR. CHAPPELL: Right.
13
               THE ARBITRATOR:
                                 Yes.
14
               MR. CHAPPELL: And I would like to request 15 that you reconsider and revise that order to exclude 16 him.
17
               THE ARBITRATOR: From my quash?
18
               MR. CHAPPELL: Yes. Would you like to

               THE ARBITRATOR: What is your position on

               MR. RICHARD: Yes, your Honor. Thank you.

     We had not learned that there was a subpoena served.

have no verification or return of service that
Mr. Sullivan, a steward at the time, was served.
But if he were to be served, the basis is exactly the same other than I can't argue about the date, the undue burden, because I wouldn't know when he was served. We've been trying to get in contact and we haven't made it. Again, I don't know if Counsel

But that being said, the issue in terms of these proceedings, which have no discovery, there's no discovery in the contract or under the Railway Labor Act that would permit this, in essence, attempt to get documents. As you know, there is ancillary litigation which we're not commenting on, I'm not involved in that, but that has not passed or survived discovery stage itself.

And so between the undue burden and exact same arguments we made in the motion to quash, they would be -- we would ask for them to be applicable to Mr. Sullivan, who's an agent of the Union, and we would by ore tenus motion ask that our original motion to quash cover Mr. Sullivan's subpoena as well, although I have to represent honestly to the Court I don't even know if there's been service or not.

THE ARBITRATOR: Okay. Yes, sir.

MR. CHAPPELL: Yeah, there has been effective service. I would have to ask cocounsel to give me the date. But the reason that Mr. Sullivan was served and is a key witness here is that he was the steward that represented Charlene at the fact finding. And unfortunately I only have one copy -- MR. RICHARD: That's okay.

MR. CHAPPELL: -- of the whole book. Let me bring it.

MS. GEHRKE: What's the relevance of this?

MR. RICHARD: I'm familiar with it.

MR. CHAPPELL: Yeah, I think you know about it, but I want to have -- you're arguing it right now, so I want to make sure you have it.

This is the shop steward training handbook put out by the Union which deals specifically with what Mr. Sullivan's duties were at the fact finding. The fact finding and the step 2 are the heart of what you're looking at. It is within the four corners of the collective bargaining and deal with the just cause. It has nothing to do with the federal case. If it overlaps, I should not be precluded from bringing and being able to present the necessary case here because there may be a federal case pending. This is not discovery for that case. In fact, we don't have discovery here.

And these are necessary testimony and documents that go to the heart of this case.

And the page 30 and 32 -- if anyone wants to look at the whole thing, I guess I can give up my notes. But to show that I didn't play any tricks, I did include the table of contents and the page numbers so that you can see. But to try to make it easier, on page 30 and 32 it explains the role of the shop steward to be present and to make the notes of what occurred at the fact finding. It also says that a shop steward's notes become the official record of what took place and also that they can be used as evidence in board of adjustment or arbitration. That's on page 30. And that's basically repeated again on page 32.

And that was the purpose of the subpoena and the subpoena duces tecum to Mr. Sullivan to bring those official notes that he took so that we can have a record of what happened and the information, what I believe is critical in your determination or part of your determination of just cause, is the information that the Company had before it to make the determination.

And that is the purpose of the fact finding, to be able to give the grievant and the Union the power to bring in all the facts and anything that is helpful and that the total way of looking at whether they met their burden of just cause is to know what they had before them. And it also says that they are supposed to consider all the material after it's been given to make their determination.

So that's the purpose of calling
Mr. Sullivan and the documents that he is to bring is basically related to those notes and anything that he might still have that was presented at that fact finding.

THE ARBITRATOR: Yes, ma'am?

MS. GEHRKE: If I can just make a few

I understand why Mr. Chappell may want Mr. Sullivan here to testify. That doesn't excuse his tardiness in issuing the subpoena and properly serving the Union so that they could have included him in the motion to quash.

I would also note that the parties do have a practice under the collective bargaining agreement not to produce and use in arbitrations those fact in the past that they are covered by some kind of 5 deliberative privilege or kind of, you know, 6

     intra-Union privilege.
 7
               So we feel that your order yesterday was proper to quash all four subpoenas and that 9

     Mr. Sullivan should not be compelled to testify or 11

               If you'll note in the manual, this is an 17

             They are referred to as "your notes." They 18 belong to the Union. They belong to the steward.
19
     And they are official to the Union, but they have no 2.0
     role of being official to the process or to the
```

Never met Counsel, but she is correct. I have a long history here. They're not introduced and have not been introduced by the parties. In fact, the parties take the position, which is very typical, that either party's notes are their notes because otherwise people could write self-serving notes.

We've also not heard any nexus between these notes and any dispute of what happened at the hearing, the fact finding hearing. In fact, if you look on the page, it's who was there, what the initials are, abbreviations for the attendees, what was said, who was said. We don't know if any of that's in dispute. I have no clue. I don't know this case substantively.

And so these are our internal notes. They are for us. The Union is not appearing. Ms. Carter has chosen to use her own counsel, which we respect and understand. She has the right indeed to do so. And we strenuously object to trying to obtain internal notes of an organization that are not even relevant to this proceeding, and there is no practice to introduce same.

THE ARBITRATOR: All right.

MR. CHAPPELL: I'd like to just clarify one point that the only reason that Ms. Carter elected to have her own counsel here today is that TWU decided, which is their right, I'm not questioning that, not to represent her to proceed to arbitration but gave her the right to come on her own. And as I understand Article 19 and especially Article 20, we basically come through — and that's why the title has the Union's name even though the Union technically isn't representing her. So I just want the record to just be clear for the reason that she elected to come on her own.

2.1

2.3

THE ARBITRATOR: I understand that. Had one last month the same situation.

Here's where I come out on this. I wrote a decision recently. You don't have the benefit of it. You haven't either because I never issued it. There is no discovery in these proceedings. The collective bargaining agreement does not authorize that. I would go beyond what I'm empowered to do were I to sanction discovery.

When I approved the subpoenas, I was under the impression that the parties might have conferred and that these were okay. When the motion to quash came in, I determined that apparently they were not okay, and I took the liberty of adding Mr. Sullivan because I thought through oversight that the motion might have excluded him. And I had read the subpoenas, and the information requested was the same.

There is no place in this proceeding for the documents that were requested in the duces tecum. There is a place perhaps in the federal court proceeding for that but not before me.

Now, if it comes to -- in my hearing, if there is a dispute about what happened at the fact finding hearing and who said what, then Sullivan's testimony may be very important. I have been doing these arbitrations for seven or eight years. I've done over a hundred. I have yet to see copies of any notes from fact finding meetings. I don't welcome those because I view that as being somewhat -- call it the labor relations privilege. It would have a chilling effect on the process itself were those to be introduced into evidence.

I also don't allow testimony about settlements made without precedent. People try, "Well, you agreed to" — it was without precedent. So I try to run under this collective bargaining agreement as limited a review as I can to still give you a fair hearing, and that involves did the Company have just cause and what was before it when it made the initial decision and went through the step 2 proceedings.

So I'm quashing that subpoena as well. I

MS. GEHRKE: Okay. I have another issue, and he just briefly touched on it, and I think it's important to get out on the table here before we get started today, and that is the issue of settlements made on a nonprecedent-setting, nonreferral basis.

You will hear testimony today that there were many other flight attendants terminated for social media violations, and I know you're aware of some of them because of your prior work. And we intend to limit the testimony to the fact that those flight attendants were terminated and then

Ms. Carter was also terminated and, you know, the labor relations department did consider comparable cases in deciding that termination was appropriate for Ms. Carter. But we want to make sure that the evidence is proper that's before you in that offers of reinstatement that may have been made post-termination as part of the litigation settlement or even step 2 hearings and that were made on a nonprecedent-setting, nonreferral basis are not going to be brought into evidence because we think those are improperly before you.

If Mr. Chappell tries to bring them in as evidence, we do not intend to use them as evidence unless you make a ruling that they're free game and then we'll have to get into it, but that's our position.

THE ARBITRATOR: Well, counsel on both sides will use what evidence they can to win their case. I get it. My ruling in the past and will be in this case that other settlements, certainly those that are specifically on a nonprecedental basis are simply that. They are evidence that the Company took action. And I take those really to show consistency of the Company's action rather than we're not really enforcing that rule, because there are too many variables. And I don't want to have a mini-trial on whether Suzi should have been reinstated when Ms. Carter wasn't. That isn't what

     I'm here to do.
 2
               So I will listen to their remarks, but 3 that's my mind-set is that people sit down and work these out with labor relations for a lot of different reasons, and I don't really need to know 6 what those reasons are.
 5
 7
               So if you get into a serious conflict
 8 about inconsistency of treatment, that's one thing.
 9
     When you get into inconsistency of settlements, 10
     that's really not before me. So we'll look at it, 11 but that's where I'm coming from.
12
               MS. GEHRKE: Okay. So just so I'm clear, 13

               THE ARBITRATOR: I didn't mean to make it

               MS. GEHRKE: Clear as mud, clear as mud.

2.2
     I don't mean to say what you're saying, but that's

2.4
               THE ARBITRATOR: Let me say this. It will

1 consider a nonprecedent-setting settlement as 2 probative evidence on the Company's mind-set in 3 these matters. 4 MS. GEHRKE: Okay. 5 THE ARBITRATOR: Okay? You could have a 6 witness disappear. You could have a labor relations 7 quy quit. There are any number of reasons. 8 fired an arbitrator one time and had to say -- who 9 I don't. Okay? So we'll cross that bridge knows? 10 when we come to it, but it will be a very short 11 bridge. 12 MS. GEHRKE: Okay. 13 MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. Thank you. Now, I 14 have one other matter. We have two witnesses that 15 for two different reasons were unable to physically 16 attend, and we would like to be able to have them 17 give their testimony by Skype. They have the 18 facilities here and we've tested that it worked. At 19 least it worked when we tested it. You know how 2.0 that goes. 2.1 THE ARBITRATOR: Sure. 2.2 MR. CHAPPELL: And my understanding is 2.3 that the Company is not agreeing to allow that, so that's why I'm bringing it up now. And the reasons that these two individuals could not physically come to Dallas or be in Dallas, the first one is Mr. Kent Hand, and he was intending to fly here and be here but on Monday he learned that his partner's father had passed away and that they are now having to do all the necessary arrangements that happen when there's a death in the family. And it would be an extreme hardship to require him to take up to two days, because he's in Oakland, to come here to Dallas and to testify and be away from his partner during this most troubling and emotional, et cetera, time.

And so we requested out of basic courtesy and understanding of that unexpected issue that he be allowed to -- he is willing to take away probably what won't even be an hour of time to testify by Skype.

Maybe we should deal with these one by one, or if you want me to go through the next one and then let her respond.

THE ARBITRATOR: What's your thinking? MS. GEHRKE: Well, we're not trying to be difficult. We understand people have lives and tragedies occur. Our concern with Mr. Hand, he was just kind of sprung on us yesterday. Mr. Hand has his own history with the airline, and he has been case which was -- there was a confidential settlement reached and he does have a 4 confidentiality clause and nonprecedent-setting 5 nonreferral.

 6
               So our concern was twofold. One, we're 7 not really -- we're concerned about him abiding by 8 those agreements. And, two, to the extent 9
     Mr. Chappell indicated he was going to give us any 10 documents or exhibits he intended to use with the 11 witnesses when they might be testifying by Skype, 12 and we never received those. I'm a little 13 concerned, you know, when I go to do the 14 cross-examination, I'm going to need a little time 15 to pull together my exhibits. And then I guess 16
     we're going to have to e-mail them to Mr. Hand, 17 whoever's there, have them print them out, you know, 18 just the logistics. And I understand you do take 19 testimony by Skype, but those were our concerns.
20
               THE ARBITRATOR: Was there another one 2.1
     besides him?
2.2.
               MR. CHAPPELL: Yes. Greg Hofer was also 2.3
     intending to be here, but he was told -- the 2.4
     collective bargaining agreement specifically says 25 that if a witness is necessary for this kind of proceeding that the time off is charged as Union time, but it doesn't really say anything about what happens in trading off and being able to be free to come here. And so we're told that he could use what's called supervisor. Michele can use the right terminology.

```

THE ARBITRATOR: I know what it is.

MR. CHAPPELL: Right. And Mr. Hofer was told by his supervisor that's fine, you can do it as long as you can get a pairing that can match. And he was unable to get a pairing that matched that would allow him to come here. He is also on the West Coast. And so that's why he can't testify.

And as far as -- I had offered and I am still willing to do this. If you rule that they can testify by Skype, I did offer to give her the documents ahead of time that we intend to use them to -- use to move to admit into the record. But when she would not agree to the Skype and said she would oppose it as she's doing today, obviously I wasn't giving her those documents until this matter was resolved.

But to try to -- also we tested that with the cameras we have, we can hold up a document and the witness can see them. We don't have to wait to e-mail it to them or anything like that, and they can read it and they can identify it and talk about it.

We all agree that live testimony is better and easier perhaps, but I do know that it's not uncommon and I believe you have even mentioned that you have done it through Skype and conference calling, other ways when the circumstances warranted it.

THE ARBITRATOR: Sure. Well, having heard what you have said, I'm perfectly willing to allow those two individuals to testify other than in person. Now, if we get into -- so you need to share what those documents might be.

It was my pleasure to handle about a dozen termination arbitrations for personnel in Iraq when KBR was running that, and we had a lot of the testimony via satellite telephone. It was amazingly credible because they weren't in a room full of lawyers. And so I firmly believe that some of the best testimony there is comes from somebody who's in their pajamas talking on Skype.

So we'll do that. And I'll be very careful what we allow and what we don't. And I'm very sensitive to the "Let me talk about my mean, we kind of have them. He's working on them.

          MR. CHAPPELL: At the lunch break -- I
          MS. GEHRKE: Sure, yeah, we can do it at lunch.
          MR. CHAPPELL: But at the lunch break we can get them to you.
          MS. GEHRKE: Okay.
          THE ARBITRATOR: All right. Let's take a short potty break and then get on the record and have an arbitration.
               (Recess from 9:38 to 9:48)
          THE ARBITRATOR: I believe it's your burden of proof, so why don't you favor me with an opening statement.
          MS. GEHRKE: All right. I will do that.
          Good morning. We are here today because former flight attendant Charlene Carter is challenging her termination for cause under the collective bargaining agreement between Southwest Airlines and TWU Local 556.

Ms. Carter was terminated because she violated the Company's social media, bullying and hazing and harassment policies by sending Union president Audrey Stone unsolicited Facebook messages that Ms. Carter described as herself as containing very graphic photos and videos depicting aborted fetuses. This is not the first time that Ms. Carter had sent Ms. Stone harassing, threatening, or disparaging messages. In fact, Ms. Carter had opted out of the Union and been sending Ms. Stone messages on Facebook and e-mail for several years to voice her dissent with the way Ms. Stone was leading the Union.

Ms. Stone never once responded to these messages or made a complaint to Southwest about them. She simply ignored them and considered it the plight of a Union official to bear the political attacks. But these abortion messages were different. They crossed the line and attacked Ms. Stone at the core of her being. Ms. Carter accused her of supporting the murder of these aborted fetuses by simply attending the women's march during President Trump's inauguration weekend.

Ms. Stone was in town for a women's committee meeting for Local 556 with the international union, and she was there to support women's rights and workers' rights. Ms. Carter felt that Ms. Stone's mere presence at the march supported abortion and the murder of these fetuses, all because Planned Parenthood happened to be the sponsor for the march.

Ms. Carter did not know Ms. Stone's political affiliation nor her views on abortion when she sent these messages, yet in her mind Ms. Stone's mere presence at the women's march on behalf of the Union's committee was outrageous because Ms. Carter assumed that her Union dues were being used to pay for the trip and Ms. Carter did not want her money going to political causes.

As an objector, Ms. Carter paid only the minimum agency fees to contribute towards the collective bargaining and representation provided by the Union. Ms. Stone's trip to D.C. was part of official Union business for the women's committee.

But even if Ms. Carter's dues money were being used by the Union committee to pay for the trip, does that somehow give her the right to harass and attack a fellow employee without provocation, to send her photos and videos of bloody fetuses and accuse her of supporting murder?

Even though Ms. Stone is the local Union president, she's still a fellow Southwest employee. And like all Southwest employees, she's entitled to a workplace environment free of harassment, intimidation, bullying, and hazing.

Southwest's mission statement and its work rules prohibit such conduct, and equal employment opportunity laws also prohibit that conduct. In fact, Southwest has a duty as an employer to provide a harassment-free work environment to its employees.

The Company learned of these posts when Ms. Stone complained to her Las Vegas based manager because she was very upset about the graphic nature of the messages and because she was upset that Ms. Carter had accused her of supporting murder simply by attending the women's march.

The decision to report Ms. Carter weighed heavily on Ms. Stone. As she struggled to balance her job of supporting all flight attendants as being Union president and then being the victim of this unprovoked attack and while Ms. Stone had been receiving messages from Ms. Carter and other Union dissenters for several years about intra-Union political disagreements, she never reported those messages to management.

Ms. Stone felt those messages were different, but these abortion messages crossed a line and they attacked her on a very personal level as a human being. She considered them to be harassing, inappropriate, and deeply offensive and she wanted it to stop and that's why she reported it to Southwest management, so they could take action to make it stop.

Upon learning of the complaint, Southwest followed its procedures and promptly initiated an investigation. During that investigation, there was a fact finding meeting and Southwest gathered more information from Ms. Stone and all the social media posts that Ms. Carter had sent her, including those latest abortion messages.

And as part of this process, Southwest also learned that Ms. Carter had publicly posted these abortion photos and videos on her Facebook page which was public. And her Facebook page identifies her in her posts and in her photos as a Southwest flight attendant to draw attention to — Ms. Carter posted those videos and those photos on her public Facebook page to draw attention to her pro-life political beliefs.

Southwest met with Ms. Carter with Union

1 representation present to question her regarding the 2 posts and the messages and to get her side of the 3 story as part of the fact finding process. 4 Ms. Carter admitted sending the messages to 5 Ms. Stone and she didn't see the harm in it. told the Southwest managers during the fact finding 6 7 meeting that she felt she was justified in sending 8 the messages to try to provoke a conversation with 9 Ms. Stone regarding her attendance at the women's 10 march and to spread her pro-life beliefs. 11 Ms. Carter was apparently frustrated that 12 Ms. Stone was not engaging in a conversation with 13 her about the women's march or historically that she 14 had been ignored when she wrote to her about Union 15 issues, including her belief that her Union dues 16 money should not be spent for political causes. 17 Ms. Carter had no remorse for her actions 18 or that she had deeply upset Ms. Stone. After 19 investigating Ms. Stone's complaint and hearing 2.0 Ms. Carter's side of the story, Denver base manager 2.1 Ed Schneider made the decision to terminate 2.2. Ms. Carter's employment because her actions violated 2.3 the Company's social media, bullying and hazing and harassment policies, policies that Ms. Carter had acknowledged receiving.

2.4

The decision to terminate was consistent with Company policy and its strict enforcement of its social media policy, and Ms. Carter was notified of her termination by phone and certified mail.

Ms. Carter appealed her termination through the grievance process with the help of her Union.

Ms. Stone recused herself from that entire process.

In accordance with the contract,

Ms. Carter attended a step 2 hearing with senior director of inflight operations, Mike Sims. He was the Company designee responsible for hearing such appeals. Mr. Sims was a former flight attendant and a Union officer before he joined Southwest's management team. And with the assistance of her Union representation, Ms. Carter was allowed to present her case and argue why Southwest's decision to terminate her employment was unjust under the collective bargaining agreement.

Mr. Sims considered all the facts and the documentation learned during the fact finding investigation and during the step 2 hearing, but to avoid further litigation and having Ms. Stone be required to testify, Mr. Sims negotiated an agreement with the Union to offer Ms. Carter reinstatement with a 24-month last chance agreement on a nonprecedent-setting and nonreferral basis.

Ms. Carter rejected that offer and she retained the National Right to Work Foundation as independent counsel, which is why we're here today. Ms. Carter doesn't want her job back, not only because she rejected the offer of reinstatement but because she barely worked over the last three years at the airline. In the last three years she only worked a total of nine days because she gave away nearly all of her scheduled flights.

This grievance is not about her job. It's about her federal court case against Southwest and Local 556 for Constitutional violations and Railway Labor Act violations, and it's about her crusade against the current Union officers and to promote her views on right-to-work laws and abortion.

Her status as a Union objector and her political views do not give her the right to harass and attack other Southwest employees, including Ms. Stone. There's a time, place, and manner for speech and activities that we can debate whether it's even protected, but there are limits to those rights and Ms. Carter simply took it too far with Ms. Stone. And she can't hide behind her status as an objector or pro-life supporter to escape the

- Okay. And what are your job responsibilities as a labor relations manager?
- I am kind of a conduit between the base, the Union, and the flight attendant. I ensure that the contract is being applied the way that it should I oversee Company policies and how they apply to our flight attendants. I counsel with the base leaders in matters of discipline where there may be a potential violation of a work rule or a Company policy or something in the contract.
- And are you familiar with the grievant, Ο. Charlene Carter?

- 5 A. Yes, I am.
- Q. Okay. And do employees have access to

- 8 A. Yes, they do. In fact, every time you

- Q. And is it an important part of Southwest

- 19 A. Yes, it is.
- 20 Q. Is there anything particular with the
- 21 mission statement that you felt was relevant to
- 22 Ms. Carter's case?
- A. Yes. I -- well, the first sentence, of
- 24 | course, is always important, but I think that the
- 25 | second section, "To Our Employees, We are committed

Charlene Carter - Vol. 1 December 7, 2017

- 1 to provide our Employees a stable work environment 2 with equal opportunity for learning and personal 3 growth." And then it goes on, and the last sentence 4 states, "Above all, Employees will be provided the 5 same concern, respect, and caring attitude within 6 the organization that they are expected to share externally with every Southwest Customer." 7 8 MS. GEHRKE: Thank you. I'd like to ask 9 you about the basic work rules and expectations. 10 This will be Joint Exhibit 4. 11 (Joint Exhibit 4 marked) 12. BY MS. 1 the expectations for work. It's not all 2 encompassing and it states here that not every 3 single thing could be listed, but it does give them 4 the groundwork and the framework for what is 5 expected of them as an employee and a flight 6 attendant at Southwest Airlines.

It also goes in on the second page to discuss how we determine whether or not discipline would be warranted and how that would be applied.

- Okay. So looking at Section 3.2.0. titled 0. "Progressive Discipline" --
 - Α. Yes.
- -- does Southwest generally have a progressive discipline policy?
- Most of the time, yes. Occasionally there Α. are behaviors or events that are so egregious they warrant termination or staunch suspensions on a first offense.
- Ο. Okay. And does Southwest classify different types of offenses based on severity?
- Yes. We actually have five classes of Α. work rules. And if you look at the bottom of the second page, it starts there. We haven't listed out what those violations are, but it tells you what the discipline is.

So, for instance, on a Class I, a first violation would be a possible termination up to a 30-day suspension. For a Class II, a first violation would be final warning with possible termination. In my experience on Class I violations, I've almost never seen a Class I violation that did not result in termination on a first offense.

- Okay. And what would be an example of a Class I violation?
- Theft, dishonesty. My favorite, moral turpitude, just because I like the way that sounds. There is a rule that we have, we refer to it as Class I-17, reserve flight attendants are required to be within two hours' driving distance of their domicile during their contact hours.

So they -- in my opinion, you have to work pretty hard to commit a Class I violation, and we take them very, very seriously.

- Q. Could a social media policy violation be a Class I violation?
- It is not listed in our classes of violations. However, this document here, as you can see from the title, does also reference Company policies, flight attendant work rules and

And a social media violation could be a 4 5 violation of just the social media policy. It could 6 include violations of other Company policies. Ιt 7 could include violations of work rules.

- Okay. And what about the harassment Q. policy?
- The harassment policy is housed on Α. SWALife. It's available to all employees electronically. It also is replicated in the flight attendant manual.
 - Could that be a Class I violation? Ο.
- It's not listed under a Class I violation. However, depending on the severity of the violation, it could result in termination on a first offense.
- And would the same thing apply to the Ο. bullying and hazing policy?
 - Α. Absolutely.
- Okay. And what is generally taken into consideration when deciding what level of discipline is appropriate?
- Α. Well, it tells you here on page 2 that in determining discipline we look at the nature of the violation, the surrounding circumstances if appropriate, and the overall employee record during the previous 18-month period.

- A. Yes. We take violations of this policy very seriously. Harassment or discrimination based on -- and it lists, of course, all of the covered categories, race, color, ancestry, religion, et cetera, and then it gives some examples of what would be considered types of derogatory, sexually suggestive, offensive or threatening or intimidating behaviors.

1 Q. Relevant to Ms. Carter. 2 Α. Yes, it was. 3 Q. How so? 4 One of the posts that Ms. Carter sent to Α. 5 Ms. Stone was of a sexual nature. It was a still 6 shot of three women wearing headdresses that were I 7 quess supposed to be depictions of women's vaginas. 8 So they were like these vagina headdresses with 9 women's hats or heads in the center, and she sent 10 that to Ms. Stone. 11 Okay. And do employees have access to 12 Southwest's anti-harassment policy? 13 Every single year every employee is Α. This is also available on SWALife, 17 and it is in the flight attendant manual. 18 (Joint Exhibit 6 marked) 19 0. Okay. Thank you. - And do employees have to acknowledge Ο. receiving a copy or having access to this policy?
 - Α. Yes.
- Can you generally describe the Company's policy with respect to workplace bullying and hazing?
- Α. Yes. We take this very seriously, and it's just not tolerated. It reiterates the mission statement and that we are to provide all employees with the same concern, respect, and caring attitude within the organization that they are expected to share externally. And it goes on to state that therefore hazing and bullying, including cyberbullying, which would be social media, are not tolerated in the workplace.
- And can you explain how Ms. Carter's actions with respect to Ms. Stone violated this policy.
- Α. Yes. If you look at the bullet points, the first bullet point talks about verbal bullying and talks about the behaviors that are included such as slandering, ridiculing, hurtful name-calling, personal insults.

And then if you skip down to the fourth

1 bullet point, where this came into play with 2 Ms. Carter was the cyberbullying that included 3 behaviors outlined in the verbal bullying by using electronic technology devices and communication 4 5 tools. 6 (Joint Exhibit 7 marked) 7 Thank you. I want to ask you about the Q. social media policy next. That is Joint Exhibit 7. 8 9 Ms. Emlet, are you familiar with this document? 10 Α. Yes. 11 And this document was issued in 12 April 2016? Is that correct? 13 Α. Yes. 14 Okay. And do employees have access to Ο. 15 this policy? 16 Α. Yes. 17 Q. Would that be on SWALife? 18 Α. Yes. 19 Ο. And do employees have to acknowledge 20 receipt electronically of this? 2.1 Α. Yes, they do, of the social media policy. 2.2. Okay. Can you generally describe what the 23 Company's policy is with respect to social media? 2.4 Yes. I think that it's well stated in Α. 25 this bold, italicized sentence that states, "For that reason, certain social media content that in any way is later related to Southwest, reflects poorly upon Southwest, or impacts the workplace, is a violation of this policy and may result in discipline, up to and including termination."

And then Southwest actually -- you know, I'm sure that we would love to not be in the social media violation business, but we've -- we have to address it because it's a real thing. And we take it so seriously that not only do we have this policy on SWALife available to all employees, we also have training videos, self-training videos and resources on SWALife attached to this policy that are available to everyone so that they are well educated on what is acceptable social media behavior and what is not.

- Q. Okay. And in fact, the policy also provides employees with examples of the type of conduct that may be a violation of the policy?
 - A. Yes, it does.
- Q. Okay. Can you explain how Ms. Carter's conduct violated this policy?
- A. Yes. If you go to the first bullet point, it states, "Content that may be viewed as untrue, disrespectful, malicious, obscene, violent,

```

1 harassing, bullying, defamatory, threatening, lewd, 2 intimidating, discriminatory or retaliatory." 3 Ms. Carter sent two videos along with the 4 still shot of the women wearing the vagina 5 headdresses. She sent two videos of babies being 6 aborted, of aborted fetuses, and then those were 7 accompanied by different verbiage such as calling 8 Ms. Stone a murderer, assuming that she was 9 pro-abortion, she was a sheep in wolf's clothing. 10 She was accused of stealing and mishandling Union 11 funds. 12. And then in the second bullet point it 13 says, "Content that may be viewed as damaging Southwest's public perception, " and these same 14 15 videos or similar videos were posted on Ms. Carter's public Facebook page along with photos of herself 16 identifying her as a Southwest Airlines flight 17 18 attendant. (Company Exhibit 1 marked) 19 20 Q. I'm going to hand you what's Southwest 2.1 Exhibit No. 1. 2.2 Ms. Emlet, you testified that employees 23 had to acknowledge receiving, understanding, and 2.4 abiding by the policies we just discussed, correct?

Α.

Yes.

Q. And how often do employees have to acknowledge those policies?

THE ARBITRATOR: I would prefer it.

MS. GEHRKE: I'll testify if you want.

A. This is a document that was provided to us from our technology group. And if you look in this little box that's at the top of the page, you'll notice that it says, "I, Vincent Vasquez." That's because he is our technology person. So that box is there simply to show you a replication of the notification that goes out to every employee. When the employee logs on to SWALife, this box pops up. And since they log in with their employee number, their name would be in this box.

And then if you look to the bottom left of the page, it shows you that "e," for employee, 38690, which was Ms. Carter's employee number, her

BY MS. GEHRKE:

- Q. I'm going to hand you what's marked as Southwest Company Exhibit No. 2. Ms. Emlet, are you familiar with this document?
 - A. Yes, I am.
 - Q. Can you please describe for us what it is?
- A. Yes, this just goes to further show you what the employee sees when they acknowledge the SWALife announcement that they have read and agreed to abide by these Company policies.
- Q. Okay. So here we have page 1. Can you tell us what that document was, why Mr. Vasquez sent you this e-mail?
- A. Yes. He sent that for Ms. Charlene Carter on January 21st of 2017, she again acknowledged the receipt and agreeing to comply with the Company policies.

And then on the second page it briefly tells you what these policies are and just a very tiny synopsis of what they mean. The very first one talks about the first quarter acknowledgment and reminds the employees that it's important for them to take the time to read the policies, be aware of the expectations outlined in the policies, and know 2 that they will be held accountable for complying 3 with these policies. And as such, they are asked to 4 confirm whether they are aware that they will be 5 held accountable for the policies being applied to them.

     marked as Southwest Exhibit 3. Ms. Emlet, can you are memos that are issued to flight attendants to update them on critical information that they need to know before they fly a trip. We commonly refer to them as RBFs. And this one, you'll see it says 2013-006. That denotes that this was the sixth RBF issued in 2013.

These

And then this one was actually issued on January 11th to all flight attendants from Mike Mankin who was the director of employee resources at the time, and at that time that really is labor relations. We just changed our name. And this is to alert flight attendants that there is a revised social media policy that was introduced and is applicable to all Southwest employees, members of the board of directors, and the contractors, it's the responsibility of all employees to familiarize themselves with the new policy, and that mandatory acceptance of the policy will be required beginning January 16th of 2013. It also gives the flight attendants the path that they can follow on SWALife if they want to view the document online.

- Q. Okay. Approximately how many RBFs or read before fly does the Company issue per year?
- A. It varies with the needs of the operation. It could be anywhere from 100 to 200 per year. I

```
1 know that during the years that we were acquiring
```

- 2 AirTran that we started international service, we
- 3 had so many changes that were critical for the
- 4 | flight attendants to know, there were more read
- 5 before flies. But they're generally fairly short.
- 6 And as I said before, every flight attendant is
- 7 | required to read any new RBFs that have come out
- 8 | since the last time they flew. So if you fly every
- 9 Monday of every week and you read all of your RBFs
- 10 on the first Monday, before the second Monday you'd
- 11 | have to read any new RBFs that had come out during
- 12 that time period.
- MS. GEHRKE: Okay. Thank you. We'd like

- 21 | Company Exhibit No. 4.
- 22 BY MS. GEHRKE:
- Q. Ms. Emlet, can you identify what this
- 24 document is, please.
- 25 A. Yes. This is a read before fly that was issued on May 16th of 2015 by Mike Hafner who was our vice president at the time. And at that time flight attendants were housed under cabin services. And this actually was issued in response to a social media post, a video that a customer had posted taking video of one of our flight attendants on the jump seat and alleging that the flight attendant was under the influence of alcohol or drugs. There was a lot of speculation by flight attendants on Facebook regarding that post. This flight attendant actually was having a medical event and had to be hospitalized.

And so this is Mike Hafner's request to our flight attendants that they not engage in conversation, speculation, and reminding us that we should know that it is unacceptable to condemn our family members based on assumptions made without knowing all of the facts surrounding very difficult situations.

- Q. And how is this RBF relevant to Ms. Carter's case?
- A. With the videos and still shots that the -- that Ms. Carter sent to Ms. Stone via Facebook messaging, she told us that -- and by the words that she used in her comments to Ms. Stone, Company Exhibit No. 6. Ms. Emlet, can you identify for us what this document is?

A. Yes. This is another read before fly published on February 22nd of this year. Sonya Lacore, who is our current vice president of inflight operations, collaborated with Julie Weber who's the V.P. of people — that's basically our human resources department — and Russell McCrady, who is the vice president of labor relations.

It's a lengthy document, much longer than most RBFs that we publish, but I think that that goes to show the importance and impact of the message that they are reiterating the second portion of the Southwest mission statement that we --

MR. CHAPPELL: I'm going to object to this one. So I don't mind her identifying it, but I don't want her to read from it until you rule on my objection.

THE ARBITRATOR: I got you.

MR. CHAPPELL: The main postings and messagings that are the heart of the termination were done on February 14th and this was issued on February 22, so it was not -- I'm not saying something wasn't in effect, but I don't think it's proper to use a read before fly that was issued

THE ARBITRATOR: Let me short-circuit this a little bit. How many more RBFs --

MS. GEHRKE: This is the last one.

 - Yes, I did. Α.
- Okay. And how did you learn about those Q. public posts?
- One of our employee resources specialists who was working on the case sent those to me as part of my investigation and the base investigation.

Typically, anytime we have an allegation of a social media violation, we will go to the employee's public Facebook page and because we need to verify are these real, did they really come from that person. It's just part of the cross-check and verification process.

                                 Sure.
18
               MS. GEHRKE: Before we move to the public

     Exhibit 7. These are the Messenger ones.

               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. And this is what you

2.4

     by using the screen that the witness or anyone else

 3
               MS. GEHRKE: No, these were submitted to 4 the Company by Ms. Stone. It was part of her 5 complaint.
 6
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. I can ask her 7 questions about it.
 8
               THE ARBITRATOR: Okay. So no objection to 9
     7, may clear it up on cross?
10
               MR. CHAPPELL: Hang on just a second. And 11 these are represented that they are the Messenger 12 ones from Ms. Carter to Ms. Stone?
13
               MS. GEHRKE: Correct.
14
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. If you can give me a 15 second.
16
               THE ARBITRATOR: Uh-huh.
17
               MS. GEHRKE: Okay. So Exhibit 7 is the 18
     Messenger posts from Ms. Carter to Ms. Stone.
19
     There's two videos which are part of -- 20
               THE ARBITRATOR: When you say Messenger,
2.1
     do you mean the Instant Messenger?
2.2
               MS. GEHRKE: Well, Facebook has a wall
2.3
     where you post, and then there's like a chat feature 2.4
     which is called Messenger. So these were private messages between Ms. Carter and Ms. Stone.

                                Okay.

               MS. GEHRKE: So there's two videos and 3 then a still shot which we're calling the vagina 4 headdress shot.
               MR. CHAPPELL: And one other. There's
 6
           That's a still shot too.
     t.wo?
               MS. GEHRKE: The second -- page 2 is a continuation of the first video post.
 8
 9
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. So you're not 10 including the picture in the submission?
11
               MS. GEHRKE: Well, it's all -- if you read the text, it all continues. It's all part of the same first video.
13
14
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. But there's a 15 picture.
16
               MS. GEHRKE: We're not getting into that.
17
               MR. CHAPPELL: So you're not really 18 submitting this picture?
19
               MS. GEHRKE: Well, to the extent it's part 20 of the first video post, it's in the record, but 2.1
     we're not -- I'm not saying that this picture is a 2.2
     video or anything like that.
23
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. And you're not saying that this picture is offensive or anything?
25
               MS. GEHRKE: Well, we can testify about 8 tell what are videos here. And you're familiar with 9 seeing those little -- 10

               THE ARBITRATOR: Uh-huh.
11
               MR. CHAPPELL: Right. And if that's not 12
     there, it's not a video. Okay. On the last page 13 not there. In light of all of that, I have no 14 objection to it being admitted.
15
               THE ARBITRATOR: Uh-huh.
16
               MS. GEHRKE: Okay. So number 7 is in 17 then?
18
               THE ARBITRATOR: Yes.
19
               MS. GEHRKE: Okay. All right. I'm going

We sponsor 5 different concerts throughout the company, and we 6 get the artists to come on the airplane and actually 7 sing songs on the airplane. It's live at 8 35,000 feet.

The next shot is on one of our aircraft with Ms. Carter and two coworkers in their flight attendant uniforms and their ID badges around their This is a photo of Ms. Carter's -- one of Ms. Carter's friends who is a Southwest pilot and her husband who is a pilot at Frontier, I believe.

And I'm not sure what this last picture is except that Ms. Carter is in the photo. She says she's headed to D.C. So I'm not sure what that was for.

- Okay. But all of these -- the entire Ο. packet of Southwest Company Exhibit No. 8 was on her public Facebook page. Is that right?

     public posts factored into the investigation?
10
                     They factored in because of the fact
          Α.
               Yes.
11 that she clearly identifies herself as an employee 12 of Southwest Airlines and that our social media 13 policy clearly states that if you are identifiable 14 as a Southwest Airlines employee, that the public 15 opinion of Southwest can be influenced based on 16
     the -- based on what you post through social media.
17
     So the nexus to the workplace is that she identified

20 managers your belief as to whether Ms. Carter's 2.1
     public posts violated the Company's policies?
2.2.
               Yes. After the base manager completed his the evidence. I asked him what he wanted to do,

- Q. And how would you describe Mr. Schneider's approach generally to employee discipline issues?
- A. I think that Mr. Schneider is extremely thorough. He is very levelheaded and unemotional in his decisions. He I think that he takes it very seriously when there is the possibility of someone losing their employment, and he does not take it lightly. He does not make decisions lightly.

I find him to be one of our better base managers who's very experienced and seasoned, and he -- sometimes he gets too much in the weeds for me, but I know that he has looked at every detail.

- Q. And did you and Mr. Schneider discuss how Ms. Carter's alleged violations compared to other social media violations that the Company had considered?
 - A. Yes, we did.
 - Q. And what did you discuss about that?

1 I felt that through my research of other 2 cases, this was the most egregious that I had seen, 3 the most graphic. I felt like it was absolutely 4 intended to be a personal attack as well as the 5 public image and the connection to Southwest. I 6 felt like this was one of the more egregious cases I 7 had seen. 8 And you shared that with him? 0. 9 A. Yes, I did. 10 Okav. Whose decision was it to terminate Q. 11 Ms. Carter? 12 Mr. Schneider. Α. 13 And did he consult with you as part of Ο. 14 making that decision? 15 THE ARBITRATOR: Will we hear from 16 Mr. Schneider? 17 MS. GEHRKE: We will. 18 BY MS. Was there anybody else, to your knowledge, 2.3 involved in the decision to terminate Ms. Carter? 2.4 The decision is ultimately the Α.

responsibility of the leader who conducted the fact

1 finding. There are multiple people involved in 2 discussing the issue prior to the leader making that 3 final decision.

- Okay. And who would that be?
- The -- he would have consulted in this particular case with employee relations because of the potential for a violation of the harassment and discrimination policy. He would have consulted with the human resources business partner, the HRBP, because of the potential of violation of the bullying and hazing policy. They oversee that policy. And he would have consulted with his immediate leaders to ensure that his leader knew the decision that he was making and that that leader did not have any objections or concerns.
- Okay. What was your view regarding the appropriateness of termination?
- I thought termination was absolutely appropriate.
- Okay. And did Ms. Carter grieve her Q. termination?
 - Α. Yes, she did.
- And what's the next step of the grievance Ο. process under the collective bargaining agreement?

I show you what's been marked as Joint Exhibit No. 1, which is the collective bargaining agreement. Do you agree that's what it is?

 - A. Okay.
- Q. Okay? And is that -- did I -- is that what I just described and you agreed that in deciding discipline you're not to go back more than 18 months?

 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. And at that point there's no basis for impeachment?
 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. Okay. Then let me direct you so that we don't miss anything. If you could just read that first sentence of Subsection J.
 - A. "Disciplinary decisions shall be based only on performance and/or conduct occurring within the 18-month period of active status preceding the incident in question."

- A. Yes. They were sent to me via e-mail, and then I actually went onto the Facebook page to confirm that they actually did come from that source.
- Q. Right. What steps were taken by the Company to assure that all of these pictures were conduct that she posted within the 18 months before the incident occurred?
- A. That is not -- I don't -- I don't see the relevance to that. I'm not sure -- maybe I don't understand your question.

- Α. Uh-huh.
- And you also read from the collective Q. bargaining agreement, and it speaks for itself, that disciplinary decisions shall be based only on performance and/or conduct occurring within the 18 months prior to the incident.
- That speaks to what we can review in Α. determining the discipline. We cannot go back more than the 18 months. There is also verbiage in the contract that speaks about that the Company will have seven days to investigate within -- from the time that the Company was made aware of the allegations.

So for the purposes of our collective bargaining agreement, the date that these were actually posted on Ms. Carter's page is not as relevant as the timing of when they were brought to our attention.

Q. But if these pictures were actually posted more than 18 months and the date in question is somewhere in February of 2017, so someone can -- I'm not good at math, so someone can do the math for 18 months. So if they were posted like in 2012, we all agree that's more than 18 months from the incident, right?

- A. Yes.
- Q. Or if they were posted in 2013 to show that she is a Southwest and supposedly to bring Southwest into the issue of the social media policy, how is that compliant with the collective bargaining agreement?
- A. Because they were brought to our attention on -- I'm not sure what date. I'd have to look that up, but sometime in February of 2017. And aside from the fact that I believe Ms. Carter requested a few extensions of time frames to hold her fact finding meeting because she was not available, we complied with the investigation being completed within seven working days of the Company's knowledge of the allegations.
 - Q. You don't know when these pictures were taken, do you?
 - A. No.
 - Q. You don't know when they were posted on Facebook?
 - A. No.
- Q. You don't know when the conduct, my client committed the conduct that's now being used to assess discipline that actually is the most serious, it's capital punishment, it's termination, do you?

A. The pictures that were posted on the public page and considered in the evaluation of rendering discipline were just one part. The investigation was initiated because of the private messages that Ms. Carter sent to Ms. Audrey Stone, and during that investigation these violations were also uncovered.

For our purposes of the collective bargaining agreement, we are held to time frames of when the Company has reasonable knowledge of an action that may or may not have violated any policies or work rules.

- Q. I'm not asking about the time you took to investigate. I'm asking about the evidence that you used and whether it was conduct within 18 months to then build the case that she had violated a social media policy by her public posting on Facebook.
- A. That was one of the ways that she violated the policy.
- Q. But the only way that you -- and you put it in -- this is your exhibit and you've testified to it. The only way that there's a violation of the policy is if she has associated herself -- in other words, if the public in looking at her Facebook

A. The violation is that it doesn't really make any difference when she posted these pictures that she worked for Southwest. The fact of the matter is that at the time that these pictures were posted and when we discovered them, she still had these same photos that — the violation isn't that she identifies herself as a flight attendant.

The violation is that she's identified herself as a flight attendant for Southwest Airlines and is making this very public, graphic post about murder and abortion. And, I mean, even the wording in here, "If it's your body, your choice, who is this laying in this fucking bowl," I find that very offensive.

MS. CARTER: I didn't write that.

THE ARBITRATOR: If your point is that the Company did not make an investigation to see when pages 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 were actually posted, and her point is they were still there when this was posted, I think she acknowledges that. We could brief that if we would like.

Do you know how far away from this posting that someone would have to scroll through her Facebook page and how many either pictures and go through albums or scroll down before they would find any picture that would clearly identify to the public that she was an employee of Southwest?
- A. I cannot tell you definitively. What I can tell you is that I am not very Facebook savvy, and I had no problem finding the pictures of her in her Southwest uniform and wings.
 - Q. Okay. So --
 - A. I don't remember scrolling very far.
- Q. Describe what you did for -- because I thought you said these pictures were provided to you by an employee of yours.

Well, you had to. 1 Q.

- Well, I had to go past the first two posts Α. because otherwise they'd be on top of each other.
- And you had to go down quite a few Ο. scrolls, didn't you? They didn't pop up as the next pictures.
 - Α. I don't remember.
- You don't remember that they popped up as 0. the next two pictures, do you?
- 10 I don't remember where they were in the Α. 11 news or in the -- in the feed.
 - Isn't it true that it probably took you four or five minutes to find all these photos, if not longer?
 - Well, when I'm conducting a complete and Α. thorough investigation, I don't think four or five minutes is very long to spend on getting at the truth.
 - That wasn't my question. My question was, didn't it take you --
 - THE ARBITRATOR: I understand your question. Let's move on.
- 23 MR. CHAPPELL: Okay.
- 2.4 BY MR. CHAPPELL:
- 25 Let me direct your attention to "Live at 0.

1 35," I think it's better to describe it as they 2 don't have page numbers on it. How does this poster 3 show that you are employed at Southwest? 4 Α. It does not. 5 Okay. So if I was looking at this and saw Q. 6 this on Charlene's Facebook page, I wouldn't 7 automatically know that she was a flight attendant? 8 Α. I don't know what you would know. 9 Well, a person -- there's no further 0. 10 evidence to show that. 11 MS. GEHRKE: Is there a question with 12 t.hat.? 13 MR. CHAPPELL: No. I withdraw it. I 14 withdraw my comment. 15 BY MR. CHAPPELL: 16 Look at the last photo which says "Headed 17 to D.C." And how would -- what is the identifying 18 feature that a random person on Facebook would see 19 here that would tell them, first of all, who 2.0 Charlene is and, second of all, that she's an 2.1 employee of Southwest? 2.2 I don't see anything identifying. 23 Let's go to the first picture which is the Ο. 24 third page. Any public person looking at Charlene's 25 Facebook page, having seen the first two postings of the first two pages and then continuing to scroll for however long and coming up on this picture, how did they know out of the blue that this is Charlene and who is Charlene and that they're employees of Southwest?

A. Well, we have millions and millions of passengers every year. We have a very highly identifiable aircraft painted sky canyon blue. Anyone who has flown on Southwest recognizes our uniforms. So I think that it's easy to see that if you go to her page that that would -- she would be employed by Southwest Airlines.

Additionally, we have -- whether someone knows that they're Charlene or not, we have -- we have many, many cases where our employees have been disciplined for their overnight behavior because of their being identifiable as Southwest employees.

- Q. Again, you don't know when that picture was either taken or put on her Facebook account?
 - A. No, I do not.

MR. CHAPPELL: Off the record. I'm going to get my exhibit.

(Off record from 11:40 to 11:41)

          Α.

               Yes.

               MR. CHAPPELL: Then this will be -- how do

- 11 A. No, not the policies. These are the work 12 and conduct rules and expectations. The Company 13 policies are housed in a separate area.
- Q. Okay. Thanks for that clarification.

 You testified earlier that the violation of bullying and hazing, the violation of the social media policy and the violation of the harassment policies were not technically a Class I --
- 19 A. Yes.
- Q. -- violation. Is it -- is this a -number one, does that show the descriptions of what Class I violations are?
- 23 A. Yes.
- Q. Then where would you think that most likely the -- let's say harassing, violation of the harassing, what class would that fall under?

- A. Harassing falls under the harassment and discrimination policy.
 - Q. But which class?
- A. It doesn't fall under a class necessarily. That's why this says "Flight Attendant Work Rules and Expectations and Company Policies." So there are many, many times that a flight attendant or any employee that is covered by a collective bargaining agreement or work and conduct rules could be disciplined for violation of the policies that apply to all employees. Other times they may be in violation of the work and conduct rules that are outlined for that specific work group.

- She did not, to my knowledge, send this to anyone else. She sent it directly to Ms. Stone. And of course Ms. Stone is the president of the 556. And then she went on to say, "You are nothing but a sheep in wolves clothing, you are just so uneducated, and you have not a clue who or what you were marching for."
- Okay. Do you know that when you send videos or share them that you have gotten from another place, the actual statement that was originally put by someone else may also go with them?

 - So I think it's pretty clear if you look at the totality of the postings that her intent was to send this directly to Ms. Carter, that these comments -- or, excuse me, to Ms. Stone and that these comments were directed at her.

- Q. -- in the termination, correct? Whose fact finding notes did you review?
 - A. Well, Ed Schneider and Meggan Jones were at the fact finding meeting. I can't testify to how those notes were finalized.
 - Q. Okay. But my question was, whose fact finding notes did you review?
- 8 Α. Well, I -- at the fact finding meeting 9 Meggan was the main note taker. Generally speaking, 10 the way that it works is the person conducting the 11 fact finding meeting takes their own handwritten 12 notes while the other one probably takes typewritten 13 notes. The note taker prepares those notes, and 14 then the person who was conducting the fact finding 15 meeting reviews them for accuracy.
 - Q. Okay. And so Meggan was the one that took the notes, as you understood it?
 - A. Yes.
- 19 Q. Okay. And who is Meggan again?
- 20 A. She's the assistant base manager in 21 Denver.
- MS. GEHRKE: And she will be testifying.
- MR. CHAPPELL: Okay.

notes -- well, let me ask you. How instrumental were those notes for you to make your decision and to approve the recommendation and support the recommendation of termination made by the base manager?

- So the supporting of the decision is the Α. key there.
 - Q. Okay.
- Because I don't make the decision. But I think that the notes are always very impactful because that's the opportunity for the flight attendant to come in and tell their side of the story, give us any information or documentation that would be considered in making that decision.
- And it's your -- those notes have not been shared with either me or Ms. Carter to prepare for today.
- Those are internal documents. We do not share them with the Union or with anyone outside of the team.
- One of the things you said that you liked about the -- is it Schneid -- how do you pronounce it?
 - A. Ed Schneider.
 - Schneider -- was that he looked at every Q.

detail, he is very detailed?

- I find him to be a very detailed person, Α. yes.
 - Okay. What were some of the details that Ο. you found important in this fact finding that he looked at that impressed you?
- Well, off the top of my head, I thought that the fact that he recognized that there was the potential for violation of the harassment policy was important because he was proactive in engaging our employee resources team who are the experts on managing that policy. He also recognized that there was a potential violation of the workplace bullying policy and engaged the HRBP. He reviewed all of the social media -- well, all of those policies plus the social media policy. He reviewed her work record. He consulted with me on consistent practice.

So I -- and I felt that he conducted a very thorough fact finding meeting. Without looking back, I'd have to look back at the notes, but I felt that he asked a lot of very insightful and thorough questions.

And when you say that he looked at her whole record, did he reveal to you that she's -- in her whole 21-year career has had no discipline, no

- No. He told me that within the last 18 Α. months there was no discipline in her record.
- And did he tell you about the various customer appreciations, awards, great audits that she had received during those 21 years?
- Since we are only per the contract Α. No. allowed to look at the past 18 months, there is nothing in her file for the last 18 months because she hasn't flown. So she can't get a customer commendation without having flown.

She did fly a few days in '15 and '16, I I don't know whether or not there are believe. commendations, but if there had been, those of course would have been considered in -- and that would be a question for him, whether he considered those, if there are any. I don't know.

Did he tell you that the first ten years Q. or so she was very active until she became pregnant and flew a lot and was a --

That's correct. 10 And it is true that during the last 18 Ο. 11 months and longer, but we'll just stick with the 12 last 18 months, she has been assigned routes and to 13 take trips, correct? 14 Α. 1 flight attendant for Southwest?

- I fly periodically. I'm on currently a union pull, but I do fly at least once a quarter.
 - 0. And why are you on a union pull?
 - I am also the president of TWU Local 556. Α.
- Can you tell us briefly about your Ο. employment history at Southwest Airlines.
- Α. I started at Southwest in 2004. My first position was a flight attendant. It's the only position I've had at Southwest Airlines during my career.
- Okay. And how long have you held a Union 0. leadership position?
 - I began my work with the Union in 2006 as Α. a shop steward.
 - Okay. And how long were you a shop 0. steward?
 - Α. Until 2008.
- And did you hold any other leadership Ο. positions after you stopped being shop steward?
 - Α. Yes.
 - Please tell us about those. Q.
- 23 I was the Baltimore domicile executive Α. 24 board member for -- from 2009 until 2012. I was 25 also the education committee chairperson, and I also served as the lead negotiator beginning in 2013.

- Q. Okay. Prior to becoming president of Local 556, had you served in other executive level positions in the Union?
 - A. No.
- Q. Were you ever first vice president of Local 556?
- A. I was. Well, actually I guess, yes, technically. And it depends on if our domicile board member positions are considered an executive board position but not considered an officer, so I just want to make that distinction.
 - Q. Okay.
- A. And I was the first vice president for a very brief period of time in 2013 immediately before I became president. I was first vice president for a few days.
- Q. Okay. Why did you only serve a few days as first vice president?
- A. In May of 2013 two of the officers resigned from the Union's executive board, and then immediately following that there was the removal of our first vice president, Chris Click. Under our bylaws, the next highest votegetter from the election, the position was offered to me as the next

1 highest votegetter from the election the year 2 previously. So I became the first vice president 3 when he was removed from his position.

And then our then president, Stacy Martin, was removed a couple of days later. And under our bylaws as well, I then moved up from first vice president to assume the position of the presidency. Our treasurer was also removed during that same time period.

- Okay. And did you later run for full term Ο. to be president?
- Yes, I did. Α.
 - When was that? Ο.
- 14 That was in first quarter of 2015. And Α. 15 that term began on May 1st, 2015.
 - And when does your current term end as 0. Union president?
 - Α. April 30th, 2018.
 - When is the next Union election? 0.
- 2.0 Α. It'll be the -- it'll begin in January, 2.1 next month.
 - And what airport are you based out of? Q.
- 2.3 Α. Las Vegas.
- 2.4 Q. And you live in Las Vegas?
- 25 Α. Yes.

- Q. Despite winning the election in the 2015 time frame, has it been difficult for you to be serving as Union president?
- A. It's been incredibly difficult. It was the circumstances under which I became president were a little unusual, so I faced a challenge because there had been, you know, a large upheaval in the leadership of our Union. And that happened right before we were scheduled to begin contract negotiations with Southwest Airlines.

There were — the supporters of the officers who were removed were very angry that myself and other flight attendants had assumed those leadership roles. They were upset that the people they had voted for the year previously were no longer in office. So there was a lot of pushback on me being the unelected president. And that continued even after I won the election in 2015.

- Q. Did these issues play out on social media?
- A. Yes. The social media dialogue has been primarily where these conversations have been taking place where on group pages where flight attendants, you know, the pro-Union pages, the tend-to-be, you know, anti-Union, the kind of campaigns, you know, against leadership. You know,

2.3

2.4

both directions have primarily been social media.

We are a workforce that is spread out all across the nation and many times don't have a lot of face-to-face interaction with many of our coworkers, our flight attendants. So our work group is very active on social media as a communication tool to stay in contact with each other.

- Q. Okay. As part of the dissent over the change in Union leadership, did certain members elect to opt out of the Union?
- A. Yes. At the summer of 2013 -- I became president in June -- there was a push, largely generated through social media. Primarily Facebook is where our flight attendants have the -- that's the digital media vehicle that most of those conversations take place on. And there was a push by those who had supported the removed officers, Stacy, Chris, and Jerry. There was a push to opt out of the Union to send a message that we don't support this leadership, it's not who we voted for, so opt out of the Union, it will hurt them financially from, you know, dues.

And so there was a push. We had historically had a handful of flight attendants who had chosen to opt out over the years, and I think probably by the end of 2013 at the height we had 1 2 around 90 flight attendants out of our membership 3 who had chosen to opt out after this campaign. 4 Okay. And was Ms. Carter one of the Ο. 5 individuals who had opted out? 6 Α. Yes. 7 Do you recall approximately when she opted Q. out of the Union? 8 9 I believe it was late in the summer of Α. 10 2013. 11 Q. Is it correct to refer to the people who 12 opt out of the Union as objectors? 13 Α. Yes. 14 Is that the term of art you use? 15 Yes. AFO, agency fee objector, is the Α. 16 term that TWU International uses for those 17 non-members. 18 Q. Okay. But for shorthand we can call them

2.2

- objectors? You'll know what I'm talking about?
 - Α. Yes.

2.2.

Okay. Just want to get the terminology right so we're on the same page.

2.3 How has social media been used by the 2.4 objectors against you personally or directed towards 25 you personally?

A. It has been used as a vehicle to criticize my leadership, to criticize decisions the Union has made. It has been used as a vehicle to spread false information regarding Union business, regarding tentative agreements on the contracts that were rolled out. It's been used as a vehicle to attack me personally and to attack many of my friends who also work for Southwest, folks that have been associated with me either professionally or personally. It's been used to attack them as well.

Q. You mentioned to attack you personally. What do you mean by that?

- A. I've been called names on social media. I have had references made to the fact that I'm not married and the fact that I don't have children. My appearance has been ridiculed. I have had videos taken of me on the weekend at a Southwest Airlines function by another employee without me being aware of it that were released on Facebook groups. I've had personal photographs released and misrepresented on various flight attendant pages.
- Q. Did any of the posts by the objectors involve physical threats of violence against you?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Can you describe those briefly?

When I was made aware of them, you know, we -- the Union took appropriate action just from a safety standpoint because I was concerned for my safety.

- The threats of violence that were made, by Α. the time I was made aware of them I was also made aware that other flight attendants had already seen them and that they had been reported to Southwest Airlines.

And I had not taken any of the personal or professional attacks forward because I've spent my career at Southwest as an advocate for our flight attendants, you know, fighting for the rights of our flight attendants. And I knew when I became the kind of leader of the Union that there was going to be, you know, a price you pay with that from the standpoint of having, you know, some attacks on you as a leader. I knew that there was, you know, going 1 2 to be some repercussions for me around that going 3 into it and, you know, just continued to kind of 4 turn the other cheek on the things that were being 5 said.

- Okay. How well do you know the grievant, Charlene Carter?
 - I don't know her well. Α.
- How many times have you ever met her in 0. person prior to today?
 - Once that I'm aware of. Α.
 - Tell us about that encounter. 0.
- It was right after I became president. Α. At least three times a year we have membership meetings where the president or their designee along with our recording secretary and sometimes other officers of our Union travel around to each domicile, or that's how we did it in the past, to go over Union business, to present financial reports, talk about any current topics, any business that's going on.

And there were membership meetings that had already been scheduled prior to me coming into office that were scheduled to take place in June, so they began just after I assumed the position.

25 Charlene was one of a handful of flight attendants present at the Denver session of that membership meeting in June 2013.

 - A. No. I mean, that is fair to say. I do not know her well.
 - Q. Even today?
 - A. That's correct.
 - Q. What is the significance of being an objector to the Union with respect to the members' rights as a Union member?
 - A. When someone has chosen to opt out and become an objector, they as a flight attendant give up all of their voice, their right to vote. So they can't vote on a contract, they can't vote in any elections, and they are unable to attend any Union meetings, whether it's a membership meeting or a ratification meeting for a contract. They still

- Okay. Are there any differences in the 0. Union dues or fees that objectors pay compared to members?
- There is. Our local, Local 556, follows Α. the TWU International agency fee policy, so International sets that once a year and there is a small percentage of the dues that are refunded to the individuals who have opted out. It is the percentage of dues, it averages around 10 percent, of the money that is used for anything that touches a legislative or political realm within the International Union.
- Can you describe the restrictions on how agency fees can be spent relative to the general Union dues?
- So the way we -- can you repeat the question? I want to make sure I'm understanding.
- 0. Yeah. I mean, the objectors pay the agency fees and then the regular Union members pay the full fee. And you testified that there were some differences in how the money could be spent.

- Α. Well, actually the agency fee objectors, they pay the regular dues and then it's refunded back to them by International. So they get that percentage back that International has determined was the percentage that is, again, spent towards legislative or political activities or expenditures, you know, items that are not related to negotiating, you know, bargaining, enforcing the contract.
- Does the International or the local kind of handle the administration of that process of refunding the fees?
 - Α. They do, yes.
- That was an either/or question. Is it the 0. local or the International?
 - It's the International. Α.
- Q. Okay.
 - In fact, when someone chooses to opt out of the Union, they actually have to notify TWU International who then sends notification back to the local that they have received that request and process that request. And then we then mark it accordingly.
 - Can you explain in more detail what is Ο.

1 considered a political cause or political issue that 2 could not -- agency fee objector fees could not be 3 used towards?

- A. So our International Union will support labor-friendly candidates. We'll, you know, do lobbying for issues affecting workers that because it's lobbying work it also falls under that kind of political umbrella. So it's money spent directly towards those causes that is refunded back. It's anything touching that realm that is not the general day-to-day running of the Union, like I said, you know, contract, discipline, the general Union business.
- Q. Okay. Is it common for Union members, even though they have not opted out, to complain about how Union dues are being spent?
- A. It is. We -- you know, I normally chair the membership meetings that I mentioned earlier, and we present financial reports in those meetings. It is a regular occurrence for flight attendants to ask questions on, you know, why we spent X amount of dollars, you know, in communications and what is that paying for. They will have an opportunity to look at each committee's budget and, you know, what did our professional standards committee spend their

So we regularly have to answer questions and explain to our flight attendants, you know, how we spent the Union dues, why we spent the Union dues, and the cost of running a union of our size and the representation that we're providing with those services.

- Is it more common for the objectors to 0. complain about how Union dues money is spent?
 - Α. In my --

THE ARBITRATOR: She's about to say in her experience. I'll hold your objection to let her answer the question.

In my experience, for some of them, yes. They -- if they've opted out of the Union because they are unhappy about something, and many of them have been very candid and open, you know, in expressing that, they tend to be very critical of the Union and use that to try to, you know, convince other people to opt out and join in that cause. that are charged with various purposes?

- Α. Yes.
 - And is one of those a women's committee? Q.
 - Yes, it is. Α.
- Can you explain to us kind of the purpose Q. of the women's committee and what it does?
- The women's committee was originally founded through TWU International, and it was to -within TWU International, outside of our local, many of the other locals within TWU are predominantly male work groups. And so it was to bring women together to advocate for women's issues in the workplace within TWU, you know, to move them forward as well as to focus on building women leaders within TWU International and the local leadership.
- And is the work done by the women's committee considered to be a political cause or political issue for purposes of the fees?
- No, it's not. Our local only has one Α. committee that falls under that umbrella, and it's our committee on political education.
- So if I understand you correctly, then everyone's dues money, including those of the objectors, would go towards funding activities of the women's committee?

- I'm sorry. Thank you. And where was that Q. meeting?
- That was in Washington, D.C., and it was Α. held at TWU International headquarters.
 - And what was the purpose of that meeting? Ο.
- It was to bring flight attendants from all Α. over the system together, many of whom had expressed interest on, you know, wanting to become more involved with our working women's committee because it had been a very small committee within our local.

And so we were looking to expand it, and International, the chairperson of the TWU International working women's committee helped put it together, offered to host it, and actually set up some speakers who were local to the D.C. area, including Liz Shuler from the AFL-CIO, to be able to come and speak to our flight attendants on some of the women's issues that were happening in D.C.

 - Were certain individuals chosen to go to Q. the Washington, D.C., meeting, or was everybody on the committee invited to go?
 - It wasn't -- people weren't chosen. Α. was more of an organic flight attendants reaching out to the female leaders within our executive And I believe anybody that reached out that, you know, that heard about it or that expressed interest in going was able to come.
 - And how were the costs associated with Ο. attending the meeting paid for?
 - Southwest Airlines provided the travel, so there was no direct cost with that. The Union dues money were used to cover hotel and the hotel cost, the lodging cost. Union dues paid for one meal while the group was in D.C. And then with -- most everybody there volunteered their time. I'm on a full-time salary, so the day of the meeting I was on my, you know, my Union bar. But the other rank and file flight attendants volunteered their time to come to the meeting.

- 1 You testified that Southwest provided the 2 travel, transportation, the flights. Is that 3 pursuant to a provision in the collective bargaining 4 agreement? 5 It is. Our contract states that Southwest 6 Airlines will provide positive space travel for 7 Union business. 8 0. And this women's committee was deemed 9 Union business? 10 Α. And so for those of us that chose to stay and volunteer, it was to support equality, you know, across the board for women. You know, civil rights are human rights. - And how often do you think Ms. Carter was 0. sending you Facebook Messenger posts?
- It was somewhat sporadic. I was not --Α. I'm not very active on Facebook, so it wasn't something I was checking all the time. Sometimes I would open and see a stack of them, many of them, and I would just close it. Some were, you know, multiple messages in a day, and then other times there would be, you know, long periods where there wasn't anything sent.
- Can you estimate since 2015 approximately how many private Facebook Messenger posts Ms. Carter has sent you?

MR. CHAPPELL: Objection. I understand the termination is based on specific messages in one time period and that she was not discharged for a series or over a two-year period, so I don't think this is relevant to the just cause.

MS. GEHRKE: That's actually not accurate. There will be testimony that there was a pile of messages and that it was part of the long campaign of harassment of Ms. Stone that led to -- as part of the decision to terminate her.

THE ARBITRATOR: I'll allow the testimony.

1 Α. I would estimate probably around a 2 hundred. BY MS. GEHRKE: 3 4 Did you ever respond to these messages Ο. 5 from Ms. Carter? 6 Α. No. 7 Did you ever ask her to stop messaging Q. 8 you? Α. 9 No. 10 And these were all private messages, Q. 11 correct? 12 Α. Yes. 13 Do you know if she ever tagged you in any Ο. 14 public Facebook posts, perhaps on some of these 15 Union pages or even on her personal page? 16 Not that I'm aware of. 17 MS. GEHRKE: All right. I'd like to mark 18 as Southwest Company Exhibit 9 this pile of 19 documents. 20 (Company Exhibit 9 marked) 2.1 BY MS. GEHRKE: 2.2. Ms. Stone, do you recall that as part of 2.3 the Company's investigation -- well, let me back up. 2.4 Did you ever complain to the Company 25 regarding messages you received from Ms. Carter?

One references us inviting flight attendants in for the contract signing when that was signed with Southwest Airlines. Some are photographs of memes or, you know, pictures of me that had different captions put on them, derogatory. There's — it's — there's a lot of different things in here.

- Q. Okay. Did you receive private Facebook messages from Ms. Carter in February 2017 regarding abortion?
 - A. Yes.

advocating for our flight attendants, fighting for their rights. It — fundamentally I had advocated against turning fellow flight attendants in. I had educated on different avenues to try to resolve, you know, conflict, some of the avenues that the Union and Southwest Airlines jointly have available.

So while she had sent some really ugly messages before, I -- it just went against my beliefs to turn that in, and I just continued to tell myself that, again, part of my job as a leader was to just recognize that people were going to say ugly things and mean things.

- Q. What made you decide to report

 Ms. Carter's Facebook Messenger posts to Southwest at this point?
- A. They hurt me. I couldn't unsee what she sent. I thought it was vile, I thought it was disgusting, and I didn't want any other employee to have to be exposed to that. I was fearful that other flight attendants that went to the march might be sent it, and I felt like it crossed a line that I had overlooked, walked away from a lot of harassment and bullying that had been occurring for years, but that this overstepped a line for me as a human being and as an employee of Southwest.

- Q. How did you report Ms. Carter's messages to Southwest Airlines?

 A. I sent an e-mail to my base manager,

 Suzanne Stephenson. I sent an e-mail and attached
 - Suzanne Stephenson. I sent an e-mail and attached screenshots, still shots of the messages. I didn't know -- I'm not tech savvy enough, I didn't know how to send a video from Facebook as an e-mail attachment, so I just -- again, I sent an e-mail with the photos attached to her through our Southwest Airlines e-mail system.
 - Q. And did you hear from the Company in response to your complaint?
 - A. Yes, I did.
 - Q. Who did you hear from?
 - A. I think Suzanne initially e-mailed me back that she was in receipt and -- receipt of it and would be in further contact. And then the base manager from Denver, Ed, called me I think a day or two later.
 - MS. GEHRKE: Do you need a break?

 - A. (Witness nods head.)
- Q. And I believe you testified that the base manager, Suzanne Stephenson, acknowledged receipt and Mr. Schneider had reached out to you.

What was the next step in the investigation from your perspective?

- A. When Mr. Schneider called me, he said he was going to need to set up a conference call with the base leadership, myself, and employee relations to go through and just ask some further questions regarding the information I had submitted to Southwest Airlines.
- Q. Did they offer you Union representation for that call?
- A. When we set the call, when the call when that joint call started, they informed me at that time that I could also have, you know, a Union rep on the call with me if I chose to, and I did. I did have a fellow flight attendant and Union rep that listened in on that joint base, ER, and myself

- Q. Okay. During this phone call, did they ask you if you knew why Ms. Carter was sending you these messages?
- A. Yes. The ER representative, Denise Gutierrez, and I apologize if I'm mispronouncing her name, she asked me repeatedly if I knew why Charlene had sent me the videos, the videos and the messages about abortion.
 - Q. What did you tell her?
- A. I told her I didn't know and I couldn't answer that. She asked me multiple times, and I kept saying I don't know why, I can't -- I can't -- I can't explain it, and anything I say would be speculation.
- Q. Did she ask you if you had ever spoken to Ms. Carter regarding abortion?

1 participate in the actual filing of grievances or 2 the day-to-day managing or handling those cases once 3 they're filed. While I have attended some step 2 4 meetings in the past, it's not a regular occurrence, 5 and my involvement usually only occurs at the point 6 that the executive board is hearing a grievance, 7 hearing a case, and determining whether or not to 8 proceed forward based off the merits.

I, as president, am the chairman of the executive board, so I chair, you know, those discussions normally. And then for the cases that the board votes to proceed on, I regularly participate in the monthly grievance meetings between our grievance chairpersons and Southwest Airlines labor relations in, you know, advocating for resolutions and solutions on the cases that have come forward.

- Did you do any of that with respect to Ms. Carter's grievance?
- Α. I did not. I recused myself from the board meeting and was not there when the board reviewed Ms. Carter's grievance.
 - Why did you do that? 0.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. CHAPPELL:

- Q. You testified earlier about some general personal attacks that collectively the question was that objectors -- I think we all know what that term means -- had made against you over the last couple of years. Do you remember testifying to that?
 - A. I do.
- Q. Okay. And the record will speak for itself, but my notes say that those personal attacks focused on your marital status, whether you had children, personal photographs. You remember that string of examples that you gave in answer to the question?
 - A. Yes, I do.
- Q. Okay. Were you, when you were answering that question, were you referring specifically to anything Ms. Carter had done?
 - A. No, not with those examples.
- Q. Okay. That was just a general to other people, other objectors in general?
- A. Yes, and they were just a few of the examples of what's happened since I've been president.
 - Q. And actually I think it's Exhibit 9.

- Q. Exhibit 9 is a representation of what 4 Ms. Carter had sent to you?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Okay. And, in fact, in most cases or many times you never even looked at what came in, I believe you said. Is that correct?
 - A. In some -- some of the cases.
 - Q. Right. And to the two videos that were shown here, Exhibit 10, they didn't automatically start playing when you got the message, right?
 - A. Actually, the video that was on top did.

 The way Facebook Messenger works -- and again, I'm not a Facebook expert, but when I opened my Messenger account and opened the top message, it was from Ms. Carter and it was the video. And when I opened that application up, it started playing.

 - Q. And the second one did the same thing?
 - A. No. I closed that after a few seconds, and it was the following day before I was able to go back in and finish looking at what she had sent me.
 - Q. Now, I realize that you may not have looked at those videos when they appeared in your Messenger feed, but am I correct that they both were

 - A. Or the first one.
- Q. I mean, the document speaks for itself, but I think it shows a date of Tuesday, so -- okay.

Before or after, including up to today, have you received any additional abortion videos or pictures from Ms. Carter by any means?

- A. No, but I blocked Ms. Carter immediately after submitting the documentation to Southwest Airlines.
 - Q. Okay.
- Actually once I had pulled it off, I 16 17 blocked her before I had submitted it. Once I had taken the screenshots, I blocked her. And then when 18 19 Southwest Airlines asked me for the additional 2.0 information, I had to unblock to pull it off because 2.1 Facebook -- I guess once you block somebody, it 2.2 won't let you go back and access previous messages. 2.3 So I unblocked to pull out at Southwest Airlines' 2.4 request the additional messages, and then I 25 immediately reblocked her once I had done that.

- So not counting when you unblocked it to comply with the request, when you initially blocked her it was a day or so or two days -- because you said you took a week to decide -- it was several days after you had first viewed the video? correct?

 - Q. Yes.
 - I believe it was the following day. Α.
- But between the time that you viewed the Q. videos and you blocked her, you did not receive any more abortion related messages?
 - No, not within that day. Α.
- Have you heard other flight attendants receiving Facebook Messenger or direct private videos or pictures from Ms. Carter of abortion related material?
 - Α. No, I'm not aware.
- 0. And both as part of your duties as president and also just being a flight attendant, it's not uncommon that you do hear from other flight attendants about various social media or Facebook things that they get from other flight attendants? Isn't that correct?

 - A. Yes.
- 11 Q. Okay. I'm sorry to draw your attention 12 back to Exhibit 9, but did you notice that at the 13 top of both videos there was some typing, some 14 language?
 - A. Yes, I did when I went back and looked at it.
 - Q. Okay. And did you recognize or do you now know that that typing above the picture or the video representation on Exhibit 9 was written by

- It's a piece of it, but I was also referring to even individual conversations I had had with friends and flight attendants over the years who, you know, come to me and ask my opinion on how to handle issues.
- Is it fair to say that your advice when they ask you these questions dealing with the social media and filing complaints was pretty consistent and are reflected in your president's message here?
 - Up to this point, yes. Α.
- Right. Now, if you'd turn to the second 0. page and look at the first full paragraph that begins with "Your Union has been addressing Southwest Airlines' Social Media Policy." Do you see that paragraph?
 - Α. T do.
- Q. Okay. The next sentence talks about the "policy that is both vague and undefined." What were you referring to there?
 - We had seen a number of what the Union Α.

- Α. We had had some cases where individuals were having just conversation back and forth, completely, you know, just on personal nature and then somebody would bring it forward that they were upset about something a coworker had said. again, it was very -- we were not seeing consistency in how Southwest Airlines was investigating the situations and applying consistent discipline in them.
- Okay. It would be the third paragraph, Ο. and you say -- and again, I believe this was written in 2015. Do you want to check the front of the page? Have I got the right date? You said there were certain "Social Media Policy changes we would like to see in the future." What was the nature of those changes you were hoping to get?

- And were you also looking to potentially Q. have some changes in the existing guidelines so they would be more focused on your work group?
- Well, what we were looking for was, as I Α. stated, specific quidelines and rules for the flight attendants separate from just the general Southwest Airlines social media policy.
- Now, the last paragraph, I'm going to read Ο. it into the record so you don't have to read it.

- Okay. And I know you testified on direct the concerns that you had both to yourself for future situations that Ms. Carter might do and to other flight attendants.

And so my question is, why didn't you contact Ms. Carter to see whether this was a mistake, whether she was sorry, whether you could feel convinced that she wouldn't do it or was planning to do it again and that kind of stuff before filing it?

- I believed that at the point that she sent Α. me those videos, including the text that you referenced earlier, that there was no way that I was going to be able to have a constructive conversation with her. And I didn't believe with as upset as I was that there would be any chance that anything productive would come out of that. And the fact that she had been sending me messages for almost two years at that point, I didn't think that would be successful in resolving my concerns.

 - Q. Chris Sullivan? And what is your understanding of the role of the shop steward at a termination fact finding?

And shop steward's role is to make sure that the investigation is, in terms of what happens in the meeting, is handled correctly in that it's explained to the flight attendant why they're there and that it's explained what Southwest Airlines is looking

BY MR. CHAPPELL:

- Q. Okay. You were telling us what this was.
- Some of the flight attendants that I was Α. running with during that election put together a Facebook group. It was a private group to discuss campaign, you know, elections, when we were going to be, you know, out in the bases and where, and it was a way for flight attendants who wanted to help, for us to give them direction.

Some of the flight attendants on that page, you know, were having conversations about other flight attendants, other candidates. Some of those screenshots got leaked from the private group and were posted on other group pages. And flight attendants were upset that, you know, there were conversations of "I don't like this person," you know, "Can you believe, you know, he did this," those kind of things.

And so I had made the post on behalf of the group. There were seven flight attendants, six other flight attendants that ran with me, and this conversation occurred in that group.

Q. Okay. And basically the six or seven would be what the "Core Team" refers to?

- Q. Well, the question just asks whether there were any complaints filed with the Company. I don't see how that reveals confidential information. I won't ask you the names or anything like that.
- MS. GEHRKE: I'm sorry. Can you repeat the question?

THE REPORTER: "Well, the question just asks whether there were any complaints filed with the Company. I don't see how that reveals confidential information. I won't ask you the names or anything like that."

Now, when Southwest finished its Q. 9 investigation of your complaint on Ms. Carter, were 10 you informed by Southwest of the results of the 11 investigation and your complaint? 12 I -- I was, only at the point -- the -- it 13 was still in discussions, the only time that I was 14 informed, and it was just that it was still in 15 discussions on settlements. 16 Were you at some point informed by 17 Southwest employees, management, I'm not talking 18 about Union people telling you, but Southwest that 19 Ms. Carter had been terminated? 2.0 Α. Yes. 13 And you testified earlier regarding your Ο. 14 statement in this message that there was some 15 concern about inconsistent application of the social 16 media policy and how the Company was applying it 17 subjectively. Is that right? 18 Α. Yes.

- Are you aware that there was some changes in how the Company began to apply the social media policy in 2016 moving forward because of all the social media issues that were coming up? Would you say there was a change?
- I don't know that I could speak to a Α. change in policy. I know that we were seeing more activity of just more complaints coming forward from our flight attendants and that the conversations on social media were becoming even more negative and more derogatory. And so, you know, that's what we were directly hearing from our flight attendants and my coworkers is just that it was getting worse.

- Q. And do you know if because of all that activity the Company started kind of cracking down in terms of discipline being imposed? Did you observe a tighter enforcement?
- A. Yes, we did. There was a period of time after this in 2015, what I spoke to in here, where we were having conversations. And then we didn't see cases coming through for a little while.

And then in 2016 we started seeing discipline being issued again and more consistently by Southwest Airlines for conversations that were taking place on social media, although the discipline issued wasn't always specifically around the social media policy. There was workplace violence, harassment, and other things that we were seeing cited, but where the conversations started were via Facebook.

 - Q. And did you -- were you inflight supervisor at the time that she was there?
- 5 A. Yes. I was actually her supervisor at the 6 time.
 - Q. Did you have much interaction with Ms. Carter while you were her supervisor?
 - A. Not much. We would talk occasionally. It was always very friendly, but outside of that not really.
 - Q. Did you have any observations regarding Ms. Carter's work schedule?
 - A. We used to see her more frequently, but the last few years she hasn't flown a whole lot so we don't see her. I actually hadn't seen her in almost probably three years.
 - Q. And was she allowed under the collective bargaining agreement to kind of give away her shifts?
 - A. Yes. She gave away most of her shifts. I believe she worked a total of maybe approximately eight shifts over like the last two and a half, three years. So she has the provision to basically what we call trading away down to zero under the

 - A. I did, yes.
 - Q. Okay. Walk us through kind of generally what you remember discussing with Ms. Carter at the meeting with respect to the messages. How did you start the meeting?
 - A. Well, Ed opened the meeting and he explained why we were there. And after introductions from everybody that was present, he opened the meeting by basically asking Charlene if she had sent the messages and why.

And Charlene explained her stance on it as to why she sent those messages, and she was very passionate about the reasons why she sent them. She stated she's a Christian, she's conservative, she's pro-life, and she felt that the Union was not representing her beliefs properly and that they didn't stand for the entire membership.

She was also very upset with the Union president for attending the women's march in D.C. and felt that that was against her religious beliefs for what they were marching for there and that she disagreed with the reasons why they were marching.

And we talked about Facebook posts that had been sent to Audrey Stone, the Union president. Since 2015 there had been a series of messages sent to Audrey, but specifically the reason we were there was to discuss the most recent posts which was a picture — or, I'm sorry, videos of what appeared to be an aborted child with a message underneath that was directed to Audrey which was sent to her in a personal message on Facebook.

- Q. Okay. Did I hear you correctly that Ms. Carter admitted that she had sent those messages to Ms. Carter -- to Ms. Stone regarding abortion?
 - A. Yes, she did.
- Q. Did she admit that the videos were graphic?
 - A. Yes, she did.
- Q. Did you actually show her the pictures of the two videos to identify what had been turned in to the Company?

We're not going to play it again or anything like that. I don't think there's any dispute that those were the videos.

Did the Company ask her if she had also posted those videos on her public Facebook page?

We discussed that in the meeting as Α. Yes. well, that those same videos were posted on her time line, which is public to anybody to see in Charlene's case including people she might be friends with that are Southwest Airlines employees or customers of Southwest Airlines. Or just anybody who was running a search for anything that was hashtagged in that video, they could see that on her page.

And we discussed in addition to that other photographs that she had posted on her page of her at work in her flight attendant uniform and some political statements that she had posted with her flight attendant wings to establish that she had made a nexus to the airline by having those identifiable uniform pictures of her on her page.

 - The one with the headdresses is not in here, but we did discuss that photo at the meeting.
 - The vagina headdress one was part Q. Okav. of the private Messenger photos that she had sent to Ms. Stone?
 - Α. Yes.
 - Did Ms. Carter seem to understand during the fact finding meeting why her messages to Ms. Stone and on her posts on her public Facebook page, why they were a problem?
 - No, she didn't. And she felt that because she did not support the cause that the Union was representing at the women's march and that she was not a Union supporter that she had the right to voice these concerns to Audrey directly. And she kept referring to her belief system as a Christian, that she had the right to do so based off of her values.

And at one point in the meeting I clarified with her that it's not her belief system

1 or her problem with the Union that is the problem, 2 it's not the complaining about those things that's 3 the problem. You have the right to have those 4 views. You have the right to complain about those 5

It's the manner in which she chose to 6 express those views to Audrey in those messages.

That was the reason that we were in there for the meeting, because of the graphic nature and really egregious nature of what those posts were.

- Did Ms. Carter explain to you why 0. Ms. Stone going to the women's march in Washington, D.C., was a problem for her?
- Yes. There were several reasons, but Α. primarily because of the abortion issue. Charlene at the beginning of the meeting told us that's a very near and dear cause to her heart because when she was younger she had an abortion and she realized that it was wrong. And what she learned, what actually went into that, she felt very remorseful about that and wanted to get the word out as much as she could to educate on what actually happens during an abortion.

So when she saw pictures of Audrey at the women's march, she associated that with Audrey being pro-choice, which was very upsetting for Charlene, and assumed that Audrey's belief system was also pro-abortion and felt that the pink knit hats that they wore were a representation of supporting abortion and pro-choice rights, and she had a big issue with them marching next to Planned Parenthood. So she felt that sending those videos to Audrey was a way to let Audrey know that this is what you were there supporting, you were supporting this murder. And she actually called her a murderer in some of those messages.

- Did you ask Ms. Carter if she actually knew for a fact what Ms. Stone's views were on abortion?
- T did. She said that she did not know Α. what her views were on abortion, and she stated that part of why she sent those messages to Audrey was to open dialogue with her to talk to her. But from reviewing the posts, there was nothing about them that really inspired an open dialogue. They were more like statements with lots of exclamation points and kind of like hateful-sounding things.

And so I asked Mrs. Carter if she felt that the nature of that post opened dialogue. She felt that it did. And I also asked her why she didn't just ask Audrey what her beliefs were on abortion instead of sending her this awful, graphic video. It was very disturbing. And she didn't really have a response for that, so --

- Q. Did Ms. Carter say anything during the fact finding meeting about being upset that she was not allowed to go with the women's committee to the women's march?
- A. Yes. She repeatedly told us that she was uninvited to the women's march. And so through the meeting we were able to clarify that Charlene had been turned away from being able to march and it was not the Union that turned her away, it was the organizers of the march. And she felt that her rights were being violated as a pro-lifer, that she was being turned away from that march because of her beliefs being pro-life.

And really what she honed in on on that meeting was "I was not allowed to march at this meeting but my Union was allowed to march at this" -- excuse me, not meeting but women's march -- "but my Union was allowed to march at this march and how come they didn't extend this invitation to all flight attendants. I didn't get invited. I got uninvited."

something that bothered her that she mentioned guite often throughout the meeting, but it wasn't -- we clarified that it was not the Union that uninvited her, because it was kind of unclear to us through the way she was making her statements. It was the organizers of the march, so -- but she felt that there was a connection there because the Union was there, Union representatives were there marching in the march.

- Were the organizers of the march Southwest Q. emplovees?
- Α. No, they were not. They were just participants.
- Did Ms. Carter say anything during the fact finding meeting regarding the need to even have this women's march?
- She stated she did not agree with the women's march because it did not represent -- the way she stated it was that she felt that women were treated fairly, that there was not an issue with unequal pay for women or like sexual harassment issues and that there was equality. So she didn't believe there was a need to have this march because in her viewpoint we as women were treated the same as men.

And so that was kind of part also of why she disagreed with the march in addition to being pro-life, and there was a lot of pro-choice rights being, like, pushed up at that march.

Q. Did it come up during the fact finding meeting that Ms. Carter was an objector and had opted out of the Union?

- A. Yes, she told us kind of towards the end of the meeting that she was an opter-outer, is how she phrased it, of the Union and that she supported the right-to-work organization and did not believe in the Union's cause basically and had kind of a longstanding disagreement with the Union. And she felt that she was being turned in by the Union president because of being an opter-outer and not because the posts were actually disturbing.
- Q. Did she mention anything during the fact finding meeting regarding her disagreements over how the Union was spending dues money?
- A. Yes. She talked about that she did not want her Union dues going to a cause that she did not support and that that was -- I believe one of the posts said something about the hardworking -- like the money on Audrey's back, the hardworking money from the Union on her back being at these

- And at that point did -- well, first of all, did Ms. Carter have Union representation during the fact finding meeting?
 - She did, yes. Α.
 - And who was that? Q.
- Chris Sullivan. Α.
- And at that point in the meeting, did Ο. Mr. Sullivan speak up about the kind of dues issue and how money was being spent?
- Α. He did. He clarified what a objector is and basically that they have a partial amount of their fees refunded. And then he clarified where the money actually does and doesn't go to if you're an objector, so you can't participate in like elections, and he just clarified for us how that money is divided as an objector.

She felt that they were from Audrey personally, and she said, "Audrey keeps sending me these things and I don't want to get these things."

- Did you ask her directly why she was sending her so many posts?
- I don't recall if I asked her that directly. I believe that the ER investigator did ask her why she continued to send these repeated posts after she had not been getting any responses, and her response was, "They're all on different issues and I just wanted to get dialogue going."
- And at some point did the Union rep on at Ο. least one occasion pull her out of the room?

- Was there a discussion during the fact 0. finding meeting as to whether or not Ms. Carter had ever attempted to contact Ms. Stone via e-mail or phone or some other method of contact since she wasn't getting a response on Facebook Messenger?

but never spoke with Audrey. So she had called for different issues, not to speak with Audrey directly.

- Q. Was Ms. Carter apologetic at all regarding her conduct towards Ms. Stone?

And that was something that kind of stood out to me as interesting at the meeting because throughout the it was a lengthy meeting, and throughout the whole discussion there was never any remorse that this caused another individual some great anxiety and pain watching those videos, and it was more about her dislike for the Union and how she felt justified sending this to her because of her personal belief system.

And it didn't appear that she made the connection that this actually hurt another human being in kind of a deep way. And so there was never like any regret or remorse or apology offered for that behavior.

1 you learned during the investigation, the fact 2 finding meeting and the documents you had reviewed?

Α. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss those videos. And based off of everything that I had learned in the meeting, I felt it was appropriate to terminate Ms. Carter because it was an egregious violation of the social media policy, the bullying policy, and those policies protect all Southwest employees. It doesn't matter what position you hold or what job you have. policies are designed to encompass the entire workforce.

So Charlene is protected under those just like Audrey is. And disliking or not supporting a cause is okay, but to go to that extent to cross that boundary is not okay. It's not the core values that Southwest is built on, and it also violated several of our policies. And so I did feel that termination was appropriate.

- In coming to that opinion, did you also Q. factor in the public Facebook posts?
- It's damaging to the Southwest brand and the image that Southwest has on these topics or to the public in general.
 - And had you ever seen a similar allegation Q.

               This was the most egregious I had seen.

     So in the Denver base I had not seen it, but this was also the most egregious case that we had in

- I don't believe that it was a -- to my Α. recollection that it was like a double question. Ι believe she answered yes when he asked about -- he made the statement about the videos being graphic and then asked her if she had sent the videos and she replied yes. And I believe she said in agreement that they were graphic.
- So you believe that someone asked her point-blank, "Do you agree that they are graphic"?
- No, it was not a question that was stated that way. It was when Ed was questioning her, he stated, "These are pretty graphic." And I believe that Charlene responded with, "Yes, they are graphic." She agreed that they were graphic.

 - A. Yes.
- Q. Right. And your notes aren't here, at least you're not reviewing them now, correct?
 - A. No, I didn't think I could bring them with me.
 - Q. And it's possible that both your notes and Chris Sullivan's notes may not reflect that she actually said the word "graphic" herself. Isn't that correct?
 - A. That is very possible. Chris was handwriting his notes, and I was typing. And part of why I took the notes in this meeting was I can type very quickly, so it's a more accurate capture of information versus handwriting.

 "If I can help another person from going through the hurt I went through, I will"?
- A. She did make that statement, but not as a reason why she sent those videos to Audrey. She said that's the reason why she was passionate about the abortion topic.
- Q. And didn't she say that in response to the question of why she had posted those videos on her personal Facebook page?

her -- her belief system, her value system. The first thing she said is, "I'm Christian, I'm conservative," and then she followed it up with her experience, her personal experience and wanting to educate on it. But that was not cited as a reason for sending that video to Audrey.

Wasn't she also told that she wasn't Ο. supposed to take sides in political matters and that was a problem for Southwest if they were connected with that?

MS. GEHRKE: Sorry, who?

THE ARBITRATOR: For Southwest.

BY MR. CHAPPELL:

- Wasn't Ms. Carter told that she wasn't supposed to take sides on political matters? I think this was in reference to a screenshot of her supporting Israel.
- Α. That's not what she was told. She told that -- she was told that if she connected her political beliefs to the workplace, that's when it became an issue for Southwest. But taking sides is not an issue for Southwest. It's if you represent that on your Facebook page, for example, in your uniform, that image it creates that Southwest could support that same belief system. So there was no discussion that she shouldn't take sides. We discussed the nexus to the workplace.

- Q. Okay. But when there's a nexus to the workplace, that casts Southwest as taking sides on political issues or supporting one person or another, correct?
- A. It could create that image, yeah, at Southwest.
 - Q. And that's what Southwest is trying to prevent, correct?
 - A. Correct.
 - Q. Okay.
 - A. So she could have posted, you know, like her she had a picture of her wings with a statement about Israel. She could have made that post, but because she had pictures of her with like her uniform and her wings, it created that connection there.
 - Q. Okay. So she also are you aware that either from Ms. Carter or from your investigation that there were newspaper reports about certain flights of Southwest of women going to the women's march being turned pink?
- A. Yes. That was a separate investigation.

 That was handled outside of this case for the same reasons.

- But you are aware? 0.
- Α. Yes. Yeah.
 - And that Southwest officials are quoted as saying that this is what they wanted? I mean, isn't Southwest taking a political stand by letting the lights turn pink?
 - I don't -- I don't think I can accurately Α. answer that question. I don't know what Southwest officials have said about it. But what I can speak to is that situation was addressed for the reason that Southwest stays neutral on political issues.

So although Ms. Carter had the perception that Southwest was supporting that, we didn't, and that's exactly why we don't allow employees to create a nexus to the workplace with their political beliefs, because it creates that belief system and that image even to our own employees that we are supporting a political cause that is not representative. We stay neutral as a company.

9	A. 23 years.
10	Q. And what's your current title?

12	Q. And how long have you held that position?
13	A. Eleven months.
14	Q. Can you briefly give us an overview of
15	your employment history at Southwest.
16	A. Prior to base manager, I was assistant
17	base manager in Phoenix base for since 2012. And

19	for two years. Prior to that I was a supervisor in

- A. And prior to that I was customer service agent for two years.
 - Q. You made your way around the airline then.
- 5 A. Yes.
- Q. Nice. What are some of your primary job responsibilities as base manager in Denver?
- A. I support the Denver base and make sure obviously that all policies, procedures are followed, that the base is running smoothly. I take care of 1,654 flight attendants, and I have a staff of 16 to assist me with that.

The regular duties are just overseeing all investigations that happen in the base and making sure that we follow all policies and procedures as far as that goes.

- Q. Okay. And are you familiar with the grievant, Charlene Carter?
- A. I am.
- Q. How do you know Ms. Carter?
- 21 A. Through this investigation.
- Q. And was Ms. Carter a flight attendant out of the Denver base?
- 24 A. She was.
- Q. Can you tell us your role in the investigation of Ms. Carter and her social media posts.

A. Yes. I received an e-mail from the Las Vegas base manager, and she sent me information that she received from Audrey Stone about some messages that were sent to her and some posts. And I began looking into that issue. I researched it a little bit with employee relations and labor relations and began my investigation.

I set up a fact finding meeting. We did two extensions, I think, because Ms. Carter was out of town, I believe, getting ready for this fact finding. I conducted the fact finding and had employee relations and HRBP on the phone with me during the investigation just to get their input for it.

And finished the investigation material that was presented in the fact finding and things that I had gathered outside of that and made my decision on the discipline involved in this case.

- Q. Okay. So let's back up a little bit a couple of things that you said. You had overall responsibility for the investigation?

labor relations, correct?

- A. Yes.
- Q. And did you have your assistant base manager, Meggan Jones, assist you in any way?
 - A. She did. She assisted me in the fact finding process in the meeting, taking notes for me.
 - Q. And did Ms. Jones also ask questions herself during that meeting?
 - A. She did.
- Q. And who did you work with in labor relations on this investigation?
- 12 A. Maureen Emlet.
 - Q. And what about in employee relations?
 - A. Denise Gutierrez.
 - Q. And did you consult with anyone in the people department?
 - A. I did, with Edie Barnett. She was our HRBP for inflight. Human resource business partner. I'm sorry.
 - Q. Walk me through kind of your standard protocol when you're doing an investigation into employee misconduct.
 - A. If we get information that something could possibly lead to discipline that's egregious or whatever, we look at the case and the information that we have initially and determine whether we want to take that case forward, if we want to call the flight attendant and discuss with them. We make that determination. And once we decide to move forward with it, then we contact the flight attendant, let them know the information that was presented to us and give them the opportunity to contact the Union and set up the meeting for us.

And once that's done, I start collecting information in my investigation, whatever material would be necessary for me to find out all the information necessary, and then we conduct the fact finding meeting. In the meeting we give the flight attendant the opportunity to share their side of the story and give us any information from their perspective that may relate to the information that I received initially.

And once I conduct that meeting, then, as I stated, I get input from in this case labor relations and employee relations, and from their information I determine what the discipline will be.

- Do you determine whether or not there's been violation of Company policy?
 - Α. I do.

1 is, you decide if discipline is appropriate and, if 2 so, what level of discipline?

- Α. Correct, yes.
- And once you decide on an appropriate level of discipline, who do you inform of that decision?
- 7 Α. I would inform my leader, Dave Kissman and 8 Mike Sims, of what I intend to do.
 - And what are their job titles? 0.
 - Dave Kissman is the senior manager of Α. inflight for the western region, and Dave -- I mean, I'm sorry, Mike Sims is the regional director for inflight operations.
 - Q. Okay.
 - Senior director. Sorry.
 - And the purpose of that is just to share with them what you've been doing, what your conclusions are, and see if they have any objection?
 - I share with them to let them know what my Α. decision is so that they're not caught offquard in the future if something -- if it's grieved or it comes down the line later on, just so they're aware of that and ask them, you know, their thoughts on it.

- 2 A. No.
- Q. Have they ever tried to veto your decision?
 - A. No, no. Usually by that point -- well, every time by that point, in my case, I thoroughly investigate it and they're in agreement with what I do.
 - Q. And then at some point is the decision communicated to the grievant and the Union?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. And how is that done?
 - A. I call the Union and the representative that is working the case. They will contact the flight attendant, and on the call we will -- I will render my decision to both the Union and the flight attendant.
 - Q. And then do you confirm in writing what you did?
 - A. Yes. I have a letter that I write up and I send certified mail to the flight attendant the same day that I render.
 - Q. Okay. And did you follow that protocol, that standard protocol in Ms. Carter's case?
 - A. Yes.

1 Ο. Okay. You testified that you kind of 2 figure out what information is necessary for you to 3 go out and kind of uncover in order to determine 4 what happened and render a decision. 5 Α. Yes. 6 Is that right? In Ms. Carter's case what Ο. 7 types of information were you looking for? What did 8 you determine was necessary to kind of figure out 9 before you could decide what to do? 10 I gathered Facebook posts that were in 11 question on this one and also gathered information 12 on whether those posts were related to the Company 13 in any way and if there was enough information to 14 warrant the discipline. I also talked to Audrey on 15 the phone to verify information. 16

- I want to ask you some questions about the fact finding meeting that you had with Ms. Carter. Were you basically running that meeting?

- Q. Did you review Ms. Jones' notes for accuracy after she finished typing them up?
 - A. Yes, absolutely.
 - Q. And were they accurate?
 - A. They were very accurate.
- Q. Do you recall approximately how many pages of notes there were? I mean, was it only one or two pages or was it --
 - A. No, it was probably closer to 12 pages.
 - Q. So they were fairly detailed?
- 11 A. Yes, they were very detailed. She did a good job.
 - Q. During the fact finding meeting with Ms. Carter, did you show her the private Messenger Facebook posts that she had sent to Ms. Stone?
 - A. I did.
 - Q. I think you have a pile of documents there, but I can show you my copy if you want. It's Southwest Exhibit 7.
 - A. Thank you.
 - Q. If you could just take a minute to look at this. Based on the evidence you collected during your investigation and what was discussed with Ms. Carter at the fact finding meeting, does this represent what your understanding is of the private 1 Facebook Messenger posts that she was sent? 2 Α. Yes. 3 Q. And did you question Ms. Carter regarding 4 why she sent these messages? 5 Α. Yes. 6 And what did she say? 0. 7 She said that she was trying to get her 8 message to Audrey and to elicit communication or 9 response from her. 10 Did she specify on what subject matter she Ο. 11 was trying to elicit a response? 12 Abortion topic. 13 Okay. During the fact finding meeting, Ο. 14 did you ask Ms. Carter whether or not she agreed 15 that the Facebook messages were graphic? 16 Α. I did ask her that question. 17 And what was her response? Q. She said, "Yes, I posted these." 18 Α. 19 Did you also review with Ms. Carter the Ο. 2.0 information that you had gathered regarding public 2.1 posts on her Facebook page? 2.2. Α.  - And did you ask her why she had posted 0. these on her public Facebook page?

 - Α. Yes.
 - Q. What did she say?
- She said she's trying to get her message Α. out to everyone in hopes that those that see it will make the decision not to have an abortion possibly.
- Did you ask Ms. Carter or did you explain to Ms. Carter why it was a concern to the Company that she had made these posts on her public Facebook page?
- I showed the pictures of her in Α. I did. uniform on her Facebook page giving her and anyone that would read them information that she's a flight attendant for Southwest Airlines and a nexus to the workplace.

 - Q. And what did you tell her?
 - A. I told her that anybody that had looked at her posts previous to this would know that she was a flight attendant, and once they saw these pictures they could think that the same message she was trying to generate was something that Southwest promoted.
 - Q. Did you guys discuss at all during the fact finding meeting with Ms. Carter the women's march in Washington, D.C.?
 - A. She brought that up in the fact finding, yes.
 - Q. What did she say about that?

- Did she raise the issue of Union dues or 0. the fact that she was an objector?
- Α. She did. She brought that up in the fact finding.
 - What did she say about that? Ο.
- She said that she was a dissenter from the Union and that she did not agree with their use of the money and what it was being spent on, so she did not want to be a part of the Union.
- Did Ms. Carter express disappointment that she was not allowed to attend the march with the women's committee?
- She was upset because she was uninvited to Α. the march, in her words, and that she wanted to participate in it and she was not allowed to.
 - Did she say who had uninvited her?
- Non-Southwest persons that were in charge Α. of the march.
- Did the Company representatives discuss Q. with Ms. Carter during the fact finding meeting the nature of these messages and why Ms. Stone had brought them forth to the Company?

BY MS. GEHRKE:

- Q. Do you remember the question?
- A. She indicated that she had been receiving messages for quite some time and she just let them go, but this one was much worse than any message that she had ever received and it affected her differently.
- Q. During the fact finding meeting, did it come up what Ms. Carter -- what Ms. Stone's -- let me start again.

During the fact finding meeting, did it come up whether Ms. Carter knew what Ms. Stone's beliefs were on abortion?

- A. We asked the question in the meeting, yes.
- Q. And what was her response?
- A. She did not know.
- Q. Did you ask Ms. Carter if she was aware of Ms. Stone's religious affiliation?

- A. We did, and she was not aware of that either.
 - Q. During the meeting did you ask Ms. Carter regarding any other form of communication that she may have had with Ms. Stone outside of Facebook?
 - A. We inquired whether she had tried to communicate with Ms. Stone and had she tried any other avenues to reach out to Ms. Stone to try to communicate with her, and she said no.
 - Q. When you were explaining kind of the Company's concerns regarding both the public and the private Facebook messages, did Ms. Carter seem to understand why the Company was concerned about the messages?
 - A. I indicated to her that this information, even though she was arguing, or not arguing, but showing her displeasure towards the Union and was upset because of the way the Union was using her money or treating her, that there's a difference there because the actual videos that she sent to Ms. Stone was more of a person-to-person type thing and was separate.

And that's something that we take very seriously at Southwest, and I really wanted to get across the point that we need to have a comfortable workplace where people can feel comfortable working and have access to Facebook and those type of things without feeling harassed in any way. And the working relationship is very important to us between our flight attendants, and that's what I was trying to indicate to her.

- Q. Was Ms. Carter apologetic at all for her actions?
- A. At one point when I explained to her that the Company noticed that her Facebook did indicate she was a flight attendant with Southwest Airlines and that I was worried about that showing Southwest in a bad light and possibly painting a picture where people believed that Southwest had the same beliefs that she had, that she seemed like she didn't know that and that she apologized.
- Q. What about with respect to the messages that she had sent Ms. Stone?
- A. She never apologized or seemed regretful for sending those to Ms. Stone.
- Q. Did Ms. Carter ever raise the issue of that she felt that she was not being treated fairly because she was an objector by either the Union or Southwest?
 - A. She brought that up during the meeting and

 - Q. Did she ever claim any retaliation or harassment on Southwest's part?
 - A. No, never.
 - Q. Did she ever raise any concerns that she thought that Southwest was trying to get rid of her because she was an objector?
 - A. No, not the Company.
 - Q. Was Ms. Carter or did Ms. Carter convey during the meeting that she was upset that Ms. Stone had turned her in to the management?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Did she explain why?
 - A. Because flight attendants don't do that to each other is what she told me, they don't turn each other in.

1 as part of that decision, but ultimately you were 2 the decision-maker, correct?

- Α. Yes.
- Can you explain to us why you decided that termination was the appropriate discipline for Ms. Carter's actions?
- Α. When I read through the bullying and hazing policy and our social media policy, it is very explicit in stating what shows as the violation of those. And to the egregiousness of these videos and how they portrayed the fetus and everything in them, that that was egregious enough for termination.
- You just mentioned the two videos. Did the still picture, the still post of the vagina headdress, did that factor into your decision at all?
- The three of those together are inclusive in what I made my decision on, the bullying, hazing, and social media policy. And also, along the same lines, the videos on her Facebook page where it indicated clearly that she was a Southwest flight attendant.
- So both -- all of that together kind of factored into your decision?

- Q. Did you ever consider offering her a 30-day suspension or a lesser form of discipline?

- A. Because, once again, the egregious state of these videos and how awful they were to view.
 - Q. Okay. So once you made your decision to terminate Ms. Carter, I think you testified you ran it by your leaders?
- 11 A. Yes.
- 12 Q. And did they agree with the decision?
- 13 A. They did.
- Q. And then your standard procedure would be to call the Union?
- 16 A. They conference in Charlene, and then I 17 render my decision to all of them.
 - Q. Okay. So that's what happened in this case?
- 20 A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. And then did you follow up with a letter?
- A. I followed up with a certified letter to her home address.

1 incident that we were investigating within the 2 last -- that it was within the last 18 months. This 3 information was from her Facebook page and had 4 previously been on her Facebook page indicating to 5 anybody that was a friend of hers or aware of it 6 that she was a Southwest employee.

- And it may have been put on her Facebook Q. page more than 18 months before the incident in question, right?
 - Α. Possibly.
- Right. And the collective bargaining Ο. agreement says that you are not to use conduct that is outside the 18 months to consider discipline, correct?
 - Α. Yes, as stated here, yes.
- So I am trying to understand how you could Ο. consider these Facebook posts to decide whether she had violated a social media policy in a public -private but public, you know, her own Facebook posts when you didn't know whether they were within the 18-month requirement.
- I wasn't aware of when these were posted on there, but they were just as references that her Facebook page at one time indicated that she was a Southwest employee.

- Q. Let's say that none of those pictures existed. Okay? I'm giving you a hypothetical. So when I say "those pictures," I'm talking about from the third picture to the end of Exhibit 8.
 - A. Okay.
- Q. And again, I'm just talking about the social media policy violation that deals with putting Southwest in a bad light.
 - A. Okay.
- Q. Okay? Would she have violated that policy if all you had were these, the first two pages of Exhibit 8?
- A. If she -- that was just a part of my decision in making it, so the actual -- if you're asking if she violated it with just these, then yes, I could say yes.
- Q. If she did not have any of the pictures that start on page 3 and go to the end of Exhibit 8, how would anyone connect the two postings on her Facebook page with the first two pages with Southwest Airlines?
 - A. They may not be able to do that.
- Q. Okay. And isn't it true that if, at least for the social media policy, if the flight attendant's use of social media cannot be connected to Southwest, it's not a violation on the policy?

- For this small portion of it, that could Α. be true, yes. But overall the answer would be no.
- I'm just asking you about a hypothetical dealing with Exhibit 8 and the social media policy.

Now, you also testified that it was the totality of both her public Facebook postings and her Facebook messaging to Audrey that led you to believe that termination was the appropriate remedy, right?

Correct. Α.

 - Not in this case. Α.
- Okay. So you would have still recommended termination just based on the Messenger postings alone?
- Yes, because of the violation of the policies.
- Now, you looked at her employee -- the personnel files, records to see what kind of an employee she was as part of your investigation and decision-making to recommend termination, correct?
 - Α. Yes.

- Q. And did you see any other kind of investigations, charges, or anything dealing with social media policy violations?
- A. I went back 18 months and I did not see any within the last 18 months. So at the same time she did not work very much during that time, so --
- Q. Okay. But you saw no other violations of anything on Southwest policy in that period?
 - A. No, I did not.
- Q. So this was, as far as you knew, her first and only violation --

I looked at all of the discipline when I was investigating this and getting my material together before I made my decision, and based on the egregiousness of these posts and the personal messages that she sent to Audrey, I made my determination that termination was the correct discipline in this case.

- A Class II gives the range of termination as one of the options --
 - Q. Right.
 - Α. -- for the first violation.
- 14 Almost all of them do, but that's okay. Ο. 15 But you did consider these classes?
 - Α. I did.
 - Where did you think these violations, 0. which of the classes did you think it fell within?
 - Α. My decision was based on the policies that were violated, the bullying, hazing policy and the social media policy.
 - So it's fair to say you didn't really look at these classes and the suggested --

- They don't fit into a class. They're separate from the classes that are listed there in the violations.
- You testified in the direct testimony that 0. you had asked her if the videos were graphic. Do you remember saying that?
 - Yes, I do. Α.

 - Α. Yes.
- Okay. How does saying "Yes, I posted 0. these, " agree with your description that they are graphic?

 - Okay. And have you reviewed your notes to Ο.

Yes, that is true. 20 Q. A. I was hired at Southwest Airlines in 1996 as a flight attendant, served in the flight attendant role for almost 11 years. During that course of that time, I also served as a full-time union officer, TWU Local 556, from 2003 to 2006. 2006 I went back to full-time flying as a flight attendant.

2007 I went into -- I was promoted into inflight management as labor relations manager.

Served as a strategic manager as well during the AirTran acquisition. Promoted to regional director over inflight bases, which manages our flight attendants is the role I currently hold today.

- Q. Okay. And what are your primary job responsibilities as senior director of inflight operations?
- A. We have 15,500 flight attendants, all of which are scattered throughout the United States in ten different domiciles. Those domiciles are managed and the management of those domiciles report up to me, and my job is to ensure quality assurance, quality control, and overall job performance, among other things.

discipline or labor relations?

- I serve as our vice president's Yes. designee as the person who hears step 2 appeals cases pursuant to our collective bargaining agreement, which is Articles 19 and 20.
- Okay. And did I hear you correctly that you testified you used to be a part of Union leadership for TWU Local 556?
 - Α. Correct.
 - What positions did you hold for the Union? Q.
- I was elected by the members at large to serve on the executive board. From there I was appointed as the president -- I mean appointed by the president, excuse me, to serve as the grievance chair and full-time office manager. So from 2003 to 2006 I handled all the grievance issues with our flight attendants.
- So is it fair to say you're fairly well versed in the CBA and labor relations with respect to the flight attendants?
- Α. Yes. I have a better-than-average working knowledge.
 - How often would you say you hear step 2 Ο. appeal?
 - Α. On average anywhere from three to five a 1 month.

- 2 Q. And are you familiar with the grievant,
- 3 | Charlene Carter?
 - A. I am.
- 5 O. How do you know Ms. Carter?
- A. I know Ms. Carter through this grievance process. I knew of her prior to this process or her
- 8 case.

- 9 Q. How did you know of her prior to this
- 10 process?
- 11 A. Charlene is a flight -- was a flight
- 12 attendant for Southwest Airlines, and just in the
- course of our business we just tend to know who
- 14 people are.
- 15 Q. Okay. Were you involved at all in the
- 16 | Company's investigation or fact finding meeting with
- 17 respect to Ms. Carter?
- 18 A. I was not.
- 19 Q. Did Ed Schneider inform you of his

- 21 A. I was informed, correct.
- Q. And did you inform Mr. Schneider whether decision to terminate Ms. Carter's employment, did you have an opinion or enough knowledge about the case to know whether termination was appropriate?

- Α. I did not.
- At some point you learned the details of Q. her case?
 - Α. Correct.
 - When did that occur? 0.
- Under the grievance process when Charlene Α. filed her grievance, there's the step 2 process that And from there I was provided by our labor relations team the file, the contents of all the information there, and then plus I conducted a meeting with Charlene.
- Okay. So did you review the contents of the labor relations file prior to the step 2 meeting with Charlene?
 - Α. I did.
- And prior to the meeting with Charlene, after just reviewing the file, had you formed an opinion yet as to the propriety of the termination?
- I realized it was a serious issue, but I had no final, conclusive thoughts as to which way it ultimately should be disposed.
 - And what is the real purpose of a step 2 Ο.

A. Well, the step 2 provides an opportunity for a leader at Southwest Airlines to further review a case, to look for additional facts that may not have been presented during fact finding, and also to ensure that the Company policies, procedures, et cetera were ultimately held up.

So my job was just to provide another review and make a decision whether or not we should make an adjustment on her case.

- Q. And sometimes during the step 2 process, do you ever make an adjustment to the termination that was levied based on reasons other than disagreeing with the decision on the merits?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. What would be some of the reasons why you might change a -- the discipline imposed even if you agreed with the merits?
- A. Well, in any type of settlement offer, we also want to review the practicality of whether it would be prudent to go forward. You know, there's legal costs to consider, there's these type of hearings that must consider, and sometimes it's just more practical to offer settlement even if there is just cause.

1 0. Okay. And we'll ask you in a little bit 2 about this specific case. 3 Α. Okay. 4 I just wanted to get your overall 5 philosophy on that. Α. 6 Okay. 7 Now, you mentioned there was a step 2 Q. 8 hearing with Ms. Carter. 9 Α. Yes. 10 And did she have Union representation Q. 11 present? 12 She did. Α. 13 Who else was at that meeting? Ο. 14 Along with me was Melissa Burdine, who is Α. 15 our labor relations manager who served as my note 16 taker and also case manager, if you will, on this. 17 Q. Is this Melissa? 18 Α. And she is in the room, yes. 19 Just so we're clear. Okay. So it's 0. 20 yourself, Melissa Burdine, Ms. Carter, and the Union 2.1 rep? 2.2. Α. There was two representatives --2.3 Q. I'm sorry. 2.4 Α. -- from TWU Local 556. One, Ms. Becky

Parker, and the other was Beth Ross. And then they also had somebody there on their behalf taking notes.

- Q. Okay. And you said Ms. Burdine served as the official note taker for the Company?
 - A. Correct.

2.1

2.2

2.3

- Q. Okay. Can you kind of walk us through an overview of what occurred during the meeting. I assume you started off the meeting. What's your typical practice, and what did you do in this case?
- A. Typical practice is I have a pretty standard opening that I use consistently, and I brought the grievant up to date of what this was about from the Company point of view, told her that this was her opportunity to discuss this case further, I would ask questions, and there's three possible outcomes from this: I could settle the case, I could deny the grievance at this level, or I could accept it as the Union wishes.

And then I ask if there's any questions about the process, also remind them that it's a ten day, business day for the contract for me to make the decision. So it's mainly the administrative side kind of just an opening, and then I always ask a question right after that is, "Do you feel or why do you feel that this termination was unjust."

- And did you ask that specific question in 1 Q. 2 this meeting with Ms. Carter?

 - And what was her response?
 - Ms. Carter began to discuss she is in Α. dispute with Transport Workers Union Local 556 and she believed that the Company should not be involved in this dispute and fully admitted to sending the messages to the complainant. And then we went from there.
 - Let's go over a couple of things 0. Okav. you just said.
 - Α. Okay.
 - What did -- I don't know if these were her words or your words --
 - Okay. Α.
 - -- that she was in dispute with Local 556. Were those her words or your words, or what do you mean by that?
 - Α. Well, she is engaged in a recall effort of the Local 556 officers. So I'm not sure if she used the word "dispute," but it was clear to me that she believed that this was an issue over and beyond the actual Company rule violations.

 - Α. Yes. None of that was in dispute.
 - Did -- tell me anything else you remember 0. being discussed specifically at the step 2 hearing. Were you asking questions, or was she kind of talking?
 - It was a dialogue. I asked questions. Α. She also wanted to present information that she felt was relevant to this case, so she had documentation from the AFL-CIO. She had documentation from TWU International, just those type of things that she

> She also said that she wanted her job back. She also said that she was saddened that she was no longer employed and it meant everything to her to work at Southwest Airlines and that as a long-term employee she wanted to have a second chance.

- And did you believe her? Did she seem 0. sincere?
 - At the time? Α.
- 11 O. Yes.
- Yes, I did. 12 Α.
- 13 Okay. Did you ask her why she sent those Q. 14 messages to Ms. Stone?
- 15 Α. I did.
- 16 And what was her response? Ο.
- 17 She again was referencing the ongoing 18 recall effort and the dispute. She had been trying 19 to reach Ms. Stone on issues that were important to 2.0 And then when this women's march that took her. 2.1 place during the Trump inauguration took place, she 2.2. felt that she was in disagreement with Audrey's 23 participation on behalf of Transport Workers Local 24 556, so that was why she was communicating with 25 Audrey that she was in disagreement.

1 So am I correct that based on what she was 2 telling you, it was both kind of the political 3 abortion issues and the Union issues and how money's 4 being spent --5 Α. Uh-huh. 6 -- were the reasons she kind of conveyed Ο. 7 to you? 8 Α. Correct. She's very well versed in the 9 pro-life movement. It's a very passionate subject 10 to her as well as her religious beliefs and also 11 that she was someone who was a dissenter from the 12 Union and felt at the time that moneys that she was 13 paying to the Union were being used to support an 14 event and a cause that she did not support.

- Did you speak at all to Ms. Stone Q. regarding the step 2 hearing?
- 17 Α. No.

15

- 18 Was she part of the step 2 hearing? Q.
- 19 Α. No.
- 2.0 Q. So you didn't have any input as to
- Ms. Stone's perspective on this? 2.1
- 2.2. Α. No.
- 2.3 Just Ms. Carter. Q.

- And did she specify any names or provide Ο. any examples?
- Yes, she gave me some names of other Α. flight attendants that she knew of that she believed were getting better treatment than she or her

1 colleagues or cohorts that were Union dissenters. 2 And did you recognize those names? 0. 3 Α. Yes. 4 And were you familiar with those people's 5 cases? 6 Yes. Α. Had you heard the step 2 hearing on some 7 Q. of them or all of them? 8 Most, if not all, I heard the step 2. 9 Α. 10 And so when she tells you that, did you 0. 11 have an opinion as to whether or not there was any 12 truth to that? 13 I had an opinion. Α. 14 What was that? Ο. 15 I felt that she may not know the entire Α. 16 circumstances surrounding their individual cases. 17 So did you feel that the Company was 18 retaliating against Ms. Carter? 19 Α. No. 2.0 Q. Did you feel that the Union was 2.1 retaliating against Ms. Carter? 2.2. I didn't have an opinion on that. Α. 2.3 Did Ms. Carter say anything negative about 0. 2.4 the Company during the step 2 hearing? 25 Α. No.

- Q. In fact, she asked you to give her her job back, right?
 - A. No, she went ahead and asked me to reinstate her because she loves Southwest Airlines, she loved the flight attendant profession, she loved her job, and she loved the fact that she served Southwest for 20 years.
 - Q. Okay. Did you render a decision during the hearing?
 - A. No.
 - Q. You went back and reviewed the documentation she provided you?
 - A. That is correct.
 - Q. And you said you had ten days to render a decision?
 - A. Yes, and I took the entire ten days.
- Q. Did you consult with anybody in coming up with your decision?
 - A. I consulted with Melissa Burdine and some of her colleagues.
 - Q. Okay. And ultimately what was your decision after the step 2 hearing?
 - A. My decision was to offer a settlement.
- Q. And why did you decide to offer a settlement?

- A. Well, I believe Southwest Airlines had just cause to terminate her employment. And at the time I thought that it would be practical or it would be a practical solution to offer reinstatement, and I did it out of practicality.
- Q. Did the fact that the complainant was the Union president, Ms. Stone, factor into your decision at all?
- A. It factored into the practical side of exposing a fellow Southwest Airlines employee to the aftermath of a hearing such as this or potential court cases. I thought it would be practical, in the best interest of the Company at the time, although we had just cause, to go ahead and offer settlement.
- Q. Okay. So what was the settlement offer that you made to Ms. Carter?
- A. The settlement offer was to convert the termination to a 30-day suspension along with a signature for a last chance agreement that stated that the last chance agreement would be in effect for 24 months and that Ms. Carter agreed to cease these type of activities when it involved another Southwest Airlines employee and to -- well, long story short, behave herself.

 - Q. Okay. And what was the response that you received from Ms. Carter regarding the offer?
 - A. I received a e-mail notification from her Union representative that she was declining to accept the offer.
 - Q. Okay. If you would look at Joint Exhibit 2, please. And probably a little over halfway through the packet there's this letter here that's attached. Well, let's go to this page.

- A. On page 10, no. My signature's not on there, but someone did sign on my behalf.
- Q. Okay. So if you look down near the bottom of that page, is this the area designated for the step 2 response?
- A. Yes. If you just look down bottom of the page, there's a number 2 with a circle around it, and that is where we write in our decision after the step 2 hearing.
- Q. Okay. And it indicates here that you decided to offer a settlement, correct?
 - A. Correct.
- Q. And then it says "See attached." So if you look at the next two pages, actually more than that, next six pages, there is a letter on Southwest letterhead from Ms. Burdine to Beth Ross, the grievance specialist for TWU Local 556.

Did you see this letter before it was mailed out?

What is -- from your perspective and your Ο. being both in the Union and now high management with Southwest, my question goes to what you understand to be Southwest's position in getting involved if there's disputes within the Union membership. What's management's position on that? Traditionally Southwest Airlines does not

- get involved in Union disputes. However, in this instant case when it crossed into the line of our harassment policy, social media policy, we were compelled to get into this because this was not a Union case per se as much as it was an employee versus an employee case.

 - A. Yeah.
 - Q. And that is the language -- what is your understanding of the paragraph and sentences below the picture, who wrote those?
 - A. I'm not really following the question.

 - A. Give me a minute to look at it. Yeah, it appears that Ms. Carter wrote that.

My question is, did you understand that when you are sharing already-existing video or picture or post on Facebook through Messenger, you are given the option to write something if you want at the top of the photo or video that you're showing, but comments following a little icon, they are they go with it but they come from someone else?

of a shop steward are.

- Q. Okay. And are there special duties that the Union steward during fact finding proceedings do? Do you have special responsibilities?
- A. So a shop steward would be responsible for taking notes during the meeting and also participating in the meeting. So you kind of have two jobs. You've got to listen and participate in the meeting at the same time while you're taking the notes of what's going on.
- Q. And how long have you been a shop steward for?
 - A. About 12 years.
- Q. And approximately how many fact finding sessions have you represented a flight attendant for and taken notes?
- A. Probably a hundred to 150, over, quite a few.

flight attendant Charlene Carter?

So in this case I remember I think it was a friend of Charlene asking, hey, my friend has a fact finding, would you be willing to be her representative. And I was like, okay, sure.

- And what did you do to prepare for a fact Ο. finding?
- Usually I would talk to the individual, ask them kind of, you know, what's this about, do you know what it's about. Sometimes they do, sometimes they don't. Get as much information as you can at the time. And then would also speak to the Union representative. Usually there's somebody in the grievance staff that has been assigned that case. And then between the two of them get as much information as you can. Sometimes it involves a 1 customer letter, you know, whatever information is 2 out there. And, like I said, sometimes there's more 3 information than others.

- And I'm talking now just generally. As you prepare or before you go to the fact finding, do you have any interaction with the Company or Company officials about what's going to happen or the reason for it, anything like that?
- Well, sometimes there might be a request Α. for clarification. Like if -- maybe there isn't a lot of information and maybe they've asked the flight attendant to write an irregularity report but the flight attendant doesn't have anything to write, you know, he didn't present a customer letter, he didn't present a complaint, you're just asking me for an irregularity report and I'm not sure why. So they may be like, hey, what is it you want them to write about.

But otherwise, the only other communication would be maybe just on the scheduling side of, hey, okay, let's try to do it on Monday or -- especially if you're requested, sometimes they already have a meeting set on a certain day and time and maybe you can't do that but you said I can do it but how about Monday at 2:00 or something. there's that conversation, but that's about it.

- Okay. Have any of these, outside of Ms. Carter's fact finding, the hundred or more that you have participated in over the years you've been a shop steward, have any of them involved complaints by other flight attendants that the flight attendant that you're representing has violated the social media policy?
 - Α. Yes.
 - Approximately how many? Q.
- For a violation of social media policy Α. between flight attendants, probably only three or four.
- Okay. What about a violation by one 0. flight attendant against the flight attendant that you're serving as the shop steward for the bullying and hazing policy?
- Α. Probably the same amount, three or four, not very many. There's usually more of a conflict between the flight attendants like maybe whether it's a procedure or something like that. That's often the problem or issue that comes up between flight attendants.
- Okay. And then the last question, similar Q. question about a violation filed by one flight attendant against the flight attendant you're the shop steward for for a violation of harassment, sexual harassment policy.

- Α. One.
- Okay. In those type of violations, Q. One. at the fact finding do you learn what the complaint is of the flight attendant that asks the Company to investigate the possible violation?
- Yeah, it's common for -- if you're in a Α. meeting, whether it's prior to that that the flight attendant is informed of why they're being brought in, whether it's a customer -- usually if it's a customer complaint letter, you receive the letter ahead of time, which then you're asked to then write an irregularity report based on that letter. So you have the information. You kind of say, well, okay, this happened or it didn't happen, whatever, depending on the situation.

Then if it's a complaint from another employee or it could be even a supervisor or something like that, then usually that is read during the meeting at some point where they would say this is the complaint, this is what this person is saying, whether it's a policy violation or whether it's a harassment, whatever, this is the complaint.

2.2

And with the exception of a management person like a supervisor, whatever, the names are always taken out, like they never say "Suzi said this" or whatever. I've only ever had it if supervisor Bob saw you do something or is saying that you violated a safety thing or something like that. Otherwise, the names are taken out.

- Q. Right. But without the names being given, the complaint that the one flight attendant made to management is usually read to the other one as part of the fact finding?
- A. Yes. There's always in there somewhere is, "This is the complaint we received." It's usually like, "Okay, I'm going to read this irregularity report or I'm going to read this letter to you and then I'm going to ask you questions about that specific complaint or violation."
- Q. Now, let's draw your attention to your being the shop steward for Charlene Carter at the fact finding that was held. Do you remember approximately when that meeting was held?
- A. I'd have to look at the notes for the exact date, but probably about six months ago, I think.

 - Yes. Α.
 - And I believe you already testified to Q. this, but I just want to make it clear. Was that part of your duties as the TWU's shop steward to take those notes?
 - Α. Yes.
 - And what was the purpose of that duty of Ο. you taking those notes?
 - To the best of my knowledge, there's an Α. agreement that's been in place for some time between the Company and the Union that there wouldn't be a recording of the meetings but there would be note taking and that would be the record of what occurred.

So both sides -- so while I'm taking notes, usually, and it depends on the meeting, there's another person in the room other than the management person that's taking -- that's running the meeting. That other person, that's their job normally is to take the notes for their side.

- A. Correct, that that's why I take the notes, number one, so you have the record of what occurred, but then also that it could be used in any kind of proceeding as it went down the line, whether it's a step 2 or up to arbitration.

MS. GEHRKE: I'm going to object and move to strike. We've already had a ruling on this that these notes on both sides are not admissible. So I don't know the relevance of that testimony.

MR. CHAPPELL: We've also had some dispute on what happened there, and he's just testified that he's been told that one of the reasons he is to take these notes is that they can be used later on.

THE ARBITRATOR: I'll let him explore this line and let's see where it goes. I'm not ruling on whether these notes are admissible. I'm just letting him explore that.

BY MR. CHAPPELL:

- As part of what you've been told in your Ο. duties as a shop steward, the fact that they could be used or may be used in arbitration or system board, does that affect your responsibility on how you take those notes?
- As the shop steward, responsibility is as Α. accurately as possible to reflect what occurred in the meeting because it's the only record that we have since there's no actual recording like audio recording or video recording or anything like that, that notes are the, in a sense, like your official record of what occurred.
- And during Charlene Carter's fact finding Ο. in March of this year, did you take such notes?
 - Α. Yes.
- And did you review them shortly after the Ο. hearing?
 - After the fact finding? Α.
 - Q. Fact finding, yes.
- So as I typed them -- basically it's like Α. anything else, you have to shorthand and write, you know, and then basically you go in and type them up. They have to be written in a certain format where you put the initials and there's kind of a standard

     format that the shop stewards are supposed to follow 2 so that they're kind of all uniform so when the 3 grievance staff or whoever would look at them, 4
     they're not, you know, done ten different ways.
 5
               And you followed all that format that you 6 have been trained to do?
 7
          Α.
               Yes.
 8
               Okay. And when you reviewed them, you -- 0.
 9 in your opinion, they accurately reflected what had 10 gone on in the fact finding?
11
          Α.
               Yes.
12
               MR. CHAPPELL: Because we have an issue, 13
     I'm going to renew my request that his notes be 14 entered into the record here to -- 15
               THE ARBITRATOR: What do you intend to 16 show by the use of his notes?
17
               MR. CHAPPELL: Well, I think they give the 18 full view of what the -- was presented at the fact 19 finding, which is the crucial thing of what the 2.0
     Company knew about this issue that goes to your 2.1
     determination of whether they had just cause.
2.2
               MS. GEHRKE:
                            May I respond?
23
               THE ARBITRATOR: What specifically are you 2.4
     trying to establish through his notes?
25
               MR. CHAPPELL: Well, one of the things that I'm trying to establish through his notes was 1
```

```
 2 exactly that the grievant felt that she was always 3 sending these messages, including the ones in 4 question, to and because of the Union, not on a 5 personal basis. And the back and forth is reflected 6 in here.
 7
               There's also the specific questions asked 8 and the answers that relate to the issue of whether 9
     she admitted that the videos were graphic as opposed 10 to admitting that they were sent. It also shows the 11 various questions of management. There were two 12 times that Mr. Click had to leave the room.
13
               THE WITNESS: Sullivan.
14
               MR. CHAPPELL: I'm sorry, not Mr. Click,
15
     Mr. Sullivan. Thank you for correcting me.
16
               THE WITNESS: Happens a lot actually.
17
                              Their both first names are
               MR. CHAPPELL:
18
     Chris and they've both been in the Union.
19
               And so I just think that it helps to give 2.0
     the total view. You are free to give it what weight 2.1
     you want, but as you also take the testimony of the 2.2
     different sides, you have another document to look at to decide those questions. So that's --
```

MS. GEHRKE: Thank you. I've got a couple of points on this. First of all, in terms of the content of the notes, I think the purposes for which he wants to introduce them or what he's purporting to want to introduce them for, you know, Ms. Carter can testify through her own voice what she said during the fact finding meeting as to the reasons why she sent the messages to Ms. Stone. I'm finding it a little hard to believe that we're even debating whether or not these messages are graphic, and we'll have testimony that she's admitted in writing that

THE ARBITRATOR: Sure.

2.3

And I think we've already established, and if the Union attorney was still here, that there is the practice and a very firm practice that these will not be introduced into notes, the notes will not be introduced into evidence. And I think, you know, he can ask him his questions and get his best recollection the same way we just did with our witnesses. We didn't have the benefit of the notes to go line by line with them.

So I think it's inappropriate to admit them both on the merits and the substance of what they are and in terms of the practice under this collective bargaining agreement.

THE ARBITRATOR: All right. He's here.

they're graphic.

     it's system board or arbitration?
 9
               THE WITNESS: I don't know specifically,

- Q. Do you remember that in asking some of the questions, management prefaced the question with describing the videos as graphic?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. But you didn't understand that her answer to whether she had sent the videos was an affirmative answer that she agreed they were graphic, correct?
 - A. Correct.
- Q. Was there anything -- you discussed earlier about the general nature of how the fact finding occurs and the different things that happen. Was there anything unique about this fact finding that was different from the others?
- A. Well, like I stated earlier, the normal procedure is that somewhere during the meeting that the management representative would either read the complaint or whether it's from a passenger or another flight attendant or employee or a irregularity report, but at no time during the meeting was there any specific complaint read like this is what this person is saying you did and this is why they're feeling harassed or whatever. They didn't there was no it was just questions about the content of what you sent, why did you send it, whatever, but not what was the actual complaint.

- So the e-mail that the flight attendant had sent to management that started the investigation leading to the fact finding was not read?
 - Α. No, it was not.
- Was there anything else different about Q. this fact finding or the subject matter or who was bringing it or anything from the usual ones you deal with?
- Well, there were three management. What was not normal was that all three management people were all participating in the meeting. Usually when you're taking notes, your job is to take notes.

So there was a counsel from the Company that was on the phone. I'd have to look at the notes for a name, but I know it's written in there, and then -- on like a conference call type thing. Then there was the base manager and the assistant base manager, where normally like let's say the manager, usually the senior person would run the meeting and then the other person would be taking notes, but in this case all three were throwing questions and participating.

Did you have to take a break during the Q.

1 fact finding because of this different -- having 2 three people asking questions and things like that?

- Α. Yes. As far as I remember, I took three breaks, which I had never done before.
- And what were the reasons for taking those breaks?
- The first one I know was because I was Α. having a disagreement with the Company counsel on how posts are -- how people can view posts on Facebook. I thought what she was saying was incorrect and I tried to state that and then she basically was not listening to me and said she was asking the flight attendant. And then I said, well, that's fine, but what you're saying is not correct. And, you know, and then eventually I'm like, okay, we need to take a break.
 - And the other two were the same, or were they different reasons?
 - Different reasons but similar where the Α. line of questioning I thought was maybe improper, whatever. Usually, like I said, I've never taken three breaks before. In fact, I've only ever taken one break once, and that's because the person was emotional. But otherwise, it's just a matter of we're having -- we're not getting anywhere here, we

- I think it had more to do with the president, being the president of the Union, not a personal thing.
- And so you didn't see the videos and the messages as a personal thing between two flight attendants?
 - Α. No.
- What is -- as a shop steward and one for over 12 years, if there is a dispute that a or an issue that a flight attendant has with the Union, would you consider that like an internal or a dispute within the Union?
 - Α. Yes.
- Okay. And what is your position as a Union steward on what the Company should do when there is such a dispute within the Union?
- Well, I believe that the Company -- it's Α. kind of like unless it directly affects you, there's a fine line between -- it's like especially at election time for the Union, it's kind of that's a Union matter. The Company seems to say this is a Union matter, we're going to let the Union handle that in-house, and then unless directly requested we're not going to interfere.

 - And was there a reference in that meeting to Audrey's feelings at all about receiving this or -- well, answer that one.
 - Not that I recall directly. The only Α. thing I remember is that towards the end of the meeting, the assistant base manager, Meggan Jones, was making statements. MR. CHAPPELL: I have no other questions.

THE ARBITRATOR: Thank you. Your witness.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. GEHRKE:

- Q. Mr. Sullivan, you testified that you asked for three breaks during the fact finding meeting. The first one you testified that there was some kind of disagreement with the person on the phone from the Company about how posts can be viewed on Facebook and that you called for the break. What was the purpose of taking the break?
- A. Basically at that point I was having an argument with the lawyer about Facebook and how it operates and how posts are presented on Facebook, and she was not allowing me to have the conversation with her. She said she only wanted to speak to the flight attendant directly, but I believe the

- 1 questions that she was asking at the time were
- 2 | improper because that's not how it worked. And I
- 3 | was trying to explain to her how it worked, and she
- 4 didn't want to hear anything about it. So I said,
- 5 okay, well, we're going to take a break for a
- 6 minute.
- 7 Q. Now, you mentioned that the person on the
- 8 phone you thought was a lawyer. Is that right?
- 9 A. Correct.
 - Q. And do you recall that person's name?
- 11 A. I'll tell you if you want me to flip it
- 12 over.

- Q. I'll ask you -- if you don't know off the
- 14 | top of your head, I'll ask you a couple of names.
- 15 A. I don't know. I know the initials are
- 16 D.G. I remember that much.
- Q. Does the name Denise Gutierrez ring a
- 18 | bell?
- 19 A. That sounds good. That's D.G.
- Q. Okay. And if I told you that she was a
- 21 member of the employee relations department at
- 22 | Southwest, does that ring a bell?
- 23 A. That sounds about right.
- Q. And do you know for certain that she was a
- 25 lawyer as opposed to just a member of that department?

- A. I thought I was told that she was like a counsel, you know, like a legal counsel was going to be who was on the phone.
 - O. But you don't know for sure?
 - A. I do not know for sure. I never met her.
- Q. And then you testified that there was a second break because you felt that there was -- it was getting contentious, there wasn't really a lot of progress in the questioning, and you called for a break, correct?
 - A. Correct.
- Q. What was discussed with Ms. Carter during that second break?
 - A. Probably whatever was being -- I don't know specifically. I can't remember specifically what was discussed.
 - Q. Do you remember what you spoke to Ms. Carter about during the first break?
 - A. It was about Facebook and about the posts and how the posts were made to verify that I was correct in how they perceived and how somebody views a post on Facebook.
- Once you post it, if you -- you have to click on something and how many clicks you would have to take to actually view a video, how many clicks you would have to look to see a picture or something like that.

- Q. And were you at the time during the fact finding meeting, were you guys discussing posts that were made to Ms. Carter's public time line?
 - A. I'm sorry. During -- at what point?
- Q. During the fact finding meeting you said there was discussion about how things are viewed on Facebook and the posts. Are you talking about posts on the time line?
- A. I was talking -- my original discussion with whoever this person was was about the posts that she sent or the message that she sent to Audrey Stone, because that was the main thing is if somebody is going to see this picture or these videos, how does that present itself on the Facebook page.
- Q. Okay. So we had two different posts, I believe, that let me ask you. Was the discussion during the fact finding meeting regarding private Facebook Messenger posts to Ms. Stone as well as public Facebook time line posts that Ms. Carter had made with the abortion videos, both?
 - A. I know the first part, yes. The second part, I know that there was a discussion about a post on her page that had to do with Israel, but I don't know about -- I don't recall that specific about posts, that post being on her personal page.

- Do you recall the Company asking her questions regarding abortion videos being on her public Facebook page?
- I can't say for certain a hundred percent Α. without looking at notes or anything like that.
 - And I don't want your notes. Thank you. Q.
 - Α. I'm not going to --

MR. CHAPPELL: Well, I would like him to answer it correctly and we'd like him to refresh his recollection by looking at the notes because they do clearly answer her questions.

THE ARBITRATOR: I think that's appropriate. Arbitration is a search for the truth. It's not to see who wins by a preponderance of the evidence. So if it gives me more information, I don't want the notes, you can look at your notes and see whether or not you recall a discussion about the public posting.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

MR. CHAPPELL: So you can take time to look at that and see if that helps clarify her questions about the break and all of that.

BY MS. GEHRKE:
```

- Q. It may make it easier for you that it was probably around a discussion of her being in uniform and you mentioned the Southwest pin. That was around the discussion.
 - A. Okay.
 - Q. Go ahead and answer if you know.
- A. Okay. So it says that there were there was a question about posts that she had made on her personal page about abortion, and the question was to why why did you post that. And that's where she went into her personal story of what had happened to her.
- Q. Okay. And you mentioned that you had asked for a third break during the fact finding meeting, correct?
 - A. As far as I remember, yes.
- Q. But I don't think we ever heard any testimony as to why you called for that third break.

 Do you recall?
 - A. I don't recall specifically, no.
 - Q. Do you know if that would be reflected in your notes?
 - A. It should be.

- Q. Would you like to look?
- 2 A. Sure.

- Okay. Do you know why you took the third break?
 - A. Yes, because at that point there were questions that -- may I look again to see who asked that question? Sorry.
 - Q. Go ahead.
 - A. Okay. There were repeated the same question was coming up again and again basically by each member of management was asking the same question. It was a question that had been asked and answered, so I just felt like we weren't getting anywhere, and I'm like, this question's been answered before, let's keep moving forward. And they continued to ask the same question, so I took a break.
 - Q. What was the subject matter of those alleged repeat questions?
 - A. So it was the idea is why do you -- why did you think that you should send this message, why did you send this message.

earlier that one of the reasons that this fact finding meeting seemed a little unique to you was because you and Ms. Carter were kind of not given a letter or complaint or anything in writing to kind of detail the nature of why you were there, correct?

- Α. Correct.
- But you understood why you were there Q. before you attended, correct?
 - Α. Yes.
- And you testified earlier that -- let me Ο. ask you this. You testified that you had participated in other harassment fact finding meetings, right?
 - Yes. Α.
- And during that fact finding meeting or meetings, was the harassment complaint actually presented to the grievant or to the accused during that meeting?
- So it's presented in a verbal form. Α. It's never passed across, like you don't get a piece of paper. The only time you ever see like a piece of paper in your hand usually is if it's a customer complaint with the name blacked out or whatever. If it's a irregularity report or something to that effect from another employee, then it's usually read

- Are you aware that the Company usually tries to keep harassment complaints and the origin of the harassment complaints confidential?
- That's why it's always part of any Yes. type of that meeting is always prefaced with the whole procedures on retaliation and all that kind of stuff all throughout the meeting. So that's always in there, but they do read the complaints or state the exact nature of the complaint during the meeting.
- Okay. Now, you testified that sometimes Ο. the Company will not get involved in dispute involving two flight attendants if it feels that it's a Union matter unless they're requested to get involved. Is that right?
 - Correct. Α.
- Would you agree that in this instance 0. Stone did ask the Company to get involved --
 - Α. Yes.
 - -- by filing the complaint? Ο.
- Α. Yes.
- And you testified that you saw the still Ο. shots of the two abortion videos that were kind of -- form the basis of the complaint, correct?

- Yeah, it looked just like that. 1 Α. 2 Did you actually watch the videos during 0. 3 the fact finding meeting? 4 Α. No. 5 Have you ever watched the videos? Q. 6 Α. No. 7 Okay. So you have no basis to say whether Q. 8 or not they were graphic or not? 9 Α. No. 10 And if I heard you correctly, you Ο. 11 testified that your practice is to take handwritten 12 notes during the fact finding meeting? 13 Α. That's the practice of all shop stewards 14 and management during fact findings. 15 And that's what you did in this case, Ο. 16 correct? 17 Α. Yes. 18 And then you'll later go back and kind of Q. 19 take your shorthand and type them up? Is that

1 like that's about seven pages? Does that sound

- A. Yes.
- Q. And did you sometimes ask for the fact finding meeting to pause for a moment so you could catch up on your notes?
- A. I don't remember specifically in this instance, but that's common that somebody may be behind a little bit and then catch up, so yes.
- Q. And you mentioned that Meggan Jones was present during the fact finding meeting, correct?
- A. Yes.
- Q. And she was there primarily as the Company representative to take their notes, correct?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. And was Ms. Jones there taking notes on her computer?
- 18 A. I don't recall, but I know she has in the past.
 - Q. Okay. So as far as you're aware, that's her practice is to take the notes on the computer in realtime?
 - A. Yes.

I don't -- I would 6 disagree. 7 Would you agree they probably include more Q. 8 detail that yours don't? 9 Α. I would not agree, no. 10 How well do you know the Union president, 0. 11 Ms. Audrey Stone?

probably more accurate than yours at seven pages?

- 12 A. I've known her for at least ten years.
- Q. Did you ever work with her out of the Baltimore airport?
- 15 A. Yes. She was a friend of mine from a long time.
 - Q. Did you ever run against Ms. Stone for the Baltimore domicile rep?
- 19 A. No.
- Q. Do you support Ms. Stone as Union president?
- A. In what capacity?
- Q. Are you a supporter of the Union recall effort to kick Ms. Stone and her team out of office?
- 25 A. Did I sign the recall? Yes.

Mr. Sullivan, what did you do to prepare 1 0. 2 for your testimony today? 3 I looked over the notes a little bit on Α. 4 the way here, but that's it. 5 Did you speak to Ms. Carter regarding your 6 testimony? 7 Α. No. 8 Did you speak to Ms. Carter's lawyers 0. 9 regarding your testimony? 10 Just about when I was supposed to be where Α. 11 and when. 12 Did you speak to them about the content of 13 what they'd like you to testify about? 14 Α. No. MS. GEHRKE: No further questions. Thank 15 16 you. 17 MR. CHAPPELL: I have a brief few 18 follow-up if that's okay. 19 THE ARBITRATOR: Sure. 2.0 REDIRECT EXAMINATION 2.1 BY MR. CHAPPELL: 2.2. During your 12 years, have they been 2.3 consistent, consecutive 12 years? 2.4 Α. Yes. 25 And during that time how many Union 0.

1	presidents have there been?
2	A. Three.
3	Q. And is there any way that the fact that
4	you signed the recall petition affected the accuracy
5	of your note taking of this grievance, I mean of
6	this fact finding?
7	A. Absolutely not.
8	Q. And as a Union steward, is it true that
9	you believe that your duties go to the Union, not to
10	a whoever is the current president?
11	A. Correct.
12	Q. And that your duties of being a proper
13	Union steward and following the rules have no effect
14	on who is the president?
15	A. Correct.
16	MR. CHAPPELL: No further questions.

18	BY MS. GEHRKE:
19	Q. I have a question, Mr. Sullivan. Are you

22	MR. CHAPPELL: I that's a

24	THE ARBITRATOR: Actually they didn't. I

MS. GEHRKE: Okay. But he said -- I think he said that it was an oversight, he didn't know if

               THE ARBITRATOR: Didn't observe -- he

               MR. CHAPPELL: I think the arbitrator 13 knows what the motion said.
14
               MS. GEHRKE: My point being the Union 15 would have preferred that he not testify, yet here 16 he is today on behalf of Ms. Carter. So I think 17 that goes to the rele -- his -- where his allegiance

19
               THE WITNESS: I testified because I was

1	PROCEEDINGS
2	8:36 a.m.
3	* * *
4	THE ARBITRATOR: We'll go on the record.
5	This is the second day of our proceeding. It's
6	Friday. I believe it's the 8th, and it's about
7	8:40. We've agreed to start sooner.
8	So the Company has rested subject to
9	rebuttal, and you now may start your case in chief.
10	MR. CHAPPELL: I called one witness
11	yesterday as part of my case.
12	THE ARBITRATOR: Yes, sir.
13	MR. CHAPPELL: This is calling today the
14	grievant, Charlene Carter, and she's here. Was she
15	sworn?
16	THE ARBITRATOR: No, I'm about to do that.
17	Would you raise your right hand.
18	Do you swear that the testimony you're
19	about to give in this arbitration shall be the
20	truth?
21	THE WITNESS: Yes.
22	THE ARBITRATOR: Thank you. All right.
23
25

1	CHARLENE CARTER,
2	having been duly sworn, testified as follows:
3	DIRECT EXAMINATION
4	BY MR. CHAPPELL:
5	Q. Ms. Carter, how long were you employed
6	with Southwest Airlines?
7	A. I've been here right at about 20 years or
8	almost 21 years now. I was hired in 1996.
9	Q. Okay. And what position were you hired
10	into as?
11	A. As a flight attendant.
12	Q. And at the time of your termination, what
13	position did you hold?
14	A. Flight attendant.
15	Q. And did that position change at all in
16	those almost 21 years?
17	A. Things that we do, yes, but not the
18	position.
19	Q. Not the classification or the position?
20	A. Right.
21	Q. Okay. We had testimony yesterday about
22	that over the last couple of years or several months
23	that you have exercised your rights under the
24	collective bargaining agreement to make trip trades
25	or diveaways. Do you know what I mean by trip trades and giveaways?

- Yes, I do. Α.
- Q. And so my question is, what is the reason that you were exercising the right to make trip trades and giveaways over the last couple years?
- Over the last couple of years. Well, first of all, when I started here I had my son and I was able to share custody with his daddy.

When I got married, now I have a daughter and so from the time I had her it's been sporadic that I've had to give away trips due to scheduling and so forth. And now that she's 14 and I'm able to do some other types of things with her as in she gets to stay home, you know, through some of the day on her own for a few hours, I can fly more.

Also, I've also been injured on the airplane and I was going through some back issues as well, but mostly it has to do with also I homeschool my daughter as well, so there's days that I can't -not can't fly, but she's my main priority.

You might have halfway answered this question, but I want it clear, so I'm going to ask If you are reinstated to the Company, will the current -- well, the recent pattern of basically giving away or trading trips continue?

No, because my daughter now is of age to where I can actually either have another neighbor come over and maybe watch her for a little while or, you know, she's now of age where she can stay at home for a couple of hours on her own and I can actually hold turns which is also another great thing. So with her age now, it's a lot easier.

- Okay. At the fact finding -- well, there 0. was a fact finding before you were terminated, correct?
 - Uh-huh. Α.
 - And you remember that fact finding? Q.
 - Yes, sir. Α.
- Okay. And as part of that fact finding, Q. you were shown multiple pictures from your Facebook account that showed you in some form or relationship with Southwest, or that was the allegation. Do you remember that?
 - Right, yes. Α.
- Q. Okay. If you can look at what's called Southwest Company Exhibit No. 8, which has already been in evidence. And I'd like you to start at the third page and just look through to the end. when you're done, I'll follow up my question.
 - Α. Okay. Yeah, those are all mine.

- And are those the pictures that were shown 1 0. 2 to you --3 Α. Yes, sir. 4 -- by the Company people, maybe Ed or 5 others --6 Α. Yes. 7 -- during the fact finding? Okay. Q. 8 When you were shown these pictures, did 9 you have any reaction or any comments to Ed or 10 whoever was showing them to you? 11 I did, because these are pretty old 12 They were posted in the last I'd say pictures. 13 anywhere between three to four years ago, two to 14 three, four years ago. The only recent one would 15 have been this one. 16 And this one would be the last one? 0. 17 That's the last one, that is correct. Α. 18 And just to help the record, at the very Ο.
 - A. "Headed to D.C.," uh-huh. This was in January. I actually went to the inauguration.

bottom it says "Headed to D.C."

- Q. And based on you looking at that picture, do you see anything that someone in the public who came across could identify you as Southwest?
 - A. No.

- Q. Do you see some kind of a -- something around your neck with looks like a rectangle or something kind of in the middle of your body?
 - A. Yeah.
- Q. Okay. That doesn't identify you as a Southwest flight attendant?
- A. The only people that would recognize that at all would be a Southwest employee, because if you look at this picture, and I've even blown it up, you cannot read, see anything on that. Yes, that is my ID. I was in the airport, and that's how I get in and out of the airport and then also, you know, on my flights because I non-rev. But that right there, no, you cannot see it.
- Q. And nowhere with this picture do you identify yourself as being employed by Southwest?
 - A. No.
- Q. And so for a general public person, even if they say, hey, wait a minute, that looks like maybe a flight attendant, is this shape unique to Southwest or would the other airlines have that shape?
 - A. Well, I -- heck, half the people that work for all corporations now have an ID that they wear around their -- with a lanyard and so forth. So, 3

     no.
          I mean, I don't believe anybody would know that 4 that was a Southwest Airlines unless they are an 5 employee or a Union member.
 6
               So at the fact finding you put management 7 on notice that these -- all of these pictures except 8 for the last one were -- 9
               Yes, I did.

- Q. Now, I want you -- after the fact finding, you grieved the -- well, the results of the fact finding was that you received a letter that informed you you were terminated, right?
 - A. Correct.

Yes.

- Q. And you grieved that termination.
- 18 A. Yes, I did.

Α.

- 19 Q. And the grievance goes to a step 2 20 hearing?
- 21 A. That is correct.
- Q. Okay. And that was conducted by Mr. Sims.

- 24 A. Yes.

bring documents and were allowed to make comments and present your case to Mr. Sims, correct?

- A. Correct.
- Q. Okay. I'm going to now refer to Southwest Exhibit 14 and direct your attention to -- starting on page 82. I don't know that I need to say all the zeros before it, but it ends up being 82.

THE ARBITRATOR: That's Company what?

MR. CHAPPELL: 14, one four.

BY MR. CHAPPELL:

- Q. And starting on page 82 and going through -- well, let's say go through 90. Does that represent -- did you bring those pictures?
 - A. I did, yes.
- Q. And those pictures look a little different than -- I mean, there's more than just the picture in what you present. Why is that?
- A. Because the other original ones that they had brought in to the Company or that I was presented with in my fact finding meeting did not have dates on them. And, first of all, somebody had to get onto my Facebook page and actually scroll through and try to find these pictures because it took me awhile to go through my albums just to find some of these.

               Well, the reason that it affected me so
          Α.
2.1
     much is because of my own personal experience.
2.2.
     They -- let me back up. Planned Parenthood was the 23 have dealt with them when I was a young lady. And 25

And it brought back a lot of 7 8 anger in my heart and sadness and --9 What was it that you're not proud of or 0. 10 that you did in the day? 11 I had an abortion. Α. 12 Q. How old were you then? 13 I was 18, 19 years old. Α. 14 And I believe you just testified that Q. 15 brought back anger. Who were you angry at?

- Myself and Planned Parenthood and the Α. whole situation. And --
 - What situation? 0.
- Making a decision to abort a baby. And back then I didn't have the wherewithal, the -- we didn't have social media. We didn't have the things that we now can share. I didn't -- I wasn't educated on what was really happening. And if I would have known what I know now, I would have never, ever done what I did.

And so I have since then over the years, and I'm a Christian, I have had to deal with that within my own personal relationship with God and my family and had to come to terms with it. And I was there on that day when these women were coming in.

- When you say you were there, you mean Washington, D.C.?
- Yes, sir. I went to the inauguration. Α. And the day after the inauguration, all these women were coming in for this march. And I saw the signs, I saw the outfits, I saw the hats, I saw people that were pro-life being ridiculed and told that they were not welcomed at this march.

I had no idea at that time that my Union was at this march. And when I found out on -- I don't even remember what the date it was. being talked about within our Union, because this group of women went, dressed, had signs, and then I later found out they were paid to go to this march or me paid for them to go to this march.

But the rest of my dues support this local and still pay to go to this march, and it it upset me tremendously. It was a slap in the face for me.

The women's committee I understand, but the women's march was an elected event for them. Thev all dressed just like the women that I saw coming into D.C. They sat around a table knitting those pink hats. And I don't know if you know what they are or what the -- it was called the pussy hat project.
 - So how did you discover these videos?

 believe now they also have videos online about the

 - Q. Is that where you got this video?
 - A. No, this is not where I got these videos. This is through others that I am associated with on Facebook that had put this out prior to the women's march knowing that this was coming.
 - Q. When you say "this out," do you mean the videos?
 - A. The videos, yes. And I had come across them, and I had posted them on my Facebook page.
 - Q. Okay.
 - A. Which was my personal page at the time.
 - Q. And my question was, how did you end up sending these videos to Audrey?
 - A. When I found out that our dues paid for this march, my feelings, my emotions, the sickness of everything that I had gone through and the fact that they used our money to go here and represent this, it affected me. And I out of my and I do regret this. I do regret this.

Q. When you say "regret this," what does "this" refer to? You regret what?
```

A. I wished that if it would have upset

Audrey Stone as much as it did -- the reason I sent it to my president is because she is the leader of our Union. It is not because I don't like Audrey Stone. It is because she is the leader and she is the one that elected to take these women to the women's march.

I wanted her to understand if they were going to go and do this what they were absolutely representing us as flight attendants and they were supporting. I believed at the time that if she really cared about what the issues were that I was concerned with over the period of time that she's been our president, that she would at least reach out.

Now, I don't know her political affiliations and I don't know her stance on this, but if you go to this type of event, you cannot tell me as a grown woman that you don't know what you are supporting when it is the main sponsor of this march and the vitriol that was being spewed by the main speakers at this march. So when --

Yes, I did. As a matter of fact, I have Α. let my 14-year-old view these videos as well because I want my daughter to understand what life -- this is life. This is not cells. This is not a bunch of just tissue. This baby right here grew into what I have now as my son and my daughter.

And I don't care what affiliation you are or who you support, but when you take my money and you go to this march and you support this, it went all over me. And I had no one to contact except our main representative about this since she went, she organized it, she planned it, and she was the one who said that our dues money paid for it.

So when you take that on as being the representative of Southwest Airlines flight attendants and our Union, I felt that she needed to know how I felt about her supporting this, not as an individual but as our Union president.

- Q. When you sent this video, and it has the time, so at that time when you pushed send, was it your intent to hurt anyone?
- No, it was not my intent to hurt anyone. And I am sorry that if it affected her the way that it did, but I wished as a woman, since this was a women's march and she went there to protect all

          Α.
               No.
               THE ARBITRATOR: About the pronouns,

19
     Counsel, "they" means who? Who posted that?

 4
               Did you provide that posting to the 5
     Company that the arbitrator asked you about?
               No, I posted her on -- because they also
 7
     made a video, and they posted it on TWU 556 web 8
     page.
 9
               THE ARBITRATOR: Okay. After the break we 10 can verify who actually posted that or not. Okay?
               THE WITNESS: Well, the Union and the
12 women posted this on TWU 556 as well. It was on our 13
     Facebook page at 556. And they showed all the 14

CHAPPELL: 7 14, page 9. And ask you if that was the Ο. 8 evidence that you presented showing that Planned 9 Parenthood was the exclusive, premier sponsor of the 10 Women's March on Washington. 11 Yes. As a matter of fact, this is their 12 web page, the women's march web page. The executive 13 premier sponsor is Planned Parenthood. 14 Now, yesterday Mr. Sims testified and you Ο. 15 were here and heard that at your step 2 grievance 16 that you told him that you were sorry that you had 17 sent these videos to Audrey. Is his testimony 18 correct? 19 Α. Yes, it is.

- Q. Okay. Can you tell us why you told him that you were sorry that you had sent the videos?
- I was sorry that I sent the videos due to the fact that if it upset her personally, that I apologized for that. I sent the videos hoping -and looking back it was a -- I know we all do

1 things. Nobody is not quilty of doing things when 2 emotions come into play. This was a mistake on my 3 part to send it to her like this.

But she has -- when I have e-mailed her in the past or tried to call the Union office, I don't get a response. They treat the people that have opted out basically not very well. I've been called a scab. I've been called a -- that I shouldn't even be a part of this Union. But I still pay local dues and they still spend my money. I was sorry that I sent this video if it upset her personally, but this video was meant for the fact that our Union went and supported this march and I helped pay for it.

- And we had testimony yesterday also about Ο. the fact finding that occurred.
 - Α. Yes.
- And several people who were there 0. testified that you showed no remorse, you did not sorry, something like that. The record can speak for itself. Is that correct that at the fact finding you did not say you were sorry --
 - Α. No, it is not.

- Well, I guess my question then is what changed in your thinking between the fact finding and the step 2, which was about -- I think about three to four weeks, that caused you at step 2 to tell Mr. Sims that you were sorry that you had sent Audrev these videos?
- Well, with anybody that makes a mistake, you sit back and reflect and you sit back and -- and due to the fact that I know that these videos, they are disturbing, but they are fact. And for me, if I can -- if I can say to her and sit down with her and say that I'm sorry, I will, and I would.
- Well, that's really where I was going next. After you told Mr. Sims at the step 2 hearing that you were sorry, did you convey your -- it could be considered as retaliation.

A. -- my second step meeting, when we were in that meeting he told me to not reach out to anybody. He told me not to, it would look like retaliation,

I did say I was sorry in that. He was going to do his investigation. This whole thing, I never would have dreamed my Union president would have taken it to the Company due to the fact that this was Union business. This is nothing to do with Southwest Airlines except that they highlighted Southwest Airlines with their airplane on the web page of 556 through the video.

And then our lights of some of our airplanes were turned pink, and they celebrated that as well. And I have friends that were flying that day that passengers were saying to them that they felt uncomfortable on our airplanes and that they reached out to Southwest Airlines. And Southwest Airlines said to them that our flight attendants have all the ability to celebrate different things.

Do they understand what they were celebrating by turning those lights pink when some of those passengers may have felt very uncomfortable with the fact that they were allowing to celebrate this women's march? But I was told from my Facebook

A. I would love to sit down with her and speak with her about the issues that affect me that our Union does. I would love to apologize for this, for it to have -- that if it affected her.

I would hope that this would bring more of a dialogue with what our Union does with our money and that we could come together as different groups in Southwest Airlines about what we do support, because it's really about our jobs. It's really about our livelihoods. It's about our safety on our airplanes. It's got nothing to do with this. That women's march, they were saying about women's rights with salaries? I make a good salary, or I did. That's my livelihood.

- Q. I have two other questions here relating to the exhibit. First of all, again, looking at Southwest Exhibit No. 9, above the video there is some writing.
- A. Yes.
- Q. And you see that. Okay. Who did that writing?
 - A. I did.

That's yours? 2.1 Α. Yes. 2.2. Q. Below the video there is some more text. 2.3 This is -- this is below the text. Α. 2.4 Q. Okay.

               MR. CHAPPELL: Yeah.
 7
               THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry.

10
               MR. CHAPPELL: Right.

               THE ARBITRATOR: And immediately below the

- Q. You testified that it's your belief that the Union dues were used in order to pay for the women's committee members to go on the trip to Washington, D.C., correct?
 - A. That is correct.
- Q. And you heard testimony yesterday from Ms. Stone that there was a women's committee meeting at the TWU International office. Did you hear that?
 - A. That is correct.
- Q. Do you have any reason to doubt the truth of that?
- 17 A. No.
 - Q. And you understand that the women's committee is considered to be a official, bona fide Union committee that the Union dues pay for?
 - A. Yes. And that was hosted on, I believe, the 19th and possibly the 20th. That was before the march. They were done at that committee at that point.
 - Q. So they were already in town at the time

1 that the women's march was occurring on Saturday, 2 right? 3 Α. They could have left on Friday, but yes, 4 they were still there. 5 But the march was on a Saturday, right? 6 Correct, and we were still paying for Α. 7 their lodging and their transportation on that 8 specific day. 9 What transportation are you referring to?  - A. -- who posted it who actually went and spoke with John Parrott and got the list and the itemized -- how it was spent.
 - Q. And then you saw it on the Facebook page by Ms. Jackson's post?
 - A. There was other flight attendants that had gotten that information from her, because it's our, you know, it was our dues that paid for it. So people were passing that along to the ones that wanted to know, yes. Originally she was the one who put it on, which we have every right to see.
 - O. On Facebook?
 - A. On our local -- yes, on our -- on our flight attendant pages, yes, she did. She did not list it on her own Facebook page, but yes, on our -- to show other flight attendants.
 - Q. Okay. So did you learn about it from looking at it, at Ms. Jackson's post on Facebook or through conversations?

- Did you hear Audrey Stone's testimony Q. yesterday that in fact the women's committee members who attended actually paid for their own food except for the one meal provided during the meeting?

 - A. Voting process, yes.
- Q. And you've kind of taken to Facebook and other social media to express your views to kind of get your voice out since you can't vote and effect change. Is that right?

- And if they don't agree with how Union dues money is spent, what -- isn't the Union members have to effect change primarily by voting for different Union leadership? Isn't that how you kind of create change is by voting them out of office?

- The -- I can always opt back in when Α. voting time comes, and I do elect to do that.
- So you opt in to vote during -- around Q. election time and then you'll opt back out?
- No, I've been out since 2013. Prior to Α. that I was a member in good standing for the entire time, paid my dues, went to my Union meetings, and I voted. My vote twice has been overturned by some of the exact same people. I testified for my first Union president that was removed illegally. it's happened again with Stacy Martin and Chris Click.
- I don't want to get into all that, the 0. Union --
- Α. Okay. But my vote was taken away again, and a lot of other members were upset about that.
 - Okay. That's not my question. Ο.
 - Α. Okay.

THE ARBITRATOR: Let me ask you this question. We're here to determine whether or not the Company had just cause to terminate this flight attendant. What does this line of questions have to do with that?

MS. GEHRKE: Well, she's -- I mean, I think she's raised it as kind of her justification for why she posted these videos and sent these videos to Audrey. I mean, we don't think it's relevant to the issue that is before you in terms of just cause, but we do feel that because she's trying to use that as the justification for her high level of emotion for what she did, we're just trying to get the point across that she chose to opt out and basically take away her vote and her ability to effect change. And so what she's left with is these social media posts and other things that she was doing to complain about how the dues money was spent.

And so my point in kind of going down this line of questioning with her is, you know, we all live in a democracy. We may not agree with the prior administration, the current administration. We have one vote, we vote, and then we have to pay taxes or we have to pay dues even if we don't agree with it and our money is spent how it's spent. That doesn't give us the right to, you know, send threatening messages or, you know, do things that

- Q. Okay. My question is really a yes or no. And I think you're saying you don't think that your conduct in sending those videos to Ms. Stone violated the Company's mission statement. Is that your testimony?
- A. There's kind of a double-edged sword here. This was Union business. If it had this was Union business. I thought that it was okay to still communicate with my Union president. This would just be like e-mail. To me that's what it was like.

As a person and as a woman, as -- regarding this women's march -- let me -- let me -- she treated me with just as much respect as an employee wearing the pink pussy hats representing me at a women's march as I did with sending her my dislike for that.

So what I would hope is that she would have taken her responsibility and her oath that she took as the president of the Union and addressed that with me personally instead of taking it to the Company, okay, under these policies. I would have

THE ARBITRATOR: Okav?

BY MS. GEHRKE:

- All right. And then you quote the Guidelines for Employees workbook. Is that the flight attendant work rules, or what were you quoting there in blue?
- It says, "Employees are responsible for maintaining a positive working environment free of discrimination and harassment and free hos -- and free of hostile, threatening, or intimidating behavior. Any occurrence or apparent occurrence or (sic) discrimination, harassment, intimidation should be reported immediately by the employee to his or her supervisor, employee relations, the general counsel office, or any senior leader. - And Brian Talburt was what you considered Ο. to be a Union supporter?

That right there, you can't even bid unless you click. You can't get back into SWALife at all. You can't fly a trip. It's a mandatory thing. It's not something that you get to go in there and just, you know, read the stuff.

Most flight attendants, and I'm going to be really honest, click that and go on to their business. It is not something that is discussed, you know, very much at all during the work group at all. I mean, as in there's not a class that we go to. You sit there, you read it, and you click on it. Most people are going to sit there, skim it, click it, and go.

And, yes, I don't believe -- I mean, I can -- I'm sorry, but if she's going to send me who to vote for, I do think that's a little evil. I think we all have our own voices and we shouldn't be told who to vote for. And, no, I do not support Hillary Clinton. She has her opinions. I have mine.

MR. CHAPPELL: And I'm going to object if we keep going here. This seems far afield for cross-examination from her direct testimony unless she's trying to impeach her testimony or something, but these matters that she just said was not part of either her or what she was told she was being discharged for.

THE ARBITRATOR: Well, part of the problem is it's such a politically charged subject that

That should have been the way it is instead of turning people in and hurting their careers and hurting their livelihoods. I would have never done this to Audrey.

- Did you ever ask Audrey to sit down with the two of you or with Mike Sims to have a dialogue?
- By that point when I went to my second Α. step meeting, I was told not to contact anybody.
 - I'm not limiting it to after that. Ο.

1 Α. No, I didn't, I didn't, and that's my 2 mistake. And like I said, I take full 3 responsibility of that. 4 All right. I want to ask you a little bit 5 about back to the step 2. Mr. Sims testified 6 yesterday that even though he felt that there was just cause to terminate, he decided for practical 7 8 reasons to offer you reinstatement. And you 9 received an offer of reinstatement, correct? 10 I did. Α. 11 And you turned that offer down, correct? 0. 12 Yes, I did. Α. 13 Okay. Why did you turn it down? Q. 14 There are too many provisions within this. Α. 15 And I'm not even sure where it's at. 16 Where is it, Milton, the --17 Well, I'm not asking about the particular 0. 18 document. Just, you know, from your own --19 First of all --Α. 2.0 -- recollection, why did you turn it down? Q. 2.1 Α. -- it silences my voice. 2.2. Q. How does it silence your voice? 23 Α.  - Q. Because of the restrictions of the content you could put on social media?
 - A. It -- I wasn't supposed to speak about any of it. It's not just this --

THE ARBITRATOR: Are you talking about the confidentiality provision?

THE WITNESS: Yes, yes.

BY MS. GEHRKE:

- Q. So the terms of the settlement would have been confidential? Is that what you're saying?
- A. No. I don't mind that the terms are confidential except the fact that you can't go out and speak about what happened to you so that you can actually talk to other flight attendants and say this is -- and get the word out.

There's so many provisions in there as well. I don't think personally, okay, this is just me, I don't think that termination, first of all, fit the punishment. I've never been in trouble at Southwest.

Q. Okay. My question is just why you turned down the last chance agreement, if there was certain terms in it that --

1 Α. Yes. There was a 24-month letter that was 2 supposed to be put in my file. Basically if I 3 sneezed wrong on the airplane, I would have been 4 terminated. It obviously goes against our CBA. 5 The --6 What do you mean by that? Ο. 7 The 18-month -- because they can only go Α. 8 up to 18 months, and they were wanting to put a 9 24-month letter in my file. 10 Did you ever go back to the Company and 0. 11 ask them to reduce the 24 months to 18 months? 12 Talked to Becky Parker, who was the 13 grievance lady that took care of the settlement part 14 of it, and she said that was the best we were going 15 to get. 16 Did you ever contact the Company directly 17 or just Ms. Parker?

No, because everything was settled through Α. my grievance person.

MS. GEHRKE: Okay.

I'm going to object to any MR. CHAPPELL: more questions here. This is a confidential settlement. I know that she rejected it. You know she rejected it. But to get into all the pros and cons --

As my Union president, yes, it does. 2.1 BY MS. GEHRKE: 2.2. Are you familiar what they call the golden 2.3 rule at Southwest Airlines? 2.4 Α. I sure am. Herb Kelleher came up with it. 25 Okay. 1 Α. It means treat each other with respect, 2 treat others as you would want to be treated.

- Q. Okay. And did you follow the golden rule with respect to how you treated Ms. Stone?
- Going back to the women's march, I could say the same to her as my Union president. Did she treat us with respect by wearing pink pussy hats and marching with Planned Parenthood, that the ones that actually feel the way that we do and reached out to us? No, she didn't.

And I do apologize for the way that I responded to it. I wish I could take it back. And if I could have a conversation with her and with Mike Sims, I would love to and apologize to her. And maybe we could start a dialogue, a real good dialogue, because, yes, I do make mistakes, and that is what I did. And I do apologize for it, and I take full responsibility of it.

- 0. I just have one final question for you. If Ms. Stone had sent you the videos that you had sent her, particularly given your history, would you have been offended by that?
- No, I would have reached out to her. And Α. I told that to my base manager and I also told that to Mike Sims. I would have wanted to know was there

- Q. Are you aware that Southwest has various policies regarding social media and workplace violence?
 - A. Yes, I am.
- Q. And what is your understanding of those policies?
- A. We're not supposed to post anything that's negative or makes Southwest in a bad light, nothing negative about Southwest that could be misconstrued. They've changed it a couple of times. We're not supposed to mention other employees or be rude or harassing or can't say anything negative about anybody even if it's true or not. You're not supposed to spread rumors and misinformation. You can't be bullying or threatening or harassing or retaliatory. I think that's the keyword.

BY MR. JENNINGS:

- Q. So what was the specific thing that you were reporting to Southwest in this e-mail?
- A. Well, he's alluding to the fact that death is going to meet me in D.C. And what that refers to, I had started a recall petition to recall some of our members of our executive board, and I had at this time, in November of 2016, had collected all the necessary signatures.

And at the time it was unclear if I was to turn those signatures in to our international reps in D.C. or if I was supposed to turn them in to the board. So I just made a post on one of our groups on Facebook that, hey, got the signatures, I'm ready to go to D.C., ready to turn them in and get this going.

And just a few days later this video came out saying that death will be meeting him there in D.C., and it was sent to me. I took that to think death was going to meet me if I took those signatures to D.C. He was dressed in like a mask and black hood and face paint, but you could -- you could tell who it was, and it had his name on it on the video.

1 THE ARBITRATOR: Had whose name? 2 THE WITNESS: Ricky Spand's, because he 3 posted it on one of his pages. BY MR. JENNINGS: 4 5 And at the bottom of the exhibit, is 6 that -- can you identify that URL link or describe 7 what it is? 8 In Facebook, yeah, it's a link that you Α. 9 could go to to see the video. So I had turned this 10 in to Julie O'Grady and Deborah Edwards, but I never 11 received a response back from them. 12 Okay. At this time we're going to show Ο. 13 you the video, and you can describe it. 14 Α. Okay. 15 (Video played) 16 So could you please describe the video Ο. 17 that we just watched? 18 That was posted on, as you can see there, 19 Instagram. It was also posted on Facebook and 2.0 directed towards me. And a lot of people sent that 2.1 to me through e-mail saying, "Have you seen this, this is pretty -- pretty freaky." So that's when I 2.2. 2.3 wrote the letter. 24 And after a couple of weeks I never heard 25 back from the Company, I never heard from Julie or

     Deborah, so I sent another e-mail to Mike Sims heard back from them.

               MR. JENNINGS: No questions.

11
     BY MS. GEHRKE:
12
               Ms. Jackson, you testified that you 13 started the recall petition for the current 556 14 leadership? Is that right?
15
          Α.
               Yes.
16
               So is it fair to say that you don't 17 support Audrey Stone and her leadership at the 18
     Union?
19
               I do not support this leadership, no, I 2.0
     don't.
2.1
          Q. You testified that when you sent this e-mail to Ms. O'Grady and Ms. Edwards that you did not receive a response? Is that correct?

2.3
2.4
          Α.
               From this particular one?
25 0.
               Yeah.

1 A. No, I did not receive a response.

- Q. Did someone acknowledge receipt of it at all?
- A. I got a receipt of it when I sent it to Mike Sims. He said, "I'll check into it."
- Q. Okay. And you understand the Company policy is that when complaints come in that an investigation will be conducted? Do you understand that?
 - A. Yes, I do understand that, yes.
- Q. Okay. And do you know that investigations and complaints are generally treated confidentially by the Company?
 - A. Yes, they're supposed to be.
- Q. Okay. So you wouldn't necessarily be told the outcome of the investigation or if discipline were imposed on employees. Do you understand that?
- A. That I would not be told? Sure. But to see him everywhere leads you to believe he's still employed here after threatening me.
- Q. But you would acknowledge that he could have been -- received a warning, a counseling, even a suspension, or maybe he was terminated and for different reasons he was reemployed, correct?

- A. It's supposed to be kept confidential, yes.
- Q. You testified that you saw Mr. Spand at the June 2017 anniversary party and you saw him in passing?
 - A. In passing, uh-huh.
- Q. Did you actually have any kind of conversation with him during that party?
- 12 A. No.
 - Q. He never made any threats towards you?
- A. I don't know that he saw me. I saw him and I went a different way.
 - Q. But there was no incident there?
- 17 A. No incident, no.
- Q. And the October 25th, 2017, when you saw him at the Union office, did he make any threats to you at that time?
 - A. He came in the office, and I left the office.

     BY MR. CHAPPELL:
11
               Mr. Hand, where are you currently 0.
12 employed?
13
          Α.
               Southwest Airlines.
14
               Okay. And what is your position?
          0.
15
               I'm a flight attendant.
          Α.
16
               Okay. And how long have you been a flight
          Ο.
17 attendant?
18
          Α.
               About 15 years.
19
               Okay. And have you always been a flight
          0.
2.0
     attendant during your employment with Southwest?
2.1
          Α.
               No, I was a customer service agent for 2.2
     about a year in Los Angeles prior to going inflight.
2.3
               Okay. But once you became inflight or a flight attendant, you remained a flight attendant
2.4
25
     from that point forward to today?
```

1 Α. Since November 2003. 2 Okay. And are you aware that Southwest 0. 3 Airlines has a social media policy? I am. 4 Α. 5 Okay. And that they have a harassment and Q. 6 bullying and hazing policy? 7 Α. Yes. 8 Okay. And are you aware that flight Ο. 9 attendants are told that if they see violations of 10 this policy they should report it to management? 11 Α. Yes. 12 Okay. And have you ever done that, seen a 13 violation and you yourself have reported another 14 flight attendant? 15 Α. I have. 16 MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. I'm going to show 17 you what -- is this 7? Okay. This is going to be 18 called CC Exhibit 7. 19 MS. GEHRKE: Whole packet is 7 or just the 20 first page? 2.1 MR. CHAPPELL: We are going -- let's try 2.2 to do it as one exhibit, which -- well, that is the 2.3 one exhibit, right? There's nothing else with that? 2.4 MR. JENNINGS: Right. 25 MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. So let me pass that

 2
                     (Grievant's Exhibit CC-7 marked)
 3
     BY MR. CHAPPELL:
 4
               Now, this is where the fun begins. Can 5 you see -- do I need to be closer? Do you recognize 6 it?
 7
               No, I can see it.
          Α.
 8
               Okay. Do you recognize what I'm holding
          Q.
 9 up?
10
          Α.
               I do.
11
               Okay. Can you describe what it is?
          0.
12
               It's the post that Sam Wilkins made where 13
     she talks about having a gun and she can't stand 14
     Mitt Romney.
15
               Okay. And did you do something about that 0.
16 post at the top of Exhibit CC-7? Is that your 17 typing, your text?
18
          Α.
               That's my typing, my text, yes.
19
               Okav. And is that -- would it be fair to Q.
2.0
     characterize that as your complaint to management 2.1
     about the posting by another flight attendant about 2.2
     Mitt Romney and her gun?
2.3
          Α.
               Yes.
2.4
               MR. CHAPPELL: I move the admission of 25
     CC-7.
```

1
               MS. GEHRKE: I'm going to -- I'll ask him 2
     on cross, but it's not clear to me that this is a 3 complaint to management.
 4
               THE ARBITRATOR: Yeah, it needs a little 5 direction.
 6
               MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. Yeah. You are 7 correct. Let me clear that up.
     BY MR. CHAPPELL:
 8
 9
               What did you do with this, "Wow, here is a 0.
10 specific threat of violence"?
11
               I mailed it in to Southwest Airlines.
          Α.
12
          Q.
               Okay. To a department or to a person?
13
               I think I sent it to employee relations.
          Α.
14
               Okay. So this wasn't an e-mail, this is Q.
15 your rendering of a letter that you sent?
16
               It was sent through U.S. mail.
          Α.
17
               Right. And the -- I'll hold it up here so 0.
18 you can see it. The actual text that you're talking 19 about seems to have a date of 2012 which would 2.0
     correspond to the Romney campaign. Is that correct?
               That's correct.
2.1
          Α.
2.2
          Q.
               Okay. And therefore, is it fair to say 2.3
     that the U.S. mail that you sent, which is the top 2.4
     of CC-7, was sent in 2012 as well?
```

No, it was sent within the last year or

Α.

```

     two.
 2
               Okay. So last -- 0.
 3
          Α.
               Yeah, I didn't -- I didn't keep the date, 4
     but I think it was within the last two years.
 5
               Okay. So in 2015 or '16?
          Q.
 6
               I think so.
          Α.
               MR. CHAPPELL: Now I'll try again to move
 7 8
     it.
 9
               MS. GEHRKE: Okay. I have a couple of 10 objections. I don't see the relevance because the 11 threat of violence was against a third party, Mitt Romney, not a Southwest -- fellow Southwest Airlines 12
13 employee. And it's an old post from October 2012.
14
     He didn't turn it in until the last year or two, so 15
     I guess I just don't see the connection.
16
               THE ARBITRATOR: Address that on cross.
17
     And if that's the case, it'll go to the weight, but 18
     I'll allow the exhibit itself. CC what?
19
               MS. GEHRKE: 7.
20
               MR. CHAPPELL: 7.
2.1
     BY MR. CHAPPELL:
2.2.
               Okay. The post by Sam Wilkins, that 2.3
     appeared on Sam's personal Facebook page?
2.4
          Α.
               I believe so.

 - A. No, I sent in another -- another one.
 - Q. Okay. And when and what did you send in?
 - A. I sent in a post about Bill Holcomb.
 - Q. Did you have a cover letter or some explanation?
 - A. I did send a letter along that I did not have. After I changed computers, I lost that Word document. But I sent it in to employee relations as well, a copy of his Facebook profile page connecting showing him as a Southwest Airlines employee and a post that he made about a passenger.

 - A. Yeah, I did.

               MS. GEHRKE: I have no --
10
               THE ARBITRATOR: By the narrowest, it'll 11 be admitted subject to what weight I give it, but 12 you can cover that on cross-examination.
13
               MS. GEHRKE: Fair enough.

Similarly, it wasn't in 2013. Α. Yes. was sometime thereafter. The cover letter that I would have sent went away with my old laptop, so I don't have that.

- Okay. And have you had a chance after you sent in the complaint on this last one, have you had a chance to see Bill Holcomb as a flight attendant or know whether he's still employed at Southwest or not?
- I haven't seen him in years. I haven't Α. talked with him in years. Because he was a Union negotiator, I think I would have heard through the grapevine or online that he had been removed as a -as a negotiator for our last contract. But I didn't hear that, so I make the assumption he's still employed with Southwest Airlines.
- Right. Is it your understanding -- you were a member of the Union at one time. Is that correct?
 - Α. I was.
- Okay. Is it your understanding that if you lose your job at Southwest that you can no longer serve as a Union officer?
 - Repeat that question. I'm sorry. Α.
 - Is it your understanding that if you are Q.

no longer employed by Southwest, you can no longer 1 2 be a Union officer? 3 Α. With the local I believe that's true, yes. 4 MR. CHAPPELL: Okay. And we do have 5 testimony in the record about Bill Holcomb's status, 6 current status or whatever, so I won't go further 7 with that. I have no other questions. 8 MS. GEHRKE: Okay. Nice to meet you. 16 I have a few follow-up questions. 0. 17 Sam Wilkins, you testified that her 18 original post was in October 2012 but that you did 19 not send that post to Southwest for several years? 2.0 Is that right? 2.1 Α. Correct. 2.2. Q. Why did you wait so long to make the 2.3 complaint about -- is it a female or a male? 2.4 Α. I think she's a female, Samantha Wilkins. 25 Okay. Ms. Wilkins. Why did you wait so Q.

- A. I'm sorry. What was your question?

 - Q. Why would someone send you a post from Ms. Wilkins from years ago?
- 12 A. I have no idea.

- 14 A. I don't -- I think it was probably Holly 15 Imamovic maybe.
- Q. Okay. Yeah, we're familiar with her.

 - A. Iam. Iam.
- 19 Q. Sorry. Go ahead.
- A. Yes, yes.
 - Q. And you support the recall movement, correct?
- A. I didn't sign the petition. I'm not allowed to as an objector.

current Union leadership be replaced. Is that 1 2 right? 3 That would be correct. 4 And do you have any kind of animosity or Ο. 5 dispute with Ms. Wilkins or what -- why did you feel 6 the need to turn her in years later? 7 Α. felt they should be sent in to Southwest because they violated the policies that we're all to uphold.

 - A. No, go ahead.
- Q. Did you ask other Southwest Airline employees to send you social media posts that could be questionable or violate Company policy?
 - A. No, no.
- Q. They just -- they initiated sending you these random posts?
- 12 A. I think everyone sends them around. So, 13 no, I did not request it.
 - Q. Are you aware that the Company issued what are called read before flies regarding social media?
 - A. There have been many, I think.
 - Q. Okay. Excuse my reach. We're a little logistically challenged here, but -- how long did you say you've been employed?
 - A. Since May 2002.

Α. Yes. In 2009 I have -- we have recorded one social media violation complaint. In 2010 we had one complaint. In 2011 the numbers started to increase, and it seemed that the violations or the allegations were mainly focused in the inflight department. The other departments didn't seem to be nearly as active on social media.

So then by 2012 and 2013 we were dealing with social media complaints and potential violations on at least a weekly basis, if not an almost daily basis.

- And around this time, this is when the TWU Local 556 was having a lot of internal turmoil regarding Union leadership, right?
- I don't remember the exact timing, but I believe that was about the time that the former president was under the microscope from some of the membership. They wanted him ousted from his position.
- Ο. Is it accurate to say that a lot of the Union's leadership issues played out on social media, though, and that's what kind of caused this spike in complaints?
- Α. The thoughts and feelings of the flight attendants about the Union leadership is what

- Q. Were both Union supporters and recall supporters -- well, I don't know if they were recall supporters -- Union supporters and people that did not support the current leadership accused of violating the social media policy?
- A. Yes. I am not really schooled on who supported the Union and who was against the Union. However, from many of the comments that were posted, you could infer what their feelings were about the leadership.
- Q. Okay. And were both sides, both Union supporters and those who were upset with Union leadership, filing complaints against each other as well?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. And did the Company take those complaints seriously?
 - A. Absolutely.
- Q. Did the Company initiate investigations to determine that there had been a violation of Company policy?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. And has the Company's position with respect to the appropriate level of discipline changed over the last year or two?

Yes, it absolutely has. The complaints and comments were at such an increased volume, and prior to the advent of social media we would have just -- I would have pulled those people into my office and said quit bickering, next time you're going to get in trouble.

But it really did get out of control to the point that in February of 2017, earlier this year, the vice president of inflight operations along with the other two VPs put out that joint read before fly stating, you know, this has got to stop. And actually that has greatly helped in the volume of complaints that we are receiving.

- And you testified previously about 0. Southwest Exhibit No. 5, which was the 2016 read before fly?
 - Α. Yes.
- And was that kind of the beginning of the Company's crackdown, or was it really in 2017?
- Well, I think that in 2016 we were -- we were getting much more serious about it and recognized that we had to take a much stronger stance, a firmer hold on it. The 2016 RBF was not as effective as we would have liked, so we put out

- Now, you testified previously that you were often called to be involved in investigations or discussions regarding flight attendant discipline if there's a potential for suspensions or terminations, correct?
 - Α. Yes.
- Okay. And that would include these social Ο. media violations?
 - Α. Yes.
- From your experience, if the Company Ο. determines that there's been a serious violation of Company policy, whether it be the social media, the bullying, hazing, harassment, is there a kind of framework for what's the appropriate level of discipline, or is it a complete case-by-case scenario?
- Well, it's a combination of the two. Α. The discipline, of course, would depend on the circumstances of the case. If it was just a social media violation and there were not other policies that had been violated, if it was not a credible threat, if it was not some egregious behavior, then

- Q. And what happened to that person?
- A. She received another 30-day suspension.
- Q. And why was she given another suspension?
- A. Well, the nature of the violation, what she posted was extremely distasteful, it was inappropriate, and it was directed toward another flight attendant. However, it was not threatening. It was not -- I don't know if -- we didn't determine that there was any violation of the harassment policy, so that one mainly was focused on violation of just the social media policy.

- A. I knew -- I absolutely knew there was a complaint about -- against Brian Talburt, yes.
- Q. And did you have any involvement in the investigation or fact finding process?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Okay. What was your involvement?
- A. Well, I'd have to -- because this was three years ago, I'd have -- three and a half years ago, I'd have to go back, of course, and look at the file to see what my direct involvement was, but I would have consulted with the base and I would have read through all of the documents at that time to determine what would be the appropriate or to work with the base to determine the appropriate discipline.
- Q. Do you recall whether or not the Company concluded Mr. Talburt had violated Company policy?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. The Company did conclude he violated policy?
- A. Yes.

 - Α. Yes.
 - Mr. Hand testified, and I realize you Q. weren't in the room, that he had sent the Company two complaints regarding what he considered inappropriate social media violations, one involving Sam Wilkins from 2012 and another involving Bill Holcomb from September 2013.

During the break we asked you to go look to see if the Company had record of receiving those complaints. Well, first of all, does the Company generally log complaints as they are received?

- Α. Absolutely.
- And how does it track the complaints that Ο. are received?
- We have a database that we call ProLaw. Α. That's the program is ProLaw. We also have the base -- at the domicile where the person is based, they keep records on the computer of their investigations.
 - Okay. And did you just go look to see if Q.

 - A. I could find nothing from Mr. Hand regarding Sam Wilkins. I did find records of complaints against Bill Holcomb.
 - Q. And to your knowledge did the Company investigate that complaint?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. And did it take any disciplinary action against Mr. Holcomb?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. I want to ask you about flights that were going to the women's march. There's been testimony in the arbitration regarding Southwest or -- either as a Company or certain flight attendants making the aircraft lighted pink to show support for the march and the women going to the march.

Are you aware that that was part of the step 2 documentation submitted by Ms. Carter?

to make the lighting pink on aircraft going towards the D.C. area for the march?

- A. There was nothing sanctioned by the Company.
- Q. Okay. Are you aware of whether or not certain flight attendants may have taken it upon themselves to change the lighting in the cabin?
- A. I did hear that that happened on some flights, yes.
- Q. And would that have been a violation of Company policy?
- A. Yes, it would have been, except that we do occasionally -- you know, we give our flight attendants a lot of freedom. And when there are certain special events on the plane, we actually encourage them to celebrate those.

For instance, if a sports team or the plane is mostly full of one particular set of fans for a sports team, they may play that team's fight song over the P.A. Or if there is, you know, one of our honor flights where we're taking veterans to D.C., we recently had a young boy who sang the national anthem over the P.A. So there — or weddings are huge. We oftentimes do big celebrations for people who are getting married.

So they -- we do encourage our flight attendants to recognize and celebrate with our customers.

- Q. But in this instance did the Company receive complaints about the pink lighting on the plane and that somehow supporting the march?
- A. I would not have been in receipt of those complaints. I think there may have been one customer who wrote in, but otherwise I really don't know.
- Q. Are you aware of the Company doing any investigation into complaints about the pink lighting?
- A. They would have -- if we received a complaint regarding a specific flight and specific flight attendants, we would have contacted those flight attendants and requested them -- requested reports from them.

And then if there was anything that warranted -- if it was just a coach and counsel, that would have been over the phone. If we felt there was any potential for violation, we would have brought them in.

And what is this titled The Basic 0. 12 Principles, what is this in reference to? 13

A. Well, years ago when these were first written, our handbook was actually called the Guidelines for Leaders. It's -- it was changed at least ten years ago, I think, to the Guidelines for Employees. And any employee is subject to these, but especially leaders.

In all of the in-house leadership training that Southwest provides for their leaders and management, this is one of the things that we stress. And each one is -- each leader is really bound to make sure that they are following these principles in dealing with other employees.

- Well, it's very relevant. In fact, every Α. base leader, when they are selected for that position, receives a framed copy of the basic When I was at the base, I kept that principles. right on my desk because these really are our quidelines for -- one of the sets of quidelines for when we are investigating issues or if there are -if there's anything that needs to be dealt with for professional relationships.
- And how would this have factored into, if at all, the Company's investigation of Ms. Stone's complaint regarding Ms. Carter's messages?
- Well, I think that the number 1 has always Α. stood out to me very strongly, "Focus on the situation, issue, or behavior, not on the person." We don't pick and choose which of our employees are protected. We also -- it's so -- you know, when we're talking about is someone a Union supporter or anti-Union, that has no place in the investigation because we're looking at the situation, the issue, or the behavior, not that person's beliefs or affiliations.

president should not necessarily have factored into 1 2 the Company's investigation of Ms. Carter?

- Α. Absolutely not. It should not prevent her from being protected, nor should it give her any extra rights of protection. She should be treated the exact same way that we would any other employee from the brand-new person in cargo all the way up to Gary Kelly.
- There has been a lot of testimony from 0. Ms. Carter that she really viewed this as, you know, a Union dispute and this was her Union president and that's who she was writing to when she sent those messages.

From the Company's perspective, did the Company see this as a Union issue?

- No, absolutely not. Α.
- Why not? Q.
- There was nothing in the posts that she Α. sent to Ms. Stone that I saw that had any relation or relevance to Union protected activity or speech. There's a time and a place and a manner for everything, and had she wanted to discuss this issue with Ms. Stone, there would have been an appropriate way to do it. Her posts and her private messages were not appropriate.
